

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD.—

Ran away on Saturday, the 7th instant, my mulatto man RICHARD, whose sir name is Room. He is between 38 and 40 years of age, about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, very likely, long bushy hair, which he will doubtless out off, as he did seven or eight years ago, when he made his escape to Pennsylvania and remained there several months, when he came home again and was pardoned. Richard is my family coachman, and for many years has attended me as my personal servant when I have been from home. He is extensively known in Washington, Baltimore, and every part of Maryland, and I have no doubt is now making his way to Pennsylvania or New York. The proprietors of steamboats, railroads, and stages, are requested to be particular in examining colored passengers in their respective routes, as it is more than probable he will travel by one of these conveyances. He left home on foot, and may endeavor to pass through the country by a less public conveyance, perhaps through Frederick county. He has genteel clothing, all of which he took with him.

I will give the above reward for his apprehension, so that I get him again, no matter where taken.
