WHereas Complaints are frequently made to me, by Gentlemen who are pleased to favour me with their Custom for the MARYLAND-GAZETTE, that several of the said Papers do not come to their Hands, because they are intercepted, broke open, and sometimes kept, by Persons that do not buy them; which is a Disappointment to them, and consequently a great Damage to me: These are therefore in a civil manner, to desire all such Persons to forbear that Practice for the future, lest the Law provided in such Cases, should be put in Force against them. And in order to make such Discovery, the said Papers are, for the future, not only to be put in a Cover seal'd and directed, but also to have the Name of its Owner wrote in the Title of the Paper it self; so that if the Cover should be taken off, by such Persons, 'twill still discover its Owner; and betray the Person who unjustly keeps it. 'Tis hoped this Method will in a great measure prevent that base Practice for the future, and consequently give better Satisfaction to my Customers; which is the End of this Publication of their humble Servant

William Parks.
