

- The Mountain Club Album - Volume Five -

Completion of this Volume 5 - for the period April-December of 1940 completes Part 2 of the Album Project taken over from John Beck by the Photographic Group in the summer of 1939. If possible pictures will be so arranged that hereafter each "Volume" will be for a calendar year. "Works" of thirteen photographers are in this volume, with some 273 pictures. For the project as a whole there were twenty-four photographers with a total of some 1327 pictures.
