SPRING AND POETRY.
The Editor of the Cincinnati News has had his imagination exalted by the poetic influence of spring, and thus pours out the tide of song—
"And now the merry ploughboy
Whistles his morning song
Along the dale and through the vale
To school loud and long;
The farmer's flocks are roving free,
And on the budding shrubbery
His spouse's
Coores
Browses;
And the martins have returned and found
A welcome at our houses;
And the little niggers run around
Divested of their trousseau."

HYMENEAL.

IN CHANCERY,
9th May, 1839.
Joshua Green vs.
Williams Fowler and John Leighton.
THE object of the bill filed in this cause is to obtain a decree for the sale of the land hereinafter mentioned, to pay the balance of the purchase money due thereon. The bill states, that the complainant, on or about the 27th day of March 1837, sold to the defendants, Williams Fowler and John Leighton, a parcel of land lying on the east side of the Susquehanna river, in Cecil county, containing about twelve and a half acres more or less, for the sum of two thousand dollars, five hundred dollars of which was to be paid in cash, five hundred dollars six months after date, and the residue in eighteen months from date. That the cash payment was made, but the other payments have not been made, but the same are due and owing, although the time at which the same should have been paid has elapsed. That complainant has no means of obtaining the money due as aforesaid, but by resorting to his lien upon said land. The bill also states, that the said defendants, Williams Fowler and John Leighton, reside out of the State of Maryland.
It is thereupon Ordered, That the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be published in some newspaper once in each of three successive weeks before the 17th day of June next, give notice to the said respondent defendants of the substance and object of the bill, that they may be warned to appear in this Court in person, or by a Solicitor, on or before the 8th day of October next, to show cause, if any they have, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.
