In the name of God, Amen.

I, Lydia Eliza Morris of Talbot County, State of Maryland, being in perfect health of body and of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, considering the certainty of death, and the uncertainty of the time thereof, and being desirous to settle my worldly affairs, and thereby be better prepared to leave this world when it shall please God to call me hence, do therefore make and publish this my last Will and Testament, in manner and form following, that is to say, First and principally, I commit my soul into the hands of Almighty God and my body to the earth to be decently buried at the discretion of my Executors hereinafter named. And as to my worldly estate, and all the property, Real, personal or mixed of which I shall be seized and possessed or to which I shall be entitled at the time of my decease, I devise bequeath and dispose of thereof in the following manner, to wit: Inprimis. My will is, that all my just debts and funeral expenses shall by my Executors hereinafter named be paid out of my estate, as soon after my decease as shall by them be found convenient. Item. I give, devise and bequeath unto my beloved sister Sarah M. Collins the net
