ed for piniet

as con-

lic du-

ch toök

which

n that,

not onducting

nt doc-

ained by

y ray of the opiy realize on which hlet form.

ber longer

rican Sta-

ed to a coe-Arundel rthouse in DAY, the

of the Le-

MENDIAL TRANSCRIPT.

1. POLITICS.—The Post and Transcript will be 1. FOLLY BLOW and the destrict of the destrict of the first of probability server and which constitute the findamental bloments of our social and political system. As this declaration imports, on the great question of National Politics, the paper will be of the mirkt coave em - structionist" school, maintaining that the action of Ga-taining vermient should be limited to the exercise of these powers which are specifically enumerated in the contipowers which are personnelly oppose the measures of those, who by a loose interpretation of this measures to four liberties, seek the establishment of schemes subversive of the principles upon which the funds fair fabric of our government is reared, and which, ta.
paper checked, tend to confusion and anarchy from which to felief can be found but in despotism. // ///
Among these schemes, regarded as of obviously dra

gerous tendency, is that of a National Benk, which, however harmless or useful it might be in the ful strength and unanimity of the republic, would, in a period of danger,-its branches penetrating every part of the country, and in the words of Jefferson, " by command and iti phalant,"—have power to interpose serious and alarming obstacles to the operations of

The assumption of the right to impose a tariff be. yend the duties necessary to supply the constitution noney upon schemes of internal improvement, and the interference of government with the domestic institu-tions of the States, particularly with the institution of Slavery, will be equally opposed as encroachments up.

on the constitution and upon the rights of States.

The liability of the fights to periodical convulsions, and their inability to confilly, at all times, with the conditions upon which they are employed by the the conditions upon which they are employed by the conditions upon the conditions upon the rights of the constitution and upon the rights of States. and their inability to comply, at an annual, ditions upon which they are employed by the Treasury, ditions upon which they are employed by the Treasury, ditions upon a single state of 1837, render the meahabits, as evinced by the suspensions of 1837, render the me sure of dispensing with their sener in endeting the fiscal operations of Government one of obvious nece-sity. The Post and Transcript will therefore advocate ries, all the adoption of the Independent Treasury System, as a measure calculated to relieve government from the con our unin its flecal action, and reduce the potent influence of mparted the Executive over a league of deposite Banks, to the mere power of appointing the few officers necessary to carry out the system. But while the Treasury System be supported as a judicious fiscal meass in other interests—with such checks as are calculated to in other secure the object of their creation, will be supported as essential to the prosperity and advanceme country.

Such is the outline of the doctrines for the advocacy Sow long, some spinton spinton spinter (LowSo will it is to hose
so will it to hose
so his the outline of the doctrines for the saveray of which the new paper is to be commenced, and to the detence and vindication of which the Euroa pieces his best support. They are the doctrines of the present administration; and as their continuance and efficiency and much upon the energy and zeal of those to whom the important office of carrying them into effect is entrusted, the paper will tealously advocate the re-election of MARTIN VAN BUREN to the Presiden-cy, as one who has proved himself eminently qualifed to uphold and defend them and insure their unembar. procras-Turkish rassed action. It is believed the Post and Transcript eratic paper already engaged in the cause in this city. On the subject of State politics the paper will adve rs of silk, and the principles of our republican institutions. Aware of the great cautien and deliberation with which this related to these ject should be approached, it will nevertheless fearles. convinced us to be necessary, or such as the history of other States in the confedracy has taught to be wise ements in and salutary.

manufacThe aff important subject of Internal Improvement and aim will be earnestly pressed upon the public attention; the reable and ion of its completion of the great works in which the State is aly popular ready so deeply interested, will be urged as positively necessary to preserve inimpaired the cultical and to secure the true and permanent prosperity of our City

II. COMMERCE.—The commercial department of the paper will be attended to with the utmost care, and no effort will be spared to ronder the information relawo pages, tire to foreign, domestic and local markets, and the golden paper, orbital state of trade, full and satisfactory.

III. AGRICULTURE.—This important subject and trans- to it in similar publications; and besides detailing facts money of of importance to the farmer and planter, it is intended to discuss the principles of agricultural economy and to claim for the husbandman that station as a citize to claim for the husbandman that station as a citival and an important producing agent, to which his independence and labours entitle him.

1V. The ARTS, both fine and mechanical will have

IV. The ARTS, both fine and mechanical, will have their appropriate department, and such discussion will be entered into as will tend to evolve the true principles upon which both are founded and to foster the elforts of native genius and skill rather than of foreign desire to ingenuity.

V. LITERATURE AND NEWS.—The Post 2nd Transcript will aim at nourishing a sound and pure li-terary taste, and at the same time will endeavour is equal the best of its cotemporaries in judicious selec-tions and in the promptitude, accuracy and extent of its general intelligence, foreign and domestic.

The first number will be issued in the course of the present month, after which it will be regularly continued. It is desirable that the names of subscriber is returned as speedily as possible to the Publisher.

TERMS.—The Post and Transcript will be of the largest class of newspapers—the Datty at $8, and the Tri-Werkly at $5 per annum, payable in advance, as guaranteed in the city.

BITAH letters must be addressed to S. P. SKINNER, Philos Park and the state of the city.

Editor Post and Transcript, Baltimore, Md.

BT Those containing remittances may be forwarded at the expense of the publisher; eff others, mustbe pet confidence, Neatly executed at this PRINTING office.

The Atarpland Gazette.

ANNAPOLIS, THURSDAY, AUGUST 15, 1839.

Printed and Published by JONAS GREEN, At the Brick Building on the Fublic

Price-Three Dollars per annum. HIGHLY IMPORTANT.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT.

If Nerrous diseases, liver complaint, dyspepsia, biloss diseases, piles, consumption, coughs, colds, spitloss of blood, pain in the chest and side, ulcers, female tag of blood, pain in the chest and side, ulcers, female tag of blood, pain in the chest and side, ulcers, female
tag of blood, pain in the chest and side, ulcers, female transmission, low spirits, palpitation of the heart, nertransmission, low spirits, palpitation of the heart, nertransmission, low spirits, palpitation of the heart, nertransmission, loss of appetite, hearthurn, gosen'debility, bodily weakness, chloroais or green sicksess, flatalency, hysterical faintings, hysterics, headseks, hiccup, sea sickness, night mare, rheumatism,
talban, it douloureux, cramp, spasmodic affections,
talban, it douloureux, cramp, spasmodic affections,
talban, aussea, vemiting, pains in the side, limbs,
lead, stomach or back, dimness or confusion of sight,
sess is the inside, alternate flushes of heat and chill, sess tremors, watchings, agitation, anxiety, bad dreams, passins.

Discipling Office, 100 Chatham st. New

Principal Office, 100 Chatham st. New

INTERESTING & ASTONISHING FACTS, are amongst the numerous CURES performed by the use of Dr.

Wm. Evans' Medicines.

PRINCIPAL OFFICE, 100 Chatham Street, New RINCIPAL OFFICE, 100 Chalham Street, New York, where the Doclor may be consulted perronally, or byletter, (post paid) from any part of the United States, 4c. Persons requiring medicine and advice, mast enclose a Bank Note, or Order.

CERTIFICATES.

17 MORE CONCLUSIVE PROOFS of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. WM. EVANS celebrated CIVOWILE and APERIENT ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS, in alleviating afflicted mankind.—Mr. Robert Cameron, 101 Bowery. Disease, Chronic Dysentery, or Bloody Flux. Symptoms, unusual flatulency in the bowels, severe griping, frequent inclination to go to sool, tenesmus, loss of appetite, nausca, vounting, frequently fettly matter, mixed with blood, great debility, sense of burning heat, with an intolerable bearing down of the parts. Mr. Cameron is enjoying perfect health, and returned his sincere thanks for the extraordinary kacfit he had received. CERTIFICATES.

STANDING.—Mr. Robert Monroe, Schuylkill, afficted with the above distressing inalady. Symptoms: Great languor, flatulency, disturbed rest, nervous head, sche, difficulty of breathing, tightness and stricture across the breast, dirsciness, nervous irritability and rest, lessness, could not lie in a horizontal position without the sensation of impending suffocation, palpitation of the heart, distressing cough, costiveness, pain of the stomach, drowsiness, great debility and deficiency of the nervous energy. Mr. R. Monroe gave up every thought of recovery, and dire despair sat on the countrance of every person interested in his existence or happiness, till by accident he noticed in a public paper some cures effected by Dr. Wm. Erans' Medicine in his complaint, which induced him to purchase a package of the Pills, which resulted in completely removing trery symptom of his disease. He wishes to say his source for this declaration is, that those afflicted with the same or any symptoms similar to those from which less happily restored, may likewise receive the same instimable benefit.

TE LIVER COMPLAINT, TEN TENER COMPLAINT, TEN YEARS' STANDING.—Mrs. Hannah Browne, wife of Joseph Browne, North Sixth st. near Second street, Williamsburg, afflicted for the last ten years with Liver Complaint, restored to health through the treatment of Dr. Wm. Evans. Symptoms: Habitual constipation of the bowels, total loss of appetite, excretating pain of the epigastric region, great depression of spirits, languar and other symptoms of extreme debility, disturbed sleep, inordinates flow of the menses, pain in the right side, could not lie on her left side without an aggravation of the pain, urine high coloured, with other symptoms indicating great derangement of the functions of the liver.

the liver.

Mrs. Browne was attended by three of the first physicians, but received but little relief from their medicine, till Mr. Browne procured some of Dr. Wm. Evans' invaluable preparations, which effectually relieved her of the above distressing symptoms, with others, which it is not essential to intimate.

JUSEPH BROWNE.

which it is not essential to intimate.

JOSEPH BROWNE.

City and County of New York, ss.
Joseph Browne, Williamsburgh, Long Island, being daly sworn, did depose and say that the facts as set forth in the within statement, to which he has subscribed his name, are just and true.

JOSEPH BROWNE,

Husband of the said Hannah Browne.

Sworn beside me, this 4th day of January, 1837.

PETER PINCKNEY, Com. of Deeds.

A CASE OF TIC DOLOREUX.

A CASE OF TIC DOLOREUX.

Mrs. J. E. Johnson, wife of Capt. Joseph Johnson, of Lynn, Mass, was severely afflicted for ten years with Tie Doloreux, violent pain in her head, and vomiting, with a burning heat in the stomach, and unable to leave let room. She could find no relief from the advice of saveral physicians, nor from medicines of any kind, until after she had commenced using Dr. Evans' medicine, of 100 Chutham street, and from that time she began to amend, and feels satisfied if she continue the medicine a few days longer, will be perfectly cured. Reference can be had as to the truth of the above, by calling at Mrs. Johnson's daughter's Store, 389 Grand st. N. Y.

PARALYTIC RHEUMATISM.-A perfect cure effected by the treatment of Dr. W. E. reas. Mr. John Gibson, of North Fourth street, Williamsburgh, afflicted with the above complaint for three years and nine months; during which time he had to use crutches. His chief symptoms were excruciating pain in all his joints, but especially in the hip, shoulder, knees and ankles; an aggravation of the pain towards night; and for the most part all times from the external heat, an obvious thickening of the fascia and ligaments, with a complete loss of muscular power. For the benefit of those afflicted in a similar manner, Mr Gibson conceives it meet to say that the pains have entirely ceased, and that his joints have completely recovered their natural tone, and he feels able to resume his ordinary business.

sight, could not lie on her right side, disturbed rect, utter inability of engaging in any thing that demanded vigour or courage, sometimes a visionary idea of an aggravation of her disease, a whimsical aversion to particular persons and places, groundless apprehensions of personal danger and poverty, an irksomeness and weariness of life, discontented, disquietude on every slight occasion, she conceived she could freither die nor live; she wept, lamented, desponded, and thought she led a most miserable life, never was any one so bad, with frequent mental hallucinations.

most miserable life, never was any one so bac, with frequent mental hallucinations.

Mr. Kenny had the advice of several eminent physicians, and had recourse to numerous medicines, but could not obtain even temporary alleviation of her distressing state, till her husband persuaded her to make trial of my mode of treatment. She is now quite relieved, and finds herself not only capable of attending to her domestic affairs, but avows that she enjoys as good health at present as she did at any period of her existence.

J. Kenny, husband of the aforesaid Anne Kenny.
Swern before me, this 14th day of December, 1836.

Peter Pinckney, Com. of Deeds.

(An Extraordinary Cure performed The Extraordinary Cutre performed by Dr. Wm. Evans, of 100 Chatham st. N. Y.—Mr. W. W. W. of 160 Eldridge street, was labouring under a disexe, which was by many physicians considered incurable, and could find no relief from any source whatever, until he made application to Dr. Evans, and placed himself under his successful course of treatment, from which he began to find immediate relief, and in a few weeks was perfectly cured.

A Letter from Mr. Sheldon P. Gilbert, to Dr.

hare experienced from Dr. was hare experienced from Dr. was Sheldon P. Gilbert.

Durham, Green Co., N. Y.

DT Another recent test of the unrivalled virtue of Dr. Wm. Evans' Medicines.—DYSPEPSIA, TEN YEARS' STANDING.—Mr. J. McKenzie, 176 Stanton street, was afflicted with the above complaint for 10 years, which incapacitated him at intervals, for the period of six years, in attending to his business, restored to perfect health under the salutary treatment of Dr. Wm. Evans.

The sun along verse—A sense of distension and onto perfect health under the salutary treatment of Dr. Wm. Evans.

The symptoms were—A sense of distension and oppression after eating, distressing pain in the pit of the atomach, nausea, impaired appetite, giddiness, palpitation of the heart, great debility and emaciation, depreasion of spirits, disturbed rest, sometimes a bilious vomiting, and pain in the right side, an extreme degree of langour and faintness; any endeavour to pursue his business causing immediate exhaustion and weariness.

Mr. McKenzie is daily attending his business, and none of the above symptoms have recurred since he used the medicine. He is now a strong and healthy man. He resorted to myriads of remedies, but they were all ineffectual. He is willing to give any information to the afflicted respecting the inestimable benefit rendered to him by the use of Dr. Wm. Evans' medicine.

cine.

(C) An Extraordinary and Remarkable Cure.—Mrs. Mary Dillon. Williamsburgh. corner of Fourth and North streets, completely restored to health by the treatment of Dr. W. Evans, 100 Chatham st.

The symptoms of this distressing case were as follows: Total loss of appetite, palpitation of the heart, twitching of the tendons, with a general spasmodic affection of the muscles, difficulty of breathing, giddiness, langour, lassitude, great depression of spirits, with a fear of some impending evil, a sensation of fluttering at the pit of the stomach, irregular transient pains in different parts, great emacation, with other symstoms of extreme debility.

The above case was pronounced hopeless by three of the most eminent physicians, and the dissolution of the patient daily awaited by her friends, which may be authenticated by the physicians who were in attendance. She has given her cheerful permission to publish the above facts, and will also gladly give any information respecting the benefit she has received, to any inquiring mind.

mind.

(CP DYSPEPSIA AND HYPOCHON-DRIACISM.—Interesting Case.—Mr. William Salmon, Green street, above Third, Philadelphia, afflicted for several years with the following distressing symptoms. Sickness at the stomach, headache, dizzness, palpitation of the heart, impaired appetite, sometimes acid and putrescent cructations, coldness and weakness of the extremities, emaciation and general debility, disturbed rest, a sense of pressure and weight at the stomach after eating, nightmare, great mental despondency, severe flying pains in the chest, back and sides, costiveness, a dislike for rociety, or conversation, involantary sighing and weeping, languor and lassitude upon the least exercise.

Mr. Salmon had applied to the most eminent physicians, who considered it beyond the power of medicine to restore him to health; however as his affliction had reduced him to a very deplorable condition, and having been recommended by a relative of his to make trial of Dr. Wm. Evans' medicine, he with difficulty repaired to the office and procured a package, to which, he says, he is indebted for his restoration to life, health and friends. He is now enjoying all the blessings of health. Persons desirous of further information, will be satisfed in every particular as to this astonishing cure, at Dr. Wm, Evans' Medical Office, 100 Chatham st. N. Y.

Chatham street.—Mr Daniel Spanning, of Shrewabury, Eden Town, New Jersey, was severely afflicted with Piles for more than 20 years. Had had recourse to medicines of almost every description, also the advice of several eminent physicians, but never found the slightest relief from any source whatsoever, until he called on Dr. Evans, of 100 Chatham street, N. Y. and procured some medicine from him, from which he found immediate relief, and subsequently a perfect cure.

ligaments, with a complete loss of muscular power.
For the benefit of those afflicted in a similar manner, Mr. Gibson conceives it meet to say that the pains have entirely seased, and that his joints have completely receivered their natural tone, and he feels able to resume his ordinary business.

To Mrs. Anne F. Kenny, No. 115 Lewis street, leatween Stanton and Houston sts., afflict. For ten years tween Stanton and Houston sts., afflict. For ten years with the following distressing symptoms: Acid cructation, daify spasmodic pains in the head, loss of appetite, dirziness in his head, the bowels commonly very costive, the unit high coloured, and often profuse sweating, unattien, daify spasmodic pains in the head, loss of appetite, dirziness in his head, the bowels commonly very costive, the unit high coloured, and often profuse sweating, unattien, daify spasmodic pains in the head, loss of appetite, dirziness in his head, the bowels commonly very costive, the unit high coloured, and often profuse sweating, unattiened by relief. The above symptoms were also it.

tended with considerable difficulty of breathing, with a sense of tightness across the chest, likewise a great want of due energy in the nervous system.

The above symptoms were entirely removed, and a perfect cure effected by Dr. Win. Evans.

BENJ. S. JARVIS.

City of New York, ss.

Benjamin S. Jarvis being duly sworn, doth depose and say, that the facts stated in the above certificate, subscribed by him, are in all respects true.

BENJ. S. JARVIS.

Sworn before me, this 25th of November, 1836, WM. SAUL, Notary Public, 36 Nassau st.

The above medicine for sale by

J. HUGHES,

Druggist, Annapolis G. IV. IVILSON, Upper Marlbro'.

January 17.

Anne-Arnudel County, Sct.

N application to the subscriber, Chief Judge of the Orphans Court of said County, and State of Maryland, by petition in writing, of John H. Hall of said county, stating that he is in actual confinement for debt, and for no other cause, and praying for the benefit of the act of Assembly, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at December session 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms therein mentioned, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the said John II. Hall ba-ring satisfied me, by competent testimony, Pills:

Dear Sir.—Had the immortal Cowper known the medical qualities of the Camomile Plant, he as well as thousands since (besides myself,) would have experiented it is wonderful effects on the nervous system. The public utility of Cowper was blighted in the bad, throthen natural effect of his nervous debitity upon the mental powers, which made it necessary for hun to seek relief beneath the rural shade, but the calm retreat gave his physical nature no repose. If some one then had known the secret of concentrating the medical virtues of Camonaile, the discoverer would have been immortalized with poetic zeal as the benefactor of suffering man. of Camornile, the discoverer would have been immortalized with poetic zeal as the benefactor of suffering man.

The alove lines were prompted from the effect 1
have experienced from Dr. Wm. Evans' Camomile Pills.

The value with the term Arundel county, to answer such interrogato-Arundel county, to answer such interrogato-ries and allegations as may be made against him, and having appointed James D. Weems his trustee, who has given bond as such, and received from the said John H. Hall a conveyance and possession of all his property, real, personal and mixed, (the necessary wearing apparel excepted) and certified the delivery into his possession of all the property of the said petitioner mentioned in his schedule, I do hereby order and adjudge, that the said John H. Hall be discharged from imprisonment, and that he give notice to his creditors, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in the city of Annapolis, once a week for the term of three months before the fourth Monday of October next, to appear before Anne-Arundel Courty Court to be held at the city of Annapolis on the fourth Monday of October next, to be the Monday of October next, to be the Monday of October next, to be made to the fourth Monday of October next, to be made to the fourth Monday of October next, to shew cause, if any they have, why the said John II. Hall should not have the benefit of the said act, and supple-

R. WEIJCH of Ben. Chief Judge of popphans Court A. A. Co'ty. July 26. ANNE-ARUNDEL COUNTY, Sct.

ON application to the subscriber, Chief Judge of the Orphans Court of said County, and State of Maryland, by petition in writing, of Jacob McCeney of Ben. of said county, stating that he is in actual confinement for debt, and for no other cause, and praying for the benefit of the act of Assembly, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms therein menments thereto, on the terms therein men-tioned, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the said Jacob McCeney of Ben. having satisfied me by competent testimony that he has resided two years in the state of Maryland immedi-ately preceding the time of his application, and having also satisfied me by the certifi-cate of the officer that he is in confinement for debt only, and for no other cause, and for debt only, and for no other cause, and the said Jacob McCeney of Ben. his ken the oath by the said act prescribed for the delivering up of his property, and given sufficient security for his personal appearance at the next County Court of Anne-Arundel county, to answer such interrogatories and allegations as may be made against him, and having appointed John II. Hall his trustee, who has given bond as such, and re-ceived from the said Jacob McCeney a conreyance and possession of all his property, real, personal and mixed, (the necessary wearing apparel and bedding of himself and family excepted,) and certified the delivery into his possession of all the property of the said netitioner mentioned in his schedule. I said petitioner mentioned in his schedule, I do hereby order and adjudge, that the said Jacob McCeney be discharged from imprisonment, and that he give notice to his creditors, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in the city of Annapolis, once a week for the term of three months, before the fourth Monday of three months, before the fourth Monday of October next, to appear before Anne-Arundel County Court, to be he d in the city of Annapolis, on the fourth Monday of October next, to shew cause, if any they have, why the said Jacob McCeney of Ben. should not have the benefit of the said act, and sup-

Test,
July 13.

POETRY.

THE EMERALD ISLE.

BY CATHARINE II. WATERMAN. Far, far o'er the waves of the blue glancing waters, Sweet Erin, my country, I wander to thee, Thy free hearted sons and thy bright smiling daughte Are calling me home o'er the wild swelling sea. My heart has gone out like a wild bird before me, And rests on thy shore, as I linger the while, To bless the bright heaven that sweetly shines o'er And the bark that is nearing the Emerald Isle.

Yes, Erin, green Erin, the' long years have whiten'd The dark shading lock that hung over my brow, Yet closer in fondness the chords have they tighten'd, Of the heart that is yearning to be with thee now. fancy I grasp the brave hand of my brother, I see the glad light of a sister's fond smile, I stand in the hall of my father and mother, Who welcome me back to the Emerald Isle.

Oh! land of the grateful-where every emotion Of kindness is fostered, of friendship sincere, Whose every breast in its loyal devotion, Would barter its life's blood to spare thee a tear, Oh! beautiful land whose sunny eyed daughters, Wear hearts on their lips, that have never known guile hasten to thee, o'er the far swelling waters.

My home, and my country, the Emerald Isle. MISCELLANEOUS.

INTERESTING TRIAL FOR MURDER. Extract of an article under the head of "The Northern Circuit," in the last number of Blackwood's Magazine:-The last trial of interest that I witnessed in the Crown Court was that of a man for the mur-der of his wife. He seemed about thirty-five years old, and was dressed in respectable mourning. He stood at the bar with an air at once of firmness and depression. He was a little under the average height, and his countenance rather prepossessing than otherwise. From the evidence in chief of the first two witnesses, it would have appeared clear that he had been guilty of a most barbarous murder. On their lepositions before the coroner, a verdict of manslaughter only had been returned; but in reading them Mr. Justice Patterson had felt it his duty to instruct the Grand Jury to bring in a bill for nurder—a step which seemed most amply justified by the evidence which they now gave. It appeared from testimony that the prisoner had me dispute with the deceased-being a most violent man, they said-and knocked her down her head falling against the sharp corner of a chest of drawers, which cut it open, and the wound bled profusely; and that, while she was thus prostrate and insensible, the prisoner furiously attacked and struck her repeatedlydeath on the same evening, or the evening after, I forget which, being the consequence.

As far as this evidence went, nothing, course, could have been more brutal than the conduct of the prisoner; but on cross. examination of the first witness, a little ill-looking old woman, the mother of the deceased, and who gave her evidence manifestly under the influence of the most bitter resentment towards the prisoner, the case began to assume a different aspect.

It was wrung from her under great prevarication, and was also established by other witnes ses, that she had herself, on the evening in question, been drinking gin with the deceased, at the residence of the latter, a miserable cellar. That she had herself fetched five quarterns of gin for the deceased on that occasion. That the deceased and the witness, at her request, had frequently pawned all her husband's clothes and those of her children, whom she once or twice sent to bed early in the afternoon, to enable her to dispose of their clothes. That the prisoner was a pilot, a remarkably steady and hardworking man, and carned amply sufficient to enable him and his family to live in very comfortable him and his family to live in very comfortable circumstances; but this accursed propensity of his wife's had beggared them, and driven them from their former comfortable dwelling to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried the carried the carried the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred the carried to the wretched cellar in which had occurred to the wretched tastrophe then the subject of inquiry. That on the evening in question he had come home from June 13. the sea, wet and wearied, but found that every article of his clothing had been pawned by his wife, and that his children were lying in bed almost naked, their little clothes having shared the same fate; and that his wife was drunk, as was also the first witness. Furious words very naturally ensued, and it was under these truly exasperating circumstances that he had strugexasperating circumstances that he had strug-gled with his wife, so as to occasion—but it gled with his wife, so as to occasion—but it was clearly unintentionally—her fall; and it cer? was clearly unintentionally—her fall; and it cer? will she was (al.) ling in the most fashionable and modern style. tainly did appear that, either while she was ful-ling, or immediately afterwards, he had more than once struck her with some violence; but stand; his hos quivered, his chest heaved, and, in spite of efforts, tears forced themselves from his eyes. Mr. Justice Patterson observed his agita. tion, and seemed himself not a little affected when he beheld the little thing, in obedience to the summons of the loud-voiced officer, brought into court and placed close beside him. to give evidence which might seal the fate of her father. She was so very short, that he handed over the officer the footstool he had been using, in order that she might stand upon it; and even then the head of the little witness did but just come above the top of the witnessbox. She was rather a pretty looking girl, and her face was very sad and pale. She did not, however, cry, though her eyes seemed glued to the figure of her miserable father, who never once ventured to look towards her, and whose tears, silent evidence of the anguish he was enduring, fell frequently. In other respects, he

"My child," said the Judge, as I thought, with a little emotion, as he bent down his car to her, "do you know that you have come here to speak the truth?"

preserved a stern composure throughout the

"Yey. Sir."

"What will become of you, do you think, if you tell a lie?"

She paused; the Judge repeated the question; she answered distinctly, "I shall be burned in everlasting fire."

"Where did you learn that?" "The Bible, Sir."

"Have you ever been to school!"

"Yes, Sir, at the Sunday school."
"She may be sworn," said the Judge; and the eath was immediately administered to her.

Was not this, dear Christopher, a grievous sight to see? The little daughter called to give evidence against her father, on his trial for life, for the murder of her mother? Though in a melancholy tone and sad manner, she gave her evidence with great propriety, clearly and firm-ly, her tiny voice could be heard distinctly in all parts of the crowded and silent court. She evinced, as was to be expected, a strong lean-ing towards her father; but she admitted that he had struck her mother when she was lying bleeding on the floor. She also stated that her mother had several times actually taken herthe little girl's—shoes and stockings off her feet, that she might sell them for gin; and that she and the other children had often been obliged to go to bed, because their mother and grandmother had taken away their clothes for the vile purposes above mentioned. Who could listen to all this without feeling the deepest commiscration towards the unhappy prisoner? Till he had been hurried into the acts with which he then stood charged, he had always borne an unblemished character for a quiet, respectable man, who laboured hard to support his family, and who could have kept them in comfort, but for his wife's ruinous propensity to drink. His counsel addressed the jury on his behalf with much earnestness, contending that on the whole of the evidence, the prisoner was entitled to an acquittal, or at least, to a verdict of manslaughter. The Judge, however, directed the jury that there was no evidence in support of the charge of murder, but that the prisoner had been clearly guilty of manslaughter. He then recapitulated the evidence; and after a quarter of an hour's consideration, the jury pronounced a verdict of 'manslaughter." Ho was sentenced to thirteen months' imprisonment with hard work.

NOTICE.

MIE subscriber being desirous to settle up his business, respectfully calls upon all persons indebted to him to call and setthe their accounts either by Cash or Notes, on or before the first day of September next.

WM. BRYAN.

July 18. 7

HOUSE, SIGN, & OKNAMENTAL PAINTING and GLAZING.

PETURNS his manks to the public and his friends for the liberal encouragement he has received in his line of business, than once struck her with some violence; but not in any way to have alone caused her death, which the medical evidence had shown to have been occasioned by the injuries which she had received upon her head in falling upon the drawers, added to the effect of violent excitement and excessive liquor upon a person in her situation.

NOTICE.

The third witness brought forward against the prisoner, was, alas' his own daughter, a little girl about five or six years of age, decently dressed in black. When her name was called, the prisoner, with an agonized countenance, looked away from the spot where she was to stend; his lips quivered, his chest heaved, and, in spite of efforts, tears forced themselves from his

N, Clk. ndel Counffer his ser-PP of said

Y.