NUISANCES

A Supplement to the By-Law to prevent Nuisances in the City of Annapolis, and its Precincts. [Passed July 8, 1839.]

1. Be it established and ordained by the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Annapolis, and the authority of the same, that the City Commissioner be and he is hereby authorized and required to regulate and direct the manner in which Hogs and Hog Pens shall be kept within the city and precincts...

2. And be it established and ordained by the authority aforesaid, that upon information being lodged with the said City Commissioner that any Hog Pen or Pens, within the said city or precincts, have become offensive to the neighbourhood in which it or they may be located, by reason of negligence on the part of the owner or owners in cleaning the same, it shall be the duty of the said City Commissioner, upon being satisfied by personal inspection of such negligence, to order the owner or owners to have the same properly cleaned, and so kept, and upon his, her, or their failure to do so, he, she or they, shall be liable to a fine of one dollar for every day such failure shall continue after the day of notice aforesaid, to be recovered as other fines and forfeitures are recoverable, one half thereof to the informer, and the other half for the use of the Corporation.

3. And be it established and ordained by the authority aforesaid, that it shall be the duty of the said owner or owners to disperse or remove from the limits of the city, from time to time, all filth that may collect in or about such Hog Pen or Pens, under the penalty mentioned in the second section of this By-Law.

JOHN MILLER, Mayor.

Ordered, That the Clerk furnish the City Commissioner with a copy of the foregoing By-Law, and that said Commissioner have fifty copies of the same printed and stuck up in the most public places of the city.
