

36. The right is hereby also reserved to the Legislature of this State at any time or times hereafter, to pass such act or acts as such Legislature may deem proper towards fully carrying out all or any of the provisions contained or mentioned in this act, and for the more effectual enforcing of the same, and for the removing of any difficulties or doubts that may occur in relation to said provisions, and to the true intent and meaning thereof.
37. Every Banking company or corporation having or exercising banking privileges in any manner which shall not, in general meeting of its Stockholders to be convened for the purpose on or before the second Wednesday in May next, agree and bind such corporation, its Stockholders, President, Directors, and officers, to observe, and abide by the provisions and conditions of this act, and to be subject to all the terms, restrictions and penalties therein contained or mentioned, and which shall not on or before the third Wednesday in the said month of May next, notify the said agreement and obligation, in writing and under the corporate seal and in proper form, to the Secretary of State, who shall retain and file the same in his office,—shall then and in that case be deemed to have forfeited its charter absolutely, and the Governor shall issue his Proclamation declaring the said charter to be repealed and annulled, except for the purpose of settling and winding up the affairs of such corporation, and he shall proceed forthwith to appoint Trustees as hereinbefore provided, to take possession of all the estate, property and assets of every description belonging to said corporation, and to settle and close its concerns.
