

PROSPECTUS OF THE AMERICAN PARENTOLOGICAL JOURNAL & MISCELLANY.

It is a remarkable fact, that while the contributions to the Journal have, within a few years, not only multiplied, but have also become more valuable...

The science of medicine has its appropriate limits through which to present to the profession and to students all the new facts which occur, and all the new theories which are advocated in the various institutions of medical science throughout the world...

The object of this work will be to preserve from oblivion the most interesting of the very numerous facts, confirmatory and illustrative of the truth of phrenology...

The religious character of the work will be decidedly evangelical for one prominent object in giving it existence is, to wrest the subject out of the hands of those, who, in ignorance of its true nature and tendencies, suppose that they find in it an instrument by which to subvert the throne of human accountability, and moral obligation...

As our object is the establishment of Truth, we solicit the communication of facts which are supposed to militate against Phrenology, and we pledge ourselves to publish them in all cases in which we have satisfactory vouchers for their genuineness; and in which all the facts in the several cases are furnished to us...

Original Essays on Phrenological subjects will form part of the Journal as also, Reviews of Phrenological and Anti-Phrenological works; nor shall we fail to present to our readers such matters of interest and importance as may be found in foreign Phrenological works of standard excellence, and which are not generally accessible to the American public...

To encourage Patrons of talent (and especially professional men who are Phrenologists) to enrich the work with their contributions, we offer a printed matter, as liberal a compensation as possible, for every article which is accepted, and which is not promised to editors, but which is our property...

In conclusion, we may be allowed to say, that the pecuniary value of each number will depend much on the extent to which the work is patronized.

It is a remarkable fact, that while the contributions to the Journal have, within a few years, not only multiplied, but have also become more valuable...

1. The American Phrenological Journal and Miscellany will be issued monthly, commencing on the 21st of October next.

2. Each number will contain at least 32 octavo pages, making a volume of not less than 384 pages corresponding in point of mechanical execution with the best periodicals of the day...

3. The work will be furnished to subscribers at $2 per annum for a single copy $5 (current in Philadelphia or New York) for three copies, or $10 (current as above) for seven copies sent to one address.

4. Subscriptions, and letters of business, may be addressed to the publisher, ADAM WALDIE, 46 Carpenter-street, Philadelphia.

5. As funds are already deposited for sustaining the work one year, subscribers will incur no risk of loss by paying in advance; and for the same reason, subscriptions will be invariably required in advance.

6. Money sent by mail, if enclosed in the presence of the post master, will be at the risk of the publisher; but postage must, in every case, be paid.

7. Postmasters throughout the country will please to act as agents for this Journal, August 25.

THE CULTIVATOR.

CONDUCTED BY J. BUEL, of Albany.

Presenting our subscription for the sixth volume of the Cultivator, the Conductor avails himself of the opportunity of tendering his thanks to the gentlemen, whose voluntary exertions have given to this paper a circulation almost unprecedented in our country.

The Cultivator will continue to treat of the science of agriculture, to furnish instructions for the best modes of practice in all the departments of husbandry, in horticulture, and other rural affairs.

All papers stopped at the end of the volume, in February, unless the subscription is renewed.

AMERICAN SILK SOCIETY.

A Convention of the American Silk Society was held on the 11th of December last, at Baltimore.

Resolved, That it is the deliberate opinion of the Convention that Silk will be raised in all the United States, not only for domestic purposes, but as a valuable article of commercial export.

Resolved, That a National Silk Society be established under the auspices of the Executive Committee, and all the funds and above the support of said Society be devoted to the advancement of the silk cause in the United States.

In the course of the discussions which took place in the Convention, all the difficulties which have been encountered, and which may yet be approached, in the production of the silk culture, as a great branch of American industry, were fully considered.

Resolved, That the price of American silk be raised to the level of European silk, and that the price of American silk be raised to the level of European silk.

Resolved, That the price of American silk be raised to the level of European silk, and that the price of American silk be raised to the level of European silk.
