Queens Town. 2^d Feb. 1847

Having been requested by Mr Hobbs, Administrator of Mr. M. E. Fitzgerald, to give an opinion as to the bodily infirmities of Jesse Gross, one of Servants of said Estate - After having examined him, and heard from Mr. Hobbs some history of his case for the last year, during which time the boy has been in his employ - I certify that I believe his disease is one of Rheumatic Character, which together with his general appearance, would indicate a weakened constitution and one incapacitated for hard service
