IT is a remarkable fact, that while the converts to the belief that Phrenology is true, have, within a few years, must astonishingly multiplied, there does not exist on the American continent a single periodical whose object is to advocate its truths, repel the attacks made upon it, or answer the enquiries which even candid persons are disquiries which even candid persons are dis-posed to make concerning it. And this is the more surprising since the materials al-ready existing and daily augmenting, with which to enrich such a publication, are almost inexhaustible.

The science of medicine has its appropriate media through which to present to the profession and to students all the new facts which occur, and all the new theories which are advocated in the various institutions of medical science throughout the world; and it is proper that it should be so. The same it is proper that it should be so. The same is true of the other leading professions of the content as above) for divinity, and law, there is no publication through which, as the appropriate channel, those bearings may be pointed out. On all these subjects there is encouragement to hope for contributions from several able pens; while the resources of the editor himself will not, it is hoped, be found inconsiderable-

The religious character of the work will be decidedly evangelical: for one prominent object in giving it existence is, to wrest Phrenology out of the hands of those, who, in ignorance of its true nature and tendencies, suppose that they find in it an instruwhich to subvert the truths of revealed religion, and loosen the bonds of huweated religion, and losen the bolids of his-man accountability, and moral obligation.— A frequent subject of discussion in our pages will therefore be, The Harmony between the truths of Revelation and those of Phrenology. And on the subject of the religious bearings Anne-Arundel County Orphans' Court, of our science we respectfully solicit the en-quiries and objections, not of cavillers, but March 12th, 1839.

AMERICAN SILK . SOCIETY RURAD BOONDMIST.

A T a Convention which met at Baltimore
A on the 11th of December last, composed of a great number of gentlemen from various parts of the Union, distinguished for their public services, patriotism, and practical intelligence, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That it is the deliberate opinion of this Convention that Silk may be grown in all the United States, not only for domes.

Under the latter resolution, J. S. SRIBERR postmaster, of Baltimore, was invited to become the editor of the work, and has consented to do so-so far as may be consistent ties.

In the course of the discussions which took which have been encountered, and which which have been encountered, and which may yet be apprehended, in the prosecution of the silk culture, as a great branch of American industry, were fully considered; and the result was an universal conviction that, now, in the words of the resolution, Silk may be grown in the United States, not only for domestic purposes, but as a valuable article of commercial export.? The suitableness of our soil and climate to the growth and health of the worm, and the trees which supply its food; the capabilities, the habits, and the genius of our people for conducting the business through its whole process, and the price of American labour as compared with that of silk-producing countries, all were fully canvassed, and the most sceptical became satisfied. The fact is, that our unestrained freedom in the entertainment and liscussion of various and discordant doctrines, religious and political, has imparted to us, as to our English ancestry, an omnierous appetite for knowledge, and a capacity to learn in a few years what cannot be acquired in ages, where all is dell conformity ties apparently insurmountable! How long, dle was put in motion before Yankee Lowells' were sold at a profit in China? So willit be with silk. The only question is as to how long it shall take us? With a monthly journal to concentrate and diffuse every ray of floating light on the subject, it was the opi-

objects of private happiness, and of national ndependence.

Though Silk, and every thing connected vith its production; and all improvements in machinery for its preparation and manufacture, will constitute the chief design and aim of the journal, for the sake of agreeable and useful variety, a considerable portion of its pages will be dedicated to the justly popular nd kindred subjects of agriculture, horticulture, and rural and domestic economy. Hence, the adjunctive title Rural Economist.

The Journal of the American Silk Society will be published monthly, in pamphlet form, each number will contain thirty-two pages, printed on new type and handsome paper, with a printed coloured cover.

All persons friendly to the objects of the Journal will please collect at once and transmit the names and subscription money of

Mr. R. Monroe gave up every thought of recovery, and dire despair sat on the countenance of every person interested in his existence or happiness, till by accident he noticed in a public paper some cures effected by Dr. Wrn. Exans' Medicine in his complaint, which induced him to purchase a package of the Pills, which resulted in completely removing swry symptom of his disease. Mrs. J. E. Johnson, wife of Capt. Joseph Johnson, of Lynn, Mass, was severely afflicted for ten years with Tie Doloreux, vielent pain in her head, and vonciting, with a burning heat in the stomach, and unable to leave her room. She could find no relief from the advice of external physicians, nor from medicines of any kind, until after she had commenced using Dr. Evans' medicine, the work of 100 Chutham street; and from that time she began to amend, and feels satisfied, if she continue the medicine a few days longer, will be perfectly cured. Reference can be had as to the truth of the above, by calling at Mrs. Johnson's daughter's Store, 389 Grand st. N. Y.

PARALYTIC RHEUMATISM. A perfect cure effected by the treatment of Dr. W. Livins. Mr. John Gibson, of North Fourth street, Willinmelungh, afflieted with the above complaint for three years and nine months; during which time he had to use crutches. His chief symptoms were excruciating pain in all his joints, but especially in the hip, shoulder, knees and snkles; an aggravation of the pain towards night; and for the most part all times from the external heat, an obvious thickening of the fascia and ligaments, with a complete loss of inuscular power.—
For the benefit of those afflicted in a similar manner,
Mr. Gibson conceives it meet to say that the pains have
