

franchise, and the solemn responsibility of the public agents.

Resolved, that the doctrine, that a State has the power to nullify a law of the General Government, is revolutionary in its character, and is in its nature calculated to overthrow the great Temple of American Liberty,—Such a course cannot absolve that allegiance which the people of this Union, owe to the supremacy of the laws.

Resolved, that in levying and collecting duties, imposts and excises, whilst the general good should be the primary object; a special regard ought to be had to the end, that the interest and prosperity of every section of the country should be equally consulted and its burthens proportionably distributed.

Resolved, that the first object of the American people should be, to cherish the most ardent attachment to the Constitution and Laws of this Union; and as a first and paramount object of a free people, we should use every honorable means to preserve the honor and integrity of the Union.

Resolved, that the Governor be requested to transmit copies of [the] foregoing preamble and resolutions to the President of the United States, and to the Executives of the several states.

DAVID T. DISNEY,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

SAMUEL R. MILLER,

Speaker of the Senate.

February 25th, 1833.

Resolution in relation to a call of a Convention to amend the Constitution of the United States.

Resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Georgia That in the opinion of this General Assembly it is inexpedient at the present time to apply to the Congress of the United States, for a call of a Convention of the people to amend the Constitution of the United States, or to call a Convention of the States to consider and define questions of disputed powers which may have arisen between the State of this Confederacy and the General Government.

Resolved further, That His Excellency, the Governor be, and he is hereby requested to transmit copies of
