SIX POUNDS REWARD.

Eastern Shore, Maryland, July 6, 1782.

RAN away, from the Subscriber, the third of June last, living in Worcester County, on the sea-side, two Negro Men—one called ABEL, about 45 years of age, a stout well-made fellow, disfigured by two of his upper teeth being out before—The other JEM, 26 years of age, slender made, yellow complexion. Their dress is unknown. Abel carried off a good many very good clothes with him, and among them was an Indian blanket furtout. The latter had on, a homespun jacket, tow linen shirt and trousers, being disappointed in taking off any other clothes with him. Whoever takes up the said Negroes and secures them, so that the owners may get them again, shall have the above Reward, and all reasonable charges, paid by

JOHN MARSHALL, and JOHN JONES.
