

ty, to rally to the support of the great charter of American freedom.

Resolved, That should the pacific invitation, and solemn warning of our illustrious President, fail to recal the disaffected to their duty--should the anti-republican doctrine of nullification be persisted in, and treason rear its polluted form, within the bosom of our prosperous, patriotic, and peaceful Republic, we do hereby instruct our Senators in Congress, and request our Representatives, to unite in the most speedy and vigorous measures on the part of the General Government, for the preservation of the peace, integrity and honor of the Union. And we do hereby solemnly pledge the faith of our State in support of the administration of the laws and Constitution of our beloved country.

Resolved, That a copy of the foregoing resolutions be transmitted to the President of the United States, to the heads of the several Departments at Washington, and to our Senators and Representatives in Congress.

The foregoing resolutions were unanimously adopted by the Senate.

JESSE B. THOMAS,
Secretary of the Senate.
