

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY DOLLARS

REWARD.—Ran away from the subscriber, near Nottingham, Prince George's county, Md., in October last. Negro Man named SAULSBURY BROOKS, full six feet high, about forty years of age, copper color, bald on the top of his head, and slightly pock-marked. He has many acquaintances in Calvert county, Md., where he was raised, and was living, at the time he absconded, in the city of Baltimore with Mr. Samuel Scribner, as a coachman. His clothes not recollected. He has many acquaintances in Baltimore, and I fear has gone to a non-slaveholding State.

Also, on the 13th inst.. Negro Man DAVY JONES, about 40 years of age: 5 feet 8 inches high; dark copper color; quick in his movements; when spoken to appears slightly confused. But little beard except on his chin. He was raised in Calvert county, where he is well known, and has a wife and children belonging to a Mrs. Plummer, near Fair Haven. His father lives in Anne Arundel county, with the widow of the late James Kent.

I will give $100 for the apprehension of Saulsbury, and $50 for Davy, no matter where taken, if brought home to me or secured in jail so that I get them again.
