

$100 REWARD.—Runaway from the subscriber, living near the Trappe, Talbot county, Md., on Wednesday, (the 1st. day of July,) a negro man, who calls himself GABRIEL DYE, he is about 40 or 45 years old; black complexion, 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high; eyes rather redish, quick when spoken to. Gabriel is a smart active hand on a farm, and I have no doubt has made his way to the State of Delaware, as he has mother living near Lower Hunting Creek Mills, in Dorchester county, who I presume, he will visit on his way to Delaware.

Whoever takes up said negro, if in the county, shall receive $25; if in the State, $50; if out of the State the above reward of $100, and delivered in the Jail at Easton, so that I get him again.

JAMES PERRY.

Talbot co. Md., July 2, 1840.

law4t

ly 14