

1831, although he had received only $3,921 94 of the revenue reserved for Colonization; and has disbursed for that object, out of the common moneys of the Treasury, the sum of $17,000 00.

The receipts for the current year, are estimated as follows—to wit:

For Interest on cash deposited in Banks,	$16,755 24
Interest on other claims,	1,660 00
Fines, Forfeitures and A- merciaments,	3,000 00
Licenses,	85,000 00
Escheats & Vacant Lands,	1,667 00
Taxes on Law-Process,	5,500 00
Auction Duties,	30,000 00
Dividends on Bank Stock,	32,421 34
Dividends on Road Stock,	480 00
Dividends on Manufactur- ing Stock,	200 00
Payments on account of the University,	1,500 00
Payments on account of the Penitentiary,	2,897 36
Avails of Loan authorised by ch. 281, of 1831,	20,000 00
Avails of Lotteries,	15,000 00
Avails of Wharves,	2,000 00
Avails of Warehouses,	17,000 00
Avails of Tax for Coloni- tion,	10,000 00
Arrears of Direct Taxes of 1823, '4, '5, & '6,	500 00
Making an aggregate of	245,580 94
From which being deducted the apparent deficit, as before stated, of	11,137 03
Will leave an aggregate of		$234,443 91