

Ohio Canal Company, and makes oath, on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, that the foregoing estimate of the cost of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, between dam No. 5 and the South Branch of the Potomac, is true, according to the best of his knowledge and belief.

Sworn to this 22d day of January, 1836.

WM. HEWITT, J. P.

True copy, Test:

JOHN P. INGLE,

Clerk of the C. and O. C. C.

Tabular statement of work to be done upon the Cumberland division of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, commencing with the 329th section, and ending with the 367th section. (Extending from the south branch of the Potomac to Cumberland)

Estimated cost of the sections No. 319 to 367 inclusive, 39 sections.	$528,397 12
Estimated cost of dam, locks, culverts, aqueducts, waste wiers, and bridges on the said sections,	216,640 25
	$745,037 37

THOMAS F. PURCELL, Resident Engineer.

Cumberland, Maryland, January 19. 1836.

This day, personally appeared before me, John McNeill, senior, a justice for the county of Allegany, in the State of Maryland, Thomas F. Purcell, a resident engineer in the service of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal [Company] and made oath on the Evangelists of Almighty God that the estimates contained in the above tabular form, entitled 'A tabular statement of work to be done upon the Cumberland division of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, commencing with the 329th section, and ending with the 367th section,' amounting to $745,037 37 is correct according to the best of his knowledge and belief.

Sworn before JOHN McNEILL.

True extract.

Test:

JOHN P. INGLE,

Clerk Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company.