

PROSPECTUS
For publishing in the City of Baltimore
Daily and Tri-Weekly Paper to be called
BALTIMORE POST AND COMMERCIAL TRANSCRIPT.

The Star and Gazette

VOL. XXIV.

ANNAPOLIS, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1839.

NO. 50.

I. POLITICS.—The Post and Transcript will be the firm and undeviating advocate of the doctrine of DEMOCRATIC REPRESENTATION, which constitute the fundamental elements of our social and political system.

Among these schemes, regarded as atrociously dangerous tendency, is that of National Bank, which however harmless or useful it might be in the full strength and unanimity of the republic, would, in a period of danger, its branches penetrating every part of the country, and in the words of Jefferson, "acting by command and in phalanx," have power to interfere seriously and alarming obstacles to the operations of government.

Such is the outline of the doctrines for the advocacy of which the new paper is to be commenced, and to the defence and vindication of which the Editors pledge their best support. They are the doctrines of the present administration, and as their continuance and efficiency depend much upon the energy and zeal of those to whom the important office of carrying them into effect is entrusted, the paper will zealously advocate the election of MARTIN VAN BUREN to the Presidency, as one who has proved himself eminently qualified to uphold and defend them and insure their unobstructed action.

On the subject of State politics the paper will advocate a judicious reform, consonant with the spirit and principles of our republican institutions. Awed by the great caution and deliberation with which this subject should be approached, it will nevertheless faithfully advocate such changes as our own experience has convinced us to be necessary, or such as the history of other States in the confederacy has taught to be wise and salutary.

II. COMMERCE.—The commercial department of the paper will be attended to with the utmost care, and no effort will be spared to render the information relative to foreign, domestic and local markets, and the general state of trade, full and satisfactory.

III. AGRICULTURE.—This important subject will receive more attention than has usually been paid to it in similar publications; and besides detailing facts of importance to the farmer and planter, it is intended to discuss the principles of agricultural economy and to claim for the husbandman that station as a citizen and an important producing agent, to which his independence and labors entitle him.

IV. THE ARTS, both fine and mechanical, will have their appropriate department, and such discussion will be entered into as will tend to evolve the true principles upon which both are founded and to foster the efforts of native genius and skill rather than of foreign ingenuity.

V. LITERATURE AND NEWS.—The Post and Transcript will aim at nourishing a sound and pure literary taste, and at the same time will endeavor to equal the best of its contemporaries in judicious selections and in the promptitude, accuracy and extent of its general intelligence, foreign and domestic.

VI. TERMS.—The Post and Transcript will be of the largest class of newspapers—the DAILY at $3, and the TRI-WEEKLY at $5 per annum, payable in advance, unguaranteed in the city.

Dr. W. EVANS' SOOTHING SYRUP, FOR CHILDREN TEETHING.

Prepared by himself. TO MOTHERS AND NURSES. The passage of the Teeth through the gums produces troublesome and dangerous symptoms. It is known by a swelling of the gums, and a great irritation in the mouth and throat during the process.

A REAL BLESSING TO MOTHERS. Dr. W. Evans' Celebrated Soothing Syrup, for Children Cutting their Teeth.

This infallible remedy has preserved hundreds of children, when thought past recovery, from convulsions, spasms, and dangerous symptoms. As soon as the Syrup is rubbed on the gums, the child will recover. This preparation is so innocent, so efficacious, and so pleasant, that no child will refuse to let its gums be rubbed with it.

Dr. Evans' Soothing Syrup. To the Agent of Dr. Evans' Soothing Syrup: Dear Sir,—The great benefit afforded to my suffering infant by your Soothing Syrup, in a case of protracted and painful dentition, must convince every feeling parent of its essential value.

Such is the outline of the doctrines for the advocacy of which the new paper is to be commenced, and to the defence and vindication of which the Editors pledge their best support. They are the doctrines of the present administration, and as their continuance and efficiency depend much upon the energy and zeal of those to whom the important office of carrying them into effect is entrusted, the paper will zealously advocate the election of MARTIN VAN BUREN to the Presidency, as one who has proved himself eminently qualified to uphold and defend them and insure their unobstructed action.

DR. EVANS' CAMOMILE AND APERIENT PILLS.

ON LOW SPIRITS. Low spirits is a certain state of the mind, accompanied by indigestion, wherein the greatest evils are apprehended upon the slightest grounds, and the worst consequences imagined.

Causes. A sedentary life of any kind, especially severe study, protracted to a late hour in the night, and rarely relieved by social intercourse or exercise, a disordered habit, great excess in eating and drinking, immoderate use of mercury, violent purgatives, the suppression of some habitual discharge, (as the obstruction of the menses) or long continued emotion, relaxation or debility of one or more important organs within the abdomen is a frequent cause of this complaint.

Treatment. The principal objects of treatment are to remove indigestion, strengthen the body, and calm the spirits, which may be promoted by exercise, early hours, regular meals, pleasant conversation—the bowels (if costive) should be carefully regulated by the occasional use of a mild aperient.

Some physicians have recommended a free use of opium, but it should not be resorted to; in many cases it greatly aggravates the symptoms.

THE BARON VON HUTCHELLER'S HERB PILLS.

These Pills are composed of Herbs, which exert a specific action upon the heart, give an impulse or strength to the arterial system; the blood is quickened and equalized in its circulation through all the vessels, whether of the skin, the parts situated internally, or the extremities; and as all the secretions of the body are drawn from the blood, there is a consequent increase of every secretion, and a quickened action of the absorbent and exhalant, or discharging vessels.

These Pills, after much anxious toil and research, having been brought by the Proprietor to the present state of perfection, supersede the use of the innumerable other medicines, and are so well adapted to the frame, that the use of them, by maintaining the body in the due performance of its functions, and preserving the vital stream in a pure and healthy state, causes it to last many years longer than it otherwise would, and the mind to become so composed and tranquil, that old age when it arrives, will appear a blessing, and not (as too many who have neglected their constitutions, or had them injured by medicines administered by ignorance) a source of misery and affliction.

They are composed of the most strengthening and purifying action of the heart, liver, and other viscera, they expel the bad, acid or morbid matter, which renders the blood impure, out of the circulation, they render the excretory ducts into the passage of the bowels, and the urinary system, which may be regulated by the dose of the Herb Pills, always remembering that while the evacuations from the bowels are kept up, the excretion from all the other parts of the body will also be going on in the same proportion, by which means the blood naturally becomes purified.

Steady perseverance in the use of the HERB PILLS will undoubtedly effect a cure even in the most obstinate or chronic diseases; but in such cases the dose may be augmented, according to the power of the disease, until the Pills begin to operate, and then to be taken at all times.

In all cases of Hypochondriasis, Low Spirits, Palpitations of the Heart, Nervous Irritability, Nervous Weakness, Fluir Albus, Seminal Weakness, Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Flatulency, Heartburn, Green Stools, Bodily Weakness, Catarrhus or Green Discharge, Excessive or Irregular Bleeding, Hysteria, Headache, Hoop, St. Sickness, Night-Sweats, Gout, Rheumatism, Asthma, The Deafness, Cramp, Spasmodic Affections, and those who are afflicted with any of the above, will find relief from the use of the Herb Pills.

One of the most dangerous epochs to females is at the change of life; and it is then they require a most judicious strengthener of their constitution, and one which will so invigorates their circulation, and thus strengthen their constitutions as may enable them to withstand the shock. This medicine is the Baron von Hutcheller's Herb Pills.

DR. WM. EVANS, proprietor of the newspaper called "The Doctor," hereby particularly requests all Proprietors and Publishers of Newspapers who send their papers to his Office, to direct them to the Editor of "The Doctor," No. 100, Chatham street, New York.

DR. WM. EVANS' CELEBRATED FEVER AND AGUE PILLS.

These pills, so admirably adapted to afford uniform relief in the different modifications of these distressing maladies, are particularly recommended to public notice. On the accession of the cold stage, when the face and limbs of the sufferer become pale, and the sensation of cold and languor, is felt pervading the whole system—their administration is accompanied with astonishing success—they soon lessen the subsequent distressing shivering and violent shaking, and by continuing in their use, (as directed) will ultimately cure the most obstinate ague.

Many persons emigrate to the rich and fertile soil of the West, in the hope of obtaining a future competency, but alas! are long that hope becomes blasted, when they appear with impaired and enfeebled constitutions, resulting from attacks of that diabolical fever of the West, Fever and Ague. If such persons had resorted to the use of the above pills, the various pallid countenances would have been restored to its florid hue, the vital energy re-established, and the whole system purified and invigorated.

On first feeling the premonitory symptoms occur, it is advisable at once to clear thoroughly the stomach and bowels. In no way can this be better and so more advantageously effected, than by taking a few doses of the above pills.

DR. EVANS' PURIFYING PILLS. The value and well-authenticated virtues of which medicine have been, and still are, too apparent to call for further comment. They tend to promote a healthy action of the bowels, and render the system capable of receiving with benefit the Invigorating and Strengthening Pills.

Director as follows:—Take four or five of the Purifying Pills on the first day of every month, till the usual time of the Invigorating Pills, a permanent cure is obtained.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. STREETER'S Boarding and Day School for Young Ladies.

SARATOGA-STREET, BALTIMORE. MR. and MRS. HAMILTON, having relinquished the Boarding Department of their Institution for the education of Young Ladies, in Saratoga-street, to Mr. and Mrs. STREETER, it is hereby announced that the arrangements for the ensuing year, consequent on the change which has just taken place, in transferring so important a charge, justice to themselves, their pupils and their friends, induces them to express their warmest acknowledgments to the former, and their warmest wishes for the success of their successors. Mr. Streeter is a graduate of Harvard University, and has had long experience as Principal in one of the first schools in the city of Boston.

She reached him a goblet. He praised the Lord at the going out of the Sabbath, drank—and again asked— "Where are my sons, that they too may drink of the cup of blessing?"

"They will not be far off," she said, and placed food before him, that he might eat. He was in a gladsome and genial mood; and when he had said grace after the meal, she thus addressed him: "Rabbi, with thy permission, I would fain propose to thee one question."

"A few days ago, a person entrusted some jewels to my custody, and now he demands them again; should I give them up?" "This is a question," said Rabbi Meir, "which my wife should not have thought it necessary to ask. What wouldst thou hesitate or be reluctant to restore to every one his own?"

"Blessed be the name of the Lord!" echoed Rabbi Meir, "and blessed be his name for thy sake too, for well it is written, 'Whoso hath found a virtuous wife, hath a greater treasure than costly pearls; she openeth her mouth with wisdom, and in her tongue is the law of kindness.'"

ARISTOCRACY IN RELIGION. In Catholic countries, the Churches are usually erected at the expense of the Government, or out of the vast resources which accumulate in the treasury of the Pope. These churches are thrown open to all. Free alike to the rich and the poor, the humble peasant and the proud courier. Even the distinction of color does not cause the separation in Europe it does in Democratic America, for there no classification is known except that made by the Searcher of Hearts.

THE DAY SCHOOL, connected with the Boarding School of Mr. & Mrs. Hamilton, will hereafter be under the immediate care of Mr. Hamilton and Mrs. Streeter, and the next regular session will commence on the first Monday in September next. No exertions will be spared to add to the reputation of the establishment, which are peculiarly recommended to public notice, and in many, superior to those of similar institutions.

POETRY. LINES TO A BUNCH OF CHERRIES.

Beautiful cluster! passing fair Ye greet on your perch, in the shining air: Ye swing like a circle of merry fay: In the morning's gleam and the noontide rays: With an awning o'er you of such bright leaves As the thrush for her first-born nestling weaves.

On the greenest of perfume breathing around, O crimson cluster! fresh and fair Did your life's laugh on in the shining air!

So Friendship faith; so Love's bright eye Grows dim, like a star in a stormy sky, When the trial clouds of sorrow and strife, Ere its noon is yet welcomed, sweep over life; On the greenest branch of Youth's bright bower Affection all its rapture blush but an hour.

MISCELLANEOUS. THE JEWESS. A TRADITION OF THE RABBI. The celebrated teacher, Rabbi Meir, sat during the whole of the Sabbath day in the public school, instructing the people. During his absence from the house his two sons died, both of them of uncommon beauty, and enlightened in the law. His wife bore them to her bed chamber, laid them upon the marriage bed, and spread a white covering over their bodies. In the evening the Rabbi Meir came home.

"Where are my two sons?" he asked, "that I may give them my blessing? I repeatedly looked round the school, and did not see them there."

"She reached him a goblet. He praised the Lord at the going out of the Sabbath, drank—and again asked— "Where are my sons, that they too may drink of the cup of blessing?"

"They will not be far off," she said, and placed food before him, that he might eat. He was in a gladsome and genial mood; and when he had said grace after the meal, she thus addressed him: "Rabbi, with thy permission, I would fain propose to thee one question."

"A few days ago, a person entrusted some jewels to my custody, and now he demands them again; should I give them up?" "This is a question," said Rabbi Meir, "which my wife should not have thought it necessary to ask. What wouldst thou hesitate or be reluctant to restore to every one his own?"

"Blessed be the name of the Lord!" echoed Rabbi Meir, "and blessed be his name for thy sake too, for well it is written, 'Whoso hath found a virtuous wife, hath a greater treasure than costly pearls; she openeth her mouth with wisdom, and in her tongue is the law of kindness.'"

PUMPKIN PIE. The Cincinnati Republican copies from a useful volume entitled the Practical Farm, the subjoined bill of particulars, as to the most approved mode of making pumpkin pie.

PUMPKIN PIE.—For common family pumpkin pie, three eggs do very well to a quart of milk. Stew your pumpkin and strain it through a sieve, or colander. Take out the seeds, and pare the pumpkin or squash. Stir in the stewed pumpkin, till it is as thick as you can stir it round rapidly and easily. If you want to make your pie richer, make it thinner, and add another egg. One egg to a quart of milk makes very decent pies. Sweeten it to your taste, with molasses or sugar; some pumpkins require more sweetening than others. Two teaspoonfuls of salt; two great spoonfuls of sifted cinnamon; one great spoonful of ginger. Ginger will answer very well alone for spice. If you use enough of it, The outside of a lemon grated in is nice. The more eggs the better the pie; some put an egg to a gill of milk. They should bake from forty to fifty minutes, and even ten minutes longer, if very deep.

ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY, SECT. Application to R. Welch of Ben. Chief Judge of the Orphans Court of Anne-Arundel County, by petition, in writing of Isaac Snowden, of Anne-Arundel county, stating that he is now in actual confinement, and praying for the benefit of the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at December session 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms therein mentioned, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, so far as he can ascertain the same, being annexed to his petition, and the said Isaac Snowden having satisfied me by competent testimony that he has resided two years within the state of Maryland immediately preceding the time of his application, and the said Isaac Snowden having taken the oath by the said act prescribed for the delivering up his property, and given sufficient security for his personal appearance at the county court of Anne-Arundel county, to answer such interrogatories and allegations as may be made against him, and having appointed Nathan Jones his trustee, who has given bond as such, and received from the said Isaac Snowden a conveyance & possession of all his property, real, personal and mixed—I do hereby order and adjudge, that the said Isaac Snowden be discharged from imprisonment, and that he give notice to his creditors by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Anne-Arundel county, once a week for three consecutive weeks, before the third Monday in April next, to appear before the said county court, at the court house of said county, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to show cause, if any they have, why the said Isaac Snowden should not have the benefit of the said act, and supplements, as prayed. Given under my hand this 23d day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty nine.
