Much as was promised by our Democratic brethren of Maryland, and much as we hoped and expected from willing hearts and hands in a good cause, all, all has been realized. The Democracy, nay, the people, have stepped forth as one man, and by a vigorous and well directed effort have swept the opposition by the board Our course is onward, conquering and to conquer. The victories achieved in the South and West, have, everywhere, and in every instance, met a responsive echo. The victory in Mary-land is complete, and we believe effectual, so far tinguished. as deciding the complexion of the approaching Congress. If doubt was entertained before this result, as to our predominance in that body, it is now we think completely dissipated, and a Democratic Speaker, and what is more and better, a Constitutional Treasury, are placed among the moral certainties. DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN NEW YORK. New York, we regret to find, has, like Philaelphia, been visited with a very destructive fire. It occurred at an early hour on Sunday morning, and destroyed between thirty and forty wareouses, stores, &c. before it was extinguished. An extra from the Herald, received by yesterday's mail, furnishes the following particulars: NEW YORK, Oct. 6.

DESTRUCTIVE CONFLAGRATION-O. VER THIRTY BUILDINGS DESTROY. ED-LOSS ESTIMATED TO BE UP.

WARDS OF $1,000,000.
This morting about 1 o'c'ock, a fire broke out in the fur store of Messrs. S. D. Halsey and Co., No. 189 Water street, which destroyed over thirty buildings. There was a fresh wind blowing at the time, and the destructive element swept through Water street, Burling slip and Front street and Fletcher street, and threatened at one time, to burn every building from Water street to the East River, taking in the blocks on Burling slip, Front and South streets. The public opinion after a while seemed to he that the affair was a hoax; and such, indeed, began to be our own belief; but we urged in conversation that it was more reasonable to suppose, that a man of any character or standing had fought as he said he did, than that, without any apparent object, he should tell a deliberate falsehood and sacrifice his reputation The correspondence at last came as stated at the time, enclosed in a letter from a gentleman Mrs. Eliza Anderson. of high standing, who had known Jones for many years, and who firmly believed in the truth of the story at the expiration of three or four weeks after the date of the affair.
