

$25 REWARD.

RANAWAY from the residence of Dr. Thomas G. Turton, in the village of Nottingham, Prince George's County, Maryland, on Thursday night, the 7th instant, negro woman MARGARET, who calls herself

MARGARET PINKNEY.

She is about seventeen years of age, dark complexion, stout and well formed, of not very pleasing countenance. She took most of her clothing with her, and is believed to have worn a blue figured cotton dress, tho' she may have changed her clothing. She has a mother living with Mr. Thomas O. Wilson, near Brandywine; and her father lives upon the plantation of Mr. John T. Eversfield, near Page's Chapel.

The undersigned will give the above reward for her apprehension—no matter where taken—provided she is brought home or delivered to Dr. T. G. Turton.

R. M. A. TURTON,

J. E. TURTON,

Ex'rs of W. H. Turton.

January 20, 1858—1f