LETTERS FROM WASHINGTON.

Mr. Error. Since the appointment of delegates to the Charleston Convention by the State of Pennsylvania, all the aspirations of Mr. Douglas for the nomination have been hopelessly dispelled.

But there is one view of the question which strikes me with a great deal of force, and which may prove more formidable than present signs seem to indicate.

It is, that the friends of Mr. Douglas in the Convention, despairing of securing the nomination of their favorite, will be directed as will be relieved them from a full endorsement of the present Administration.

Mr. Douglas has not been present in the country to assume any open or avowed identification therewith, by it therefore free from any such objection, he may be more readily approved.

THE undersigned, citizens of Montgomery county, Md., hereby certify that they will support the nomination of Mr. Douglas at the next Presidential election.
