

$100 REWARD.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living near Upper Marlboro', Prince George's County, Md., on Monday, the 29th day of December, 1851, negro man

James Hanson.

He is about 5 feet 6 inches high, copper color, high cheek bones, has a scar on his upper lip caused by a kick from a mule, and is about 30 years of age. I purchased the said negro from the estate of the late R. W. Bowie, where he has a father and brothers; his wife belongs to Mr. John Eversfield; near Nottingham. I will give the above reward if caught out of the State of Maryland or District of Columbia; or $50 if caught in the State, or District of Columbia, and secured in jail, or brought home to me so that I get him again.

Z. B. BEALL.

Jan. 7, 1851—1f