

BALTIMORE ADVERTISEMENTS

LAW FOR Builders.

BUEK & SLOAN
HAVE been engaged in a general BUILDING BUSINESS.
Also—SHEET IRON, LATHES AND SILLS, for frame houses and barns.
As we buy our lumber at the very lowest cash prices, we can and will sell it at the very lowest market rates.

To Farmers and Planters

PER-MANIPULATED GUANO, A COMBINATION OF

Best Persian and the best Phosphate Guano, made with the best Machinery and most expert Workmen.

On new Lands and on most Crags SE-PERATOR is its effect to either Persian or any other Guano.

By Dr. James Higgins,

FOR THE LAST THREE YEARS

State Agricultural Chemist
OF MARYLAND.

THIS combination of Persian and the Phosphate Guano, has been manipulated by me more than six years ago, and very successfully used by many planters and farmers in this State, though several dealers in Baltimore city have pretended to be its inventors. If his claim is denied, I have abundant proof of my pretensions.

A long series of practical plans and farmer, with a constant analytical examination for more than ten years, of every kind of manure sold in our market, (advantages possessed by none others in the trade,) will evidently establish the fact, who may familiarly use it, that it is a great secret, and therefore that these Masters.

Farmers, planters and others will be furnished with all the Guano sold in our market;

Also, with PLASTER OF PARIS, and CURE or MAGNESIUM LINE, according to the kind of soil, and the amount of water, particularly for those who have much earth to be taken up, adapting the same to soils; for the want of time, thousands of dollars have been annually lost to our State. Also, the following artificial Manures:

HIGGINS'S SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME, prepared under his own direction;

HIGGINS'S NITRATED SALINE FERTILIZER, an admirable top-dressing for the growth of grass, which has been very successfully used by me, to great advantage, the wheat from being straw-wheat, where the wheat is pale, sickly or yellow, it at once changes it to a bright, healthy green, and rapidly increases its growth, and greatly promotes its early ripening.

All manures sold in our markets are able to differ naturally, according to the soil and place, being straw-wheat, where the
changes it to a bright, healthy green, and rapidly increases its growth, and greatly promotes its early ripening.

The planter, who has engaged to fix up the locks of a canal.

To dare to believe less, or to pretend to understand more, than God has revealed is equally profane presumption.

Even fishes appear sometimes to act from the impulse of passion; but the general opinion is that they really do everything in cold blood.

A fool can ask more questions than a wise man can answer; but a wise man cannot ask more questions than he will find fit to answer.

An English traveler says that Mount Vesuvius never sleeps. And yet we suppose it must be sleepy, for it is always yawning.

If he who made him, his friend will have little to fear from his enemies; but he who has made it his enemy, will hard little to hope from his friends.

The lives of ministers oftentimes convince more strongly than their words; their tongues may persuade, but their lives command.

Humility will free a man from per-turbation and perplexities. That which will break a proud man's heart, will not so much as break an humble man's sleep.

Charity is a delicate, tender grace, and can scarcely endure the harsh naming of itself, which is of those things that are contrary to it. —Anon.

A good many of our American writers would be very formidable in the events of war with Great Britain; they never put to paper without murdering the English.

Many are miserable by loving hurtful things; but they are more miserable by hating them. It is not what men enjoy, but the principle from whence it comes that makes men happy.

Secrets are commonly his nearest bear, the fountain from whence they take a quick and continual supply. Secret sins are as near to the original sin as the first droppings are to the spring head.

We have all heard of asking for bread and receiving stones; but a young gentleman may be considered as still worse treated, when no thanks for a young lady's hand and receives her father's foot.

We should be willing to feed a thousand sparrows, with all the cherries their little crop can carry, for the sake of that very fruit which God has associated with their name, and which they desire to eat every day.

The fountain has got the less water for the vessel it fills, for the sun temperament, for the rain, for the stars; but the Lord Jesus Christ, who gave us the law, is the fountain of life.

Lamb says the greatest pleasure he knows is to do a good action by health, and to have it found out by accident.

We are sorry to say these "stealies" and pillifluous actions are few and very scarce; generally by some accident being prematurely discovered.

The Name of our Lord is a faithful minister of Gospel being one day woesayer, and visiting some members of his church in the door of a house where his gentle piping could not be heard for the noise and contention without. After walking a little he opened the door, and walked in, saying with an authoritative voice, "I should like to know who is the head of the house." "We feel it," said the husband and father. "If you sit down a wee, we'll be able to tell ye for we're just trying to settle that point."
