

$200 REWARD.—Left the subscriber's house in Baltimore, early on the morning of the 25th of December, 1858, to go on board the steamer George Weems, Capt. T. Weems, for Nottingham, Prince George's county, Md., to return to Capt. G. M. C. Jones, with whom he has sailed the last two years, my Negro Man RICHARD COLE, aged about 25 years, about five feet eight inches high, stout made, very black, full suit of hair, talkative, and quick when spoken to. Had on new long jacket, light drab; new pants, yellow drab, both full of kersey; new heavy Baltimore made boots, and light colored slouch hat. I will give One Hundred Dollars if taken in this State, or Two Hundred Dollars Reward if taken out of this State, when returned to me, or lodged in jail so I get him in this State again.
