

THE NATIONAL GAME. Trumbull has not made a wild pitch this season. Young has had but one wild pitch all the season.

Doyle has supplanted McCreery in Brooklyn's outfield. Cincinnati has tried nine pitchers thus far this season.

Chicago is the only unwhitewashed team in the American League. Long and Lowe are playing up to their best standard these days.

Crawford now leads the National League in home runs and extra base hits. It looks quite natural to see Burkett and Kneiser at the head of the League batsmen.

Davis has played thirty-one games in the field for Pittsburgh without making an error. Ritehey is playing the fastest second base that the National League has seen for several seasons.

Harriet, of Chicago, leads the League in stolen bases to date, with Wagner, of Pittsburgh, a close second. With Heidrick back in the game the St. Louis team is as strong now as it was at any time this season.

Manager Duffy early in the season tried to secure "Scrappy" Bill Joyce as first baseman for Milwaukee. Manager McGraw has Clarence Malone, a promising young Baltimore backstop, practicing with the Orioles.

Ever since Ely joined the Athletics, of Philadelphia, the team has been playing championship ball, and it is now at the head of the second division.

THE FOOD OF FISHES. A

MANY ARE VEGETARIANS AND ENJOY A DISH OF GREENS. Denizens of the Sea Not Only Pray Upon One Another, But They Eat Worms, Jellyfish, Seaweed and Shellfish—Have Delicate Stomachs.

A writer has recently distinguished animals as those which derive their food from the soil and those which live on other animals. The fact is, however, that all animal life is supported directly or indirectly from the soil.

Thus all animal life rests on a vegetable basis. Many persons have the idea that the food of nearly all the fishes is animal life found in the sea.

There is a great deal of vegetable matter floating around in the sea. Everybody knows of the eddy in the Atlantic ocean where the currents whirl the hundreds of miles around a great center, the Sargasso Sea.

The scientific work of Dr. Nansen in Arctic waters proves that a large population of fish is introduced into the cold seas from the west, and that the food supplies to support this vast marine population come mainly from the east.

He says that the Siberian current flowing to the northwest is of great importance in conveying a constant supply of nourishment to the pelagic animals of the north polar basin.

This nourishment consists of microscopic algae, some of the smallest specimens of vegetable life. They are chiefly diatoms which are found to abound in the superficial polar water of the Siberian Sea.

Of course, the sea is full of a great variety of food. Fish not only prey upon one another, eat seaweed, algae, and other forms of vegetation, but they are also able to vary their diet with worms, jellyfish, seaweed, and many kinds of shellfish.

The fish must have a delicate stomach, and a most exacting palate that cannot find in the myriad forms of animal and vegetable life pervading the sea materials for a tempting meal.

VIPERS AND TOADS. Some Stories of the Queer Doings of the Creatures.

Our friend, the toad, in addition to his faculties for clearing gardens of slugs and insects, sitting in holes, ravaging beehives, and being found alive in the inside of snakes and coal strata, has other interesting qualities.

At about the age of five I kept a pet toad for whose benefit I used to catch flies, beetles, slugs, etc. I clearly remember his taking these from my hand, as well as his lumbering cheerily toward me whenever I came alone into the garden.

One day I was in the garden, and I saw him "Of in sorrow, oft in woe, Onward, Christians, onward go." This circumstance, I may say, is the sacred cause of truth, I do not remember very distinctly.

BALTIMORE, AUG. 31, 1901

Camp meeting will soon be over. How many sinners have been saved? No man will refuse to carry Judson Lyon's name around in his pocket. Eggs are forty cents a dozen in Philadelphia. What is the matter with Philadelphia hens? The cows are getting in their work in Philadelphia. Butter retails at 50 cents a pound. A man don't know how small he is until he attempts to run another man's business and gets turned down. The N. N. B. L. met last week in Chicago. The Negro is doing his part in the business world. The National Baptist Convention will meet in a short time in Cincinnati. Tom will be there. What does the "Negro-hater do when he gets a twenty dollar bill with Judson Lyon's name on it? Editor Sharp is making Bishops in St. Louis. He has nominated Rev. S. T. Tice. The next thing will be election, ordination and consecration. The white man who stole chickens in Alabama and was killed by the train, has given an account of his stewardship to the devil. Fitness, character and greenbacks win in England and not color. The white Americans had to go to London to find it out. The Americans had to go to England to learn that they were not the elephant clown and ring-master in the world's circus, but there were others also in the show. If heaven and hell fail to have separate apartments, where will the Southern white man go? "What I saw in England." will be the talk of the Bishops for the next three years. They are seeing the old world for the African Methodist Episcopal Church. It don't cost much to "ouss" a colored editor; even church officials in high ranks know the proper way to issue a piece of his mind. Calling the editor everything but a "child of God" don't alter the fact that the Sunday School Union should be run on a business basis. Kansas, City, Mo., has a public bath-house for whites only. The American Citizen informs the citizens that "Negroes like bath," and they are about to erect one for them. Why not use the law? "Enterprise," Omaha, Neb., asks "is the Republican party blind?" Well it may not be blind, but judging from the conduct of the party in this neighborhood, it is mighty deaf.

The Western Star is responsible for the following: "The death angel slipped in last Wednesday and stole away Mrs. Peggy Francis." That angel broke one of the commandments, and should be punished. Where was the chief of police when this slipping and stealing was going on.

Dr. D. W. Roberts, a prominent colored physician of St. Augustine, Fla., was among the few that attended the Flagler-Keenan nuptial in Virginia recently. Flagler owns the ancient city, and he was fortunate to be honored by the most prominent colored man of his city at his wedding.

An Alabama mob wanted to lynch a Negro after he had been sentenced to hang, and when the leader and his gang went to take the "Nigger" from the court-house they met with a bullet reception, and three of them are feasting three times a day on fire and brimstone. The weather will be hotter for a short time.

It has been often said that there is no man so low but has a friend, and some redeeming feature about him. The Charleston Messenger evidently thinks there are some redeeming features about Ben Tillman, of pitch-fork fame, and in its last issue speaks of him in the highest terms. At last some one among the black folks has a good word to say of the pitch-fork statesman.

Young ladies who live on hard rock candies, chewing gum, hot bread and ice water cannot expect to have good teeth, good health, or good looks.—Star of Zion. She would be as much out of place as a cow without her "eud."

While some of the other Southern States are holding Constitutional conventions for the purpose of eliminating the black map from sharing in its governmental affairs, grand old Texas, the Lone Star State, is extending and broadening its school courses for the purpose of making him, the Negro, better prepared for sharing in the governmental affairs. In other words, Texas, the grandest of them all, is solving the "Race Problem" if there is one.—Dallas World.

Brother McDonald must have been doing some missionary work in the state and converted the politicians. Let the good work go on.

The innate tirpitude of the Baltimore Sun will not allow that journal to seriously consider any subject that concerns respectable Afro-Americans. Its sarcastic flings at the Northern people and at the notable Afro-Americans who are attending the Ecumenical Council in England is in keeping with its usual utterances along that line. Its gratuitous insults are taken for what they are worth, and realizing the source from which they come, but little notice will be taken of them. The class of people from the North and East who visit Europe are too well bred to take exception to the rules of common decency. It is only the kind that the Sun panders to that have not brains enough to know the rules that hold good in genteel society nor sense enough to curb their unreasoning prejudices, no matter where they be.

THE NEW YORK EVENING POST in speaking of the attempt of Mr. Gorman and his cohorts to steal the State of Maryland by disfranchising the Negro, says: "The bold challenge of the Maryland Democratic platform proposing to undo the work of Lincoln and Sumner, would ten years ago have excited the conscience of the Republican party like the sound of a trumpet calling to battle." Yes, true, every word of it; but the Republican party of ten years ago is not the Republican party of today. The Republican party of ten years ago had a principle and stood by it, but today the Republican party is a party of expediency and not of principals. Ten years ago the Republican party had no hesitancy in calling a rebel a rebel, but today such a word is not even to be hinted at much less spoken. Every effort is being made to conciliate the South and the poor Negro is being left to work out his own soul's salvation. If he can succeed, so well and so good, but if he cannot he will have to do the best he can. In Maryland, as far as the two parties are concerned, under ordinary circumstances, it is a case of "tweedle de and tweedle dum," and the colored brother is between the devil and the deep sea. A number of Republicans in this State would rejoice at the disfranchisement of the Negro, but they dare not say so where it can be heard. As far as the councils of the party are concerned, to a very great extent, he has been disfranchised for some time, and today has no more say in directing affairs than if he had never voted for the party and for its candidates. And were it not for the fact that in the case of the Democrats securing a majority in the next legislature, and thereby being encouraged to wipe out the Negro's franchise, a large number of Negroes would be found either staying away from the polls or voting for the other people. The Republican party's treatment of the Negro in Maryland for the past eight or ten years has not made the thinking Negro any better friend to the party than he ought to be, and numbers of times there have been symptoms of breaking away from the party of their choice, simply on account of their treatment to the more intelligent class of Negroes. The Negro has commenced to do some thinking for himself, and the time has passed when he can be led by the nose and made to do just what the other fellow wants him to do, merely because of a party name. The Republican party has changed, and when the Democratic party shall have learned sense enough to make a change in its treatment of the Negro, it will be found that the Negro can change, and that without much trouble.

"DON'T READ NEGRO PAPERS." In conversation with an advertiser a few days ago, he remarked that in the course of conversation with a number of colored men who came into his place to do business he asked them: "You have read my advertisement in The Afro-American Ledger, have you not?" and the reply was "No. I never read Negro papers, there is nothing worth reading in them." The gentleman in question thought this a strange reply, and so stated to them. In return he gave them some admirable advice as to why they should read their own papers. He told them he found something interesting in them, and thought the contents of colored newspapers should be more interesting to them than to him. We, unfortunately, have just such a class of Negroes in our midst that think there is nothing good enough for them that comes from the hands of a Negro. And nine times out of ten it is this very class of Negroes that are always complaining that the Negro is doing nothing.

We are candid to admit that there are few, if any, Negro papers that measure up to the standard of the commonest white newspaper, and if they depend on this class of Negroes they never will. Time and again we have sought white advertisers, only to be told that their advertisements in white newspapers bring far better returns, as far as colored people are concerned, than colored newspapers bring, for they say that the colored people do not read colored newspapers. And unfortunately this is true. It is time that the Negro was getting rid of his prejudices against the Negro newspaper and turned in to give it his hearty support.

We have no objection to the reading of white newspapers, on the contrary we advocate it, but every Negro should take at least one Negro paper and read it. There is something in Negro papers to read, and much valuable information can at all times be gleaned therefrom. Not only this but it opens ways and means for the employment of Negro boys and girls at something else besides hewing of wood and drawing of water for white people. Both of these are honorable occupations, but there are other occupations more honorable and more lucrative, and with better opportunities for advancement in life. Read the papers published by colored men and you will be wiser and happier for the knowledge obtained therefrom.

TRUE REFORMERS. The Order of True Reformers has a very large clientele in this city and State, and every week large amounts of money, the earnings of the people of this city, go into the coffers of the Order at Richmond, and are used to benefit the Order in that city. Now there is no reason in the world why Baltimore should not get some benefit out of the large amount of money that the Order receives from its members in this vicinity. It owns a large building on St. Paul street opposite the Afro-American Ledger office. This building could be turned into something that would be of some benefit to the race for the large amount of money it annually invests in the Order. A banking establishment is much needed in this community, and the True Reformers are in a better condition to supply this need than any one else. It is to be hoped that the annual session will take this matter in hand and give the people of Maryland some return for their money.

The First Baptist Church, of Richmond, Va., and Editor John Mitchell, Jr., are still at it. Mitchell is liable to say some words that he did not learn in Sunday School unless the question is soon settled.

The Chicago Conservator is responsible for the following paragraph: "Men are born with two eyes and only one tongue in order that they should see twice as much as they speak. Of course that does not apply to women."

The Baltimore (Md.) Afro-American Ledger closed its ninth year with a recent issue. The Ledger is one of our most valued exchanges and we note with pleasure the many evidences of its success.—Cleveland Gazette. The deacon board of the First Baptist Church, of Richmond, don't believe in publishing the news. They have excluded Brother Mitchell from the church. We wonder if that includes heaven. Right or wrong, Mrs. Carrie Nation is a woman, and as such entitled to respect, and the white man who blew tobacco smoke in her face were not entitled to be ranked as gentlemen. The education of a child cannot be shifted to the shoulders of teacher or educator. The responsibility rests, first and foremost, with the parents.—September Ladies' Home Journal.

AS OTHERS SEE IT.

The Colored Brother is Having Trouble On His Own. MR. GORMAN'S CHIEF AIM. Senator Gorman's brutally frank proposal to disfranchise the Negroes in Maryland, if the Democrats carry the State election, springs mainly from his political ambition, no doubt, but that makes it only the more shocking. He ranks Maryland with "the South" and there is no analogy whatever between his State and, for example, Mississippi. Maryland has no race problem. It has suffered far less from an illiterate Negro vote than it has from Gorman's own disreputable machine in Baltimore. What he is chiefly aiming at is to make himself the favorite of the Southern Democrats, who are now so generally enlisted in the movement for Negro disfranchisement. The bold challenge of the Maryland Democratic platform, proposing to undo the work of Lincoln and Sumner, would 10 years ago have stirred the heart and conscience of the Republican party like the sound of a trumpet calling to battle.—The New York Evening Post.

HARD ON THE COLORED MAN. The colored man of Talbot will be in a peculiar way when it comes to voting this year. The Democrats have already passed a law intended to disfranchise him, and the key-note of their platform is "a white man's government." Locally the Barber element of the Republican party have also shown a disposition to eliminate him from politics as was shown by their efforts to keep him from participation in the recent primaries. So he is "between the devil and the deep sea," and as a solution of the problem, many declare that they will not vote at all this year, unless another ticket is nominated.—The Talbot Times.

LITERATURE.

The Ladies' Home Journal for September is the "Special Autumn Fashion Number" of that excellent magazine. In addition to an unusual number of interesting stories and striking features, it devotes seven pages to a complete setting forth of the styles-to-be in dresses, bodices, hats and wraps. The most important literary feature, perhaps, is the initial installment of Miss Alcott's Letter to Her Laurie—letters which have never before been printed. They are edited by Laurie himself—now grown up. There is a delightful description of "a day in the woods" with Ernest Sotom-Thompson, and a jolly recital of The College Scrapes We Got Into, by A Graduate. The fourth part of Miss Tompkins' Aileen brings that charming story near to its close, and Mr. Bok discusses the need for paternal co-operation in his editorial on The School Question Again. Three articles about Cats That Eat Salaries, Famous People as We Do Not Know Them, and How a Village changed its Name combine to make an exceptional page, and a double page is devoted to photographs of The Mandemose Laces in America. The new Wedding Stationery is shown, also some of the photographs which won prizes in the Journal's recent rural contest. In addition to the regular departments there are valuable articles on A Clever-Planned Nursery, Plants Which Can be Raised in the House, and plans for an ideal $7000 house. By the Curtis Publishing Company, Philadelphia. One dollar a year; ten cents a copy.

The August number of the J. W. Papper (Piano Music Magazine) opens with a song peculiarly appropriate to the season, "Down by the Sea," by Jos. S. Willing, a writer who in this piece worthily sustains his reputation as a writer of exceptional ability. The Magazine contains 21 complete pieces of original copyright music for the piano—10 songs, and 11 instrumental—10 cents. For sale at all music dealers.

THAT SEVEN THOUSAND DOLLARS. The Afro-American Ledger, published in Baltimore, under the management of J. H. Murphy, is raising a howl about the seven thousand dollars that has been appropriated by the Financial Department to give the Delegates to the Ecumenical Council in London an excursion trip over Europe, that merits serious attention. Brother Murphy calls it an extravagant expenditure of money, that the church will hold the men who appropriated it to a rigid account for. The Colored American, of Washington, D. C., in a labor article, calls it, inexcusable extravagance, and The New York Age regards it outrageous and foolish extravagance.—Voice of the People.

CHESTER TOWN NOTES.

(Special to The Afro-American Ledger.) The Union Camp Meeting was well attended on last Sunday. The services were good. Rev. Collins preached in the morning and Rev. Hovey preached in the afternoon. At the close of the services there were heavy showers of rain. The canning factories are running now and the colored people are kept busy from early in the morning until late in the evening. Mr. Reid and son, our colored grocers are doing well. William and brothers are busy in the jewelry business. Things are quiet here and there has been no friction between the races. The camp meeting season is nearly over and the people are returning to their homes and their usual duties. Last Sunday the usual services were held in the several churches. Business is not so good, the canning factories are running full time and the farmers are calling for more help. All who want work can get it. Many friends from Baltimore visited our city last week. Mr. Philip Henson's mother has returned home from Atlantic City. Mr. Brooks, the father of Mrs. Henson is here on his vacation. The Bible is a storehouse of rich imagery and splendid words, of style both simple and ornate, and as literature stands apart from spiritual elevation, will repay the search of every student. Read the Bible and Shakespeare and you will find yourself able to converse well.—Ladies' Home Journal. In lynching a profession, friends of art

The town of Davos, writes a Swiss correspondent, is considering a bold scheme for the abolition of all the ordinary forms of fuel. It is proposed to erect an extensive electric plant at the confluence of two large mountain torrents, whose united waters will supply the necessary motive force. A large firm of Swiss electricians has been studying the problem for over a year, and has obtained the concession of the forces of the torrents alluded to. The same firm has bought out new electric heating and cooking apparatus specially designed for the scheme. The annual cost of the installation is estimated to be $500,000 francs. Already electricity is not only used for lighting and motive power, but is adopted in many places for cooking and heating and one of the largest bakeries in the world to do away with all contaminating the air by the use of fuel.

*BE NOT DECEIVED***
TO THE COLORED PEOPLE OF AMERICA.
 King of all Hair Tonics,
"OZONO."

Recognizing the fact that there are many SO-CALLED hair-growers and hair-straighteners now on the market, and knowing to a certainty that many of these are frauds pure and simple, we wish to make a straight-forward, honest statement to the colored race through this great paper. In the year 1871 our late secretary, Mrs. S. M. Moore, through a fortunate circumstance, acquired the receipt for OZONO. It was not offered for sale or purchase to any extent until 1875, when it was put upon the market and met with marked success. After a thorough test by the colored people of that time it was pronounced an honest, legitimate remedy, true to all that was claimed for it, and worthy in every respect of the confidence of every member of the colored race, because they found it to cause the hair to grow long and straight, soft and fine, and as beautiful as an April morning. Now, whenever a genuine article appears upon the market through any ways a number of people who imitate and make capital out of the merits of other people's goods. Seeing our marked success, numerous firms have entered the market, offering hair-growers and hair-straighteners, many of which are worthless, causing the hair to fall out and doing great damage to the hair and scalp, and the colored people are buying these spurious compounds, which are filled with animal fats, and do the hair more harm than good. To these let us sound a warning—be careful what you use on your hair. Do not be deceived by glaring advertisements and big words. Buy the King of all Hair Tonics,

OZONO, which is sold with an iron-clad guarantee to do all that is claimed for it, or we will forfeit $50.00. Now we ask you a plain question—would you absolutely agree to forfeit $50.00 if you are dissatisfied with our preparations, if they were not true to all we claim for them? We have our preparations for several years under this guarantee, and we are glad to say that every one who has used Ozono has been satisfied in every respect. 20,000 people are to-day using our preparations, and every purchaser recommends Ozono as the King of all Hair Tonics. Ozono will positively take the Kinks out of Knotty, Kinky, Harsh, Curly, Refractory, Troublesome Hair. It will make short, harsh hair long and straight. It will cure your head of all itching, worrying scalp diseases. Itch, Eczema, Dandruff and Scurf can not live after Ozono has been applied. It will stop your hair from falling out. It will restore gray hair to its natural color, making the hair long and soft. Now, right here, let us make a statement. Many firms are advertising remedies to straighten hair, but when they send the preparation they tell you to use hot irons. Friends, do not use hot irons; they will burn up the life of the hair, and cause it to drop out. Ozono straightens without any outside assistance. Nothing but Ozono is necessary, and the hair stays straight forever. You can stop the use at any time. The good effects on the hair are seen in a day or two after the first application. The price of Ozono is 50c. a bottle—4 boxes do the work. We make this liberal offer, which is good at any time. Cut out this coupon and send to us, enclosing with it the sum of One Dollar, and we will forward to you four large boxes of Ozono and one large bottle of Electrical Skin Refiner, which makes black skin bright, rough skin soft and pliant, and cures all skin diseases. Also removes all facial imperfections, and actually removes small-pox pits. We will also include one fancy jar of our Electrical Skin Food—Nature's great beautifier—removes wrinkles, moth patches, freckles, and all facial blemishes; makes the old look young and the young look younger. We will also include one package of our celebrated Scalp Soap, which is absolutely CHEMICALLY PURE, and no soap but a pure soap should ever be used on the scalp. And, lastly, to prove our liberality, we will put in a pint package of Anti-Odor, a positive cure for Sore Throat or Mouth, all forms of Womb Diseases, Ophthalmia, Sore and Frosted Feet; also removes all smells and odors arising from the human body, such as feet, arm pits, etc. The actual value of this Grand Aggregation is $4.00, but we let you have it for $1.00, simply to introduce honest goods. In order to protect the public in general from imitations of our goods, and to avoid mistakes, we have placed upon our coupon our Trade-Mark, one head showing Short Hair and the other head Long Hair. The U. S. Government has granted us this trade-mark, and it is registered in the Patent Office at Washington; so if the coupon has this trade-mark on it, you will make no mistake. Use only the coupon having the two heads on it. As to our responsibility, we refer you to the Editor of this paper or to the Metropolitan Bank of Richmond, Va. We have thousands of testimonials we have not space to publish. Here is a sample of one:

WOMAN'S AFFAIRS
DOLL AUTOMOBILE COSTUME.
 Dolls as well as people have taken to motor carriages. One little lady doll who was riding in one of the shop windows the other day with her chauffeur wore a white brilliantine gown stitched with black, so it may be taken for granted that this is the latest doll automobile costume.

A NEW SHADE OF BROWN.
 A new brown is rosewood brown. There is also a new brown which is called sand color. Besides this we have an egg shell brown and a brown which is called chocolate, but is much lighter than the deep chocolate shades of former seasons.

Castor gray and castor blue are cool summer colors, and in red there is raspberry, strawberry, tomato, cherry and framboise, which is the color of a ripe raspberry. In selecting colors it is a very good plan to take the advice of the saleswoman who will tell you tints that will combine well. For the new shades are so numerous and so varied that they are certainly very difficult to harmonize well.

ABOUT THE EYES.
 Watch children writing and you will see that they never (unless they are made to) sit correctly before their paper, with eyes looking straight at it. The head slopes down to the left, the book or paper slips away to the right, and the eyes, looking at it askew, are focussed from different distances. Very possibly they may have something to do with the defective eyesight of the present day. Tell the children to never rub their eyes.

Train them always to read with their back to the window, lamp or gas, that the light may fall on the book, and not on the eyes. Never let a child read lying down. Do not read, write or work longer than two hours at a time without resting the eyes. Closing them for five minutes at a time is restful and beneficial.

GIVES HAPPINESS TO OTHERS.
 A woman living in one of the suburban towns of a large city is making her love of gardening a source of pleasure to the poor around her. Every spring in the oney season her extensive garden is one mass of pink and white, and each member of the household is pressed into service to cut the flowers. The owner of the garden then makes daily excursions into the city, and distributes great masses of flowers, sometimes among clerks and cash girls in dry-goods stores, sometimes among waitresses in restaurants, or again among the trolley car employees who carry her to town, and know her as the "peony lady." She gives them to children and working-men. When the peonies are gone she carries sweetpeas, and later other blossoms, and is well repaid by the evident joy of the men and girls, who have no other opportunity of possessing flowers of their own.

THE ART OF TALKING.
 When you are trying to make a company a conversational success always avoid a rattling liveliness on your own part. Don't imagine that to be clever a woman must be a wit. If you are naturally witty, well and good; it will crop out occasionally. But if your wit is forced, it degenerates into mere affectation, and affectation is fatal. Your main object is to make yourself interesting without being obtrusive—to keep yourself in the background while you direct the general conversation. It is a wonderfully interesting accomplishment. You learn to note the slightest change in facial expression. The quiver of an eyelid or the movement of a lip tells you a story. You see pleasure, anger, interest, dislike, where another detects no thought. Your own mind acts more quickly as you appreciate the thoughts of others. You have the pleasure of feeling that your acquirement is not wholly selfish, for it gives you the power to understand the reserved, and to put the shy at their ease.

ELABORATE GOWNS.
 Dresses of every kind are becoming more elaborate than ever, and the demand for good quality dress materials, whether of cotton or wool, is one of the leading features of this season's fashions. Very little trimming is being used, but all the better class gowns are decorated with good quality lace, and the workmanship displayed in the tucking and pleating of a blouse or a skirt for afternoon or evening wear is in many cases so artistically and skillfully done that it would be simply impossible for the inexperienced to ornament her own dresses in this way. Fine quality muslin and white Japanese silk can be purchased at so much the yard already tucked and pleated or intersected with insertion lace in an endless variety of designs. The price, of course, depends on the amount of labor expended. Some very lovely effects are being obtained from the convents of Austria and Switzerland in the way of open work thin transparencies of rich quality lace and white Japanese silk, or French lawn, for making up into blouses. Some of them are beautiful in the extreme.

THE HEALTH OF CULTIVATED WOMEN.

Judging from the ill health found among women of cultivation, it is natural to suppose that they are physically weaker than men; but looking further afield, one inevitably comes to the conclusion that physical inferiority is not the result of sex, but something harmful in their manner of life. Among the savages the strength and endurance of woman seems equal to that of man, and as a general rule she does the hardest work and bears the heaviest burdens. A Mexican woman tills the field, attends to the household, looks after the children and when migrating to another place bears the load of goods and chattels on her shoulders, and the younger members of the family perched on the top of all. In Germany women work beside their husbands on the farms and apparently are as capable of doing so. In Australia women are employed as masons, laborers and in carrying bricks and mortar. In France women dig trenches, cart seaweed and do all the heaviest work of an agricultural laborer. From these facts it would seem that when woman is physically man's inferior the fault lies in something in life which causes physical degeneration.

WHAT ONE WOMAN DOES.
 Said a prosperous-looking traveling man to a little circle of his friends: "My wife is the business man of my family. She draws my monthly check from the firm, runs the house, buys all her clothes and mine, too, and even pays for theatre tickets and little runs to Cleveland, Milwaukee, etc. What she doesn't know about investing any surplus capital will never cost her much money."

"Six years ago I had a great opinion of my own abilities as a money-maker; I was only engaged to her then, and as she lived in Brooklyn and I was buying experience in Chicago, there was no chance for her hidden abilities as a financier to reveal themselves. I took me just six months to lose $12,000. Then I came East to explain that there couldn't be any wedding in my family and to advise her to find some man who knew how to hold on to his money after he'd earned it. But she wasn't that kind of a girl at all. She made me explain just how much I had, and how much I was earning. I had gone back on the road again for the same old firm at $3,000 per year expenses. That didn't seem to me to be enough to support my wife on in the way she had been accustomed to living at home.

"But, as I say, she wouldn't let me give her up. Not only was she willing to take me in spite of my small income, but she proposed to invest every dollar of my salary and still keep up an attractive home for me. And she has done it, too.

"This is how she worked it. I'm on the road about eleven months of the year. During that time I never have to spend any of my own money—it all comes from my expenses account. So my living expenses are pretty near the vanishing point. My wife has a little money of her own, with which she keeps up the house, pays all ordinary expenses, and takes charge of things generally. Every month she draws my salary and invests it where she pleases. She seldom tells me beforehand what she is going to buy, and I don't worry, for not one of her purchases has caused a loss so far. Most of the money is put into electrical ventures, and the rate of return would surprise you. It is largely reinvested as fast as it comes in, and yet she so manages that there is enough left to pay for all large expenses during the year, such as my clothes and hers—and we're both pretty substantially clothed—the occasional dinners, teas, etc., for which she has quite a reputation, and especially for the month's outing we take each year. We have covered this country pretty thoroughly, east of the Rockies, at least. We made one trip to Bermuda, Cuba, and Florida, and we travel like millionaires. If she is a good saver, I can guarantee that my wife is a good spender, too.

"Of course, our house does not cost as much to keep up in the little Western Pennsylvania town where we reside as it would in Chicago or New York. None the less, to run it and practically keep my salary intact is a pretty good showing for a little woman brought up on velvet as she was. The quiet content to acknowledge my wife as the man of the family, and figure as a sort of subsidiary in it."—New York Times.

FASHION NOTES.
 Gray is a popular color for pocket-books, chateaus, etc.

Leghorn and Panama hats are frequently dyed in pastel tones to match the gowns they accompany.

It is predicted that brown will be a favored color in the autumn. Castor, heaver and zibeline tones will all be seen.

Large white lace toque or plateau hats, trimmed merely with black velvet ribbon and perhaps an antique gold ornament, are much worn by smart women.

A hat in straw with a larger crown and narrower rim has folds of dark blue silk around the crown, snugly banded folds, and the ribbon hanging in short loops and ends.

More and more luxury is appearing in the dress of the season. Not only semi-precious but precious stones are set in parasol handles, and jeweled buttons are used to ornament many smart frocks.

Well-dressed women abroad are wearing Panama hats of the finest straw, trimmed with a simple band of velvet around the crown and short loops and ends in the back. The charm of the hats is in the quality and simplicity.

The "endless chain" idea has been applied to the lorgnette chain with undoubted success. The chain is made to move easily through a loop which is attached to the swivel catching the lorgnette. By this means a breakage is prevented if the chain should be subjected to any jerking, which in other cases would be fatal.
