STATE LIBRARY, }
Annapolis, January 1st 1835. }

To the Joint Committee on the State Library,

Gentlemen:—The Librarian pursuant to the 18th article of the rules and regulations of this institution, presents to you the following statement of affairs—as “connected with his duty and office.”

You have already witnessed the alterations made in the Hexagonal part of the hall, under the provisions of an act passed last session, authorising the fitting up of the aforesaid place into a library.

Your committee at the last meeting, previous to the adjournment of the Legislature having honored me with your confidence by appointing me your Agent and superintendant for fitting up and furnishing the new library—and feeling anxious to discharge the duties devolving upon me so as to accord with the munificence of the Legislature, to do honor to the State,
