

$100 REWARD.

RANAWAY from the subscriber, living near ~~Piscataway~~, Prince George's County, Maryland, negro man JOE. He is about twenty-one years of age, five feet, ten or eleven inches in height, very straight in form, walks very rapidly, of a dark copper color, smooth looking face. He had on when he left common cloth pantaloons and a sack coat of the same material. He also took with him a black hair cloth overcoat, and other clothing, not known.

I expect he may be lurking in the neighborhood of Horse Head or Nottingham, as he has various acquaintances thereabouts—slaves as well as free. He may have gone to Calvert County—as he expressed such an intention before leaving home.

I will give the above reward for his apprehension—no matter where taken—provided he is brought home to me, or secured in jail, so that I get him again.

HENRY N. YOUNG,

Living near Piscataway,

Prince George's County.

March 10, 1858—1f

~~The~~ The Port Tobacco Times will please publish the above till forbid and send bill to this office for collection.