The "Baltimore Clipper" is the title of a new penny paper which made its appearance on Saturday.

The ship Relief, of the U. S. Exploring Squadron, was at Callen on the 6th June.

From the Albany Daily Advertiser. We observe under the head of Military Intelligence, in the last Army and Navy Chronicle, the following singular item:

"1st dragoons—Lieuts. W. Eustis, H. S. Turner and P. Kearny have been ordered to France!"

"Singular" as the above may seem, it is nevertheless true; and, moreover, these officers have sailed in the packet ship Ville de Lyon, for Havre. We did not feel at liberty to mention the object of the order, but inasmuch as it appears "singular" to others, it may be as well to state that the above named officers have been sent abroad, it is understood, to study and examine into the French and other European systems of cavalry tactics.

Correspondent of the Philadelphia U. S. Gazette. NEW YORK, Monday, P. M.

The Great Western is not yet in, and every thing is as dull as may be.

It is now stated that the lake steamer Great Western sustained so little damage, compared with what was previously reported, that it is declared the boat can be repaired for $10,000.

Capt. Williams, who was drowned off the Eli Hoyt, Near Washington, N. C., was the oldest seaman of that port. He had been on the waters some forty years.

A fire has occurred at Kingston, U. C., which has destroyed eight buildings and their out-houses.

The Methodist Missionary Society, despatches a vessel from here the 1st of next month, with fifty passengers for Oregon Territory.

No shipping intelligence of importance.

THE GALE. LOSS OF NINE LIVES. We learn from the Boston papers of Tuesday, that the brig Tilton, Greenlaw, of that port, from Calais for Providence, with a cargo of lumber, twelve passengers, went ashore on Marshfield beach, at midnight of Friday, in the gale, and nine of the passengers, consisting of an Irish woman and five children, on their way to New York to join her husband, and three children of a Mr. and Mrs. Hogan, who were on board, perished.

After the brig struck, the sea quickly beat in her stern, and most of the clothing, &c. was washed out of the cabin.—The vessel has also bilged, and will not probably be got off, no insurance. Her cargo, which is owned in Calais, is landing on the beach, and nearly all will be saved. The wreck is in charge of Mr. Waterman Thomas, South Marshfield. The name of the woman who perished is Mrs. Catharine Duress.

The U. S. Revenue Cutter Jackson, Capt. N. Dicker, returned yesterday from a cruise in search of the slave pirate. The cutter was in the late gale, and sustained considerable damage—loss of starboard quarter boat, lower booms, port shutters, and obliged to leave overboard the lee guns. Capt. Dicker states that in forty-five years he has not experienced such a severe gale.—N. Y. Express.

Mr. Kingham, Postmaster at Hingham, states that a lumber loaded schooner, from Maine, broke from her anchorage in Cape Ann harbor, during the gale, and drove across the bay, and went ashore this forenoon, near Green Hill, a short distance from Worrick's Hotel, in Hull. The crew were taken off in a whaleboat. It is thought the vessel will go to pieces. Name not given.

Brig Nelson, of Eastport, with coal, struck off Great Point Rip during the severe N. E. gale yesterday, and the captain with his wife and crew landed at Great Point.—Nantucket paper.

THE LATE GALE—GALLANT CONDUCT. We learn from the Newbern Spectator that 14 vessels were driven ashore at the bar near that place, during the late gale. The crews of three of these vessels were saved by the extraordinary and unaided efforts of one man, whose conduct on the occasion is beyond all praise. The Spectator thus notices his noble and generous act:

We cannot close our brief notice of the events of the gale without paying a well merited tribute of admiration and applause to Mr. AMASA STRYKER, for his noble daring in behalf of his suffering fellow-citizens. During the latter part of the late gale, and at a time when others stood aloof from the perilous undertaking, Mr. S. put off alone in an open three crews who succeeded in saving the lives of three crews who were in imminent danger. The first vessel he approached,—the Thomas Winn—was sunk, and in so exposed a situation, that he could not get alongside; the gallant STRYKER anchored his boat at a short distance from the wreck, plunged into the boiling surge, swam to his boat! The line having been made fast to the boat, the crew of the wreck warped her alongside, got on board, and were rescued from a watery grave. The intrepid STRYKER next succeeded in boarding the Alabama, and taking off her exhausted and exposed crew, whom he landed at Portsmouth.

With a perseverance which does him everlasting honor, the dauntless STRYKER again put to sea in his boat, determined to save the crews of the William Gray, or perish in the attempt.—Her situation was so exposed, the breakers making an entire breach over her—that he could not approach nearer than about twenty yards of her, to leeward, where he anchored. He leaped among the breakers, encouraged the crew to throw their baggage overboard and accompany him, assuring them that,—the boat being to leeward,—all would be saved. After some hesitation they complied, reached the boat, and were saved.

At this time a strong ebb-tide prevented their return to Portsmouth. Mr. STRYKER landed them, through the breakers, on the sea-ward side of Dry Shoal point, where all remained till the flood-tide made, when they launched the boat, re-passed the breakers, and reached Portsmouth about 11 o'clock at night, almost exhausted with fatigue and exposure.

From the Hagerstown Torch Light, Sept. 5. THE CANAL WAR. We have been permitted to read the official Report of Col. Thurston to Gen'l. Williams, relative to the operations of the force under his command, against the Rioters on the Canal, and have only time to make a hasty selection of the facts embraced in the Report.

On Tuesday morning the 27th Aug. Col. Thurston moved from Cumberland with a force of about 80 men, composed of Capt. King's, Haller's and McCulloh's Volunteer Companies, in the direction of Little Orleans, where he arrived at 12 o'clock the next day and found all the laborers at work, without any suspicion of his approach. Captured all the men on the section, picked out such as could be identified as Rioters, disarmed them all, destroyed the arms and moved up the line. On reaching the next section above, the Col. discovered that an express had been sent up by the workers announcing the arrival of the troops, consequently those who were conscious of guilt had an opportunity to conceal themselves, or to carry off their arms. From this point up, they were engaged in searching for concealed arms & pursuing those who fled. They were joined by Col. Hollingsworth's and Major Barnes' Cavalry—destroyed 40 or 50 shanties and shops; took and destroyed about 120 guns and pistols, and captured 28 of the prominent leaders, who are now in the Cumberland Jail. The troops were actively engaged for five days, and performed a march of 81 miles.

The state of the country along the whole line is described as being in the most unhappy condition. The lives and property of Citizens and Contractors so utterly at the mercy of the rioters that not one of the people within their reach, was willing to give information or even to be seen communicating with the troops. A regular organization among the laborers was forming. They possess, as far as could be ascertained, about 500 stand of arms, and but a few days ago they procured a further supply of 50 large duck guns from Baltimore. The troops found a number of copies of printed Pass words and Countersigns, one of which was sent to Gen'l. Williams, and handed to us by him.

A Mr. Hughes who was beaten at Little Orleans, by the rioters, is now lying at the point of death, and a German laborer who had been literally roasted alive by them, is now undergoing severe suffering.

The cavalry returned here on Monday evening in good health, after experiencing great fatigue and deprivation, in a march of many days over a rugged and uninhabited country.

The following are the Pass words and Countersigns of the Connoightmen, to which we have referred:—

Q. The winter is favorable. A. So is friendship increasing.

Q. True Connoightmen is valiant. A. Yes, and never will be defeated.

Quarrelling Words. Q. That Connoightmen may be steady. A. And they will be respected.

Pass Words. Q. That all Connoightmen may be nice. A. Yes, without they may meet their enemies.

AN INCIDENT. A few nights since, while the steamboat De Witt Clinton was on her way to Albany, and all the passengers had retired to rest, the inmates of the ladies' cabin received an accession of one to their number—a female infant, to which one of the ladies had given birth in the cabin. The mother was an Irish woman, whose husband was on board the boat with her. In the morning, within one or two hours after the passengers had left the boat, the mother with the infant in her arms, walked on shore apparently as hale and well as if nothing of the kind had happened. The child in honour of the floating house in which it was born, was appropriately named Mary Clinton.—N. Y. Gazette.

LOSS OF THE SHIP NORWAY. CAPT. BARNES.—We learn that a schooner arrived here this morning having on board the Captain and crew of the ship Norway, which vessel foundered off Hatteras during the late gale. Vessel said to be insured in Boston. [N. Y. Journal of Commerce.]

Another death has occurred by a small child inhaling steam from the spout of a tea pot of boiling water. A young man named Dey, (a mason) died at the hospital from a fracture of the skull, caused by falling from a scaffold in 9th street.—N. Y. Star.

On Tuesday afternoon a distinctly marked mirage was observed in the harbor of Boston.

Yankee, says the Advertiser, of which only the sails could be seen in the distance, were represented by a distant image inverted above the horizon, exhibiting not only the sails but the hull. In some instances images were seen apparently of vessels below the reach of direct vision.

NEW ORLEANS. The Courier of the 31st ult. says that the deaths in New Orleans during the month of August were but little short of 700! and that 500 of these were produced by the yellow fever which now ravages the city and suburbs.

Boil the heavy red onion down with sugar, and make a thick syrup of it; drink as much of it as you please daily; it cures the gravel and stone, as is said.

A GOOD SHOT. There were killed, by a young man on the farm of Mr. John Reybold, near Delaware city, one hundred and three snipe at a single shot.—Philadelphia U. S. Gazette.

LOSS OF STEAMBOATS IN THE WEST IN 1859. The Alton Telegraph calculates as follows, the list of steamboats lost or considerably injured on the western waters during the year 1859.

We quote an abstract: Whole number eighty—of which, there were Blown up - - - - 8 Collapsed, - - - - 6 Burst steam-pipe, - - - - 2 Burnt, - - - - 2 Snagged, - - - - 37 Sunk, - - - - 17 Collision, - - - - 2

Of these, 13 were lost on the Ohio, 50 on the Lower Mississippi, 5 on the Upper Mississippi, 2 on the Missouri, 2 on the Illinois, 1 on the Arkansas, 1 on Red River, 1 in the Gulf of Mexico, and 3 in other places.

Of the eight blown up, only one, the Moccie, was on the Ohio; of the six collapsed, none; of the thirty seven snagged, four were on that river.

On the 28th ult., Miss Tabitha O'Neal, a highly respectable lady, about 35 years of age, was murdered near Ghent, Carroll county, by her slave Bartlett, a boy 20 or 21 years of age. It appears that she went to him in the field, and was scolding him for a serious injury inflicted upon a horse, whereupon he gave her two blows with an axe, one of them upon the head and the other across the throat—the latter nearly severing her head from her body. He then buried her in the field under a mass of leaves and made his escape upon her riding-horse.

Bartlett has since been apprehended near Cedar Creek in Owen county and taken back to Carroll. He confesses the murder and states that he had been instigated to it by two other negroes belonging to his mistress.—Kent. pap.

WONDERFUL ESCAPE. The St. Augustine Herald states that one of the labourers in Mr. Dallam's employ has arrived at Tampa, with the following story, which, in addition to his being a man of credibility, is corroborated by the marks of ligatures on his arms, and burns on his legs.—When the Indians made the attack on Colonel Harney, this man was taken alive and tied to a tree with leather thongs. The Indians having completed their horrid work, retired to carouse and dance, and an old squaw brought a quantity of wood, placed it round the prisoner, set fire to it, and went away. A shower providentially coming up deadened the fire, and at the same time softened the leather, which enabled the man with tremendous exertion, to loose one arm so as to untie himself—then watching his opportunity, he dropped on his hands and knees, crept to the beach, where finding a canoe, he put off. After reaching what he considered a safe distance, he lanced on a point, where he subsisted on raw clams, until he got on board of a small vessel that was passing.

NEW METHOD OF RAISING FRUIT TREES. The new method of raising fruit trees by planting the scions is said to have many advantages over the old method. It is better than the grafting because it is more expeditious and requires no stocks. They are more easily planted and take but little trouble. To plant them properly, the scion should be taken any time after the first of February and each end dipped in tallow or shoemaker's wax or pitch, and buried in the ground, the buds uppermost, while the body lies in a horizontal position and two or three inches deep. It is said they will bear in three or four years from the planting. [Frederick Herald.]

SALE OF MORUS MULTICAULIS. Thirteen hundred and fifty Morus Multicaulis trees were sold in this town on Tuesday last, of all sizes, from one foot to eight, at 49 cents per tree—the purchaser paying for them on the spot, and taking all future risks of the season.—Wilmington N. C. Ad.

MISS WESTFALLS. We copied a paragraph from our Buffalo namesake the other day, announcing the death of the young woman whom Captain Appleby is accused of brutally ill-treating on board his steamboat. Our namesake now contradicts the statement, on the authority of a correspondent—a magistrate who went to see her, after her death was reported, and found her alive and well. It seems that her father set the report of her death afloat, to wake up people's sympathies in his behalf, and so bring in contributions.

The Buffalo Commercial intimates that perhaps there has been some treachery in the affair throughout, and that Captain Appleby may be found innocent after all.—N. Y. Com. Ad.

CRUELTY TO BRUTES. We saw yesterday, a great lhaberry boy, with strength enough to drag a well-laden hand-cart, driving before him a dog, of rather small size, harnessed to a box on wheels. The contents of the box indicated the occupation of the biped who owned it. He was a vender of friction matches, a regular loafer of the make-believe do something order. All the matches in the box would not weigh so much as one of its sides, yet the lazy rascal had the impudence to make a poor, half starved dog, carry a burthen which the well-fed biped might have borne, in a bag or bundle, on his little finger.—We had a great mind to kick the fellow; but that would have been an assault "in extremis," more honoured in the breach than the observance, and would have put us decidedly in the wrong. Counsellor Gill would not sustain us under Lynch law, we well knew—so we didn't kick the scamp, but we itched to kick him awfully.—Boston Trans.

The True American of the 31st August says—

On Saturday last Mr. G. W. Botts buried his eldest son, a lad of 14; on Wednesday he was himself carried to the grave, to be immediately followed by his wife, who died in the agonies of child-birth. Another child still lies gones with the disease.

We are happy to learn by advices from Tampa, that the party sent by Gen. Taylor, to bury the dead at Carlosobatchi, found Corporal Hayward and one Dragon still living, though severely wounded. They had run in opposite directions, and remained hid for several days, neither knowing of the proximity of the other. Their sufferings must have been extreme and indescribable. The bodies of Mr. Dallam, and his clerk, Morgan, were brought to Tampa for interment. Sandy Perryman, the interpreter of whom we have before spoken, has atoned for his offences—he was found dead on the ground. The other interpreter, Sampson, and one dragon, were not found.—St. Augustine Herald, 29th ult.

The Philadelphia Herald of Monday has the following notice:—We are requested to state that a Mormon preacher will hold forth this evening at the Commissioners' Hall, Northern Liberties. All who take an interest in becoming acquainted with the views of this class of professors can attend.

There were one hundred and ten cases of yellow fever admitted to the Charity Hospital, in New Orleans, during the week ending on the 31st ult. and there were thirty-four deaths.

Doctor W. EVANS' SOOTHING RUP. FOR CHILDREN PREPARED BY HIMSELF.

TO MOTHERS AND NURSES. The passage of the Teeth through the painful dentition, &c. produces in many mothers that there is great irritation in the gums during this process. The gums are swollen and inflamed, the child is in constant and sudden fits of crying, vomiting, the sleep, and system of peculiar parts; the child is restless, and throws its mouth with extreme violence, and thrusts its mouth. If these precursive symptoms are alleviated, spasmodic convulsions universally attend the eruption of the teeth, and soon cause the dissolution of the infant, there who have their little babes afflicted with these symptoms, would apply Dr. W. Evans' Soothing Syrup, which has been used of infants when through past reason suddenly attacked with that fatal malady.

A REAL BLESSING TO MOTHERS. Dr. W. Evans' Celebrated Soothing Syrup, for Children Cutting their Teeth. This infallible remedy has preserved children, when thought past recovery, as soon as the Syrup is rubbed on the child's neck, the pain is relieved, the child is soothed, and so pleasant, that no nurse to let its gums be rubbed with it, at the age of four months, the eruption of teeth, on both sides, is prevented by opening the pores and the never be without the Syrup in the nurse's young children; for if a child wakes with pain in the gums, the Syrup immediately applied to the gums, will be followed by procuring Convulsions, Fever, &c. Dr. Evans' Soothing Syrup. To the Agent of Dr. Evans' Soothing Syrup.—The great benefit afforded to my child by your Soothing Syrup, in a case of painful dentition, has induced me to purchase by your essential an early application of your medicine to relieve infant misery, and to soothe the mother's heart. I have used your medicine in many cases, and have seen the child's teeth come out, and the child's health restored, and the mother's heart soothed, and the child's health restored.
