FACT, FUN AND FANCY.

—Why is a tooth drawn like a thing forgotten? It is out of the head.

—Some author tells us that much is said about the tongue. True, the thing is in every body's mouth.

—The girl who succeeds in winning the true love of a true man makes a lucky hit, and is herself a lucky miss.

—"Mr. Smith, the hogs are getting into your corn-field." "Never mind, Billy, I'm sleepy. Corn won't hurt 'em."

—A young man without money, among the ladies, is like the moon on a cloudy night—he can't shine.

CONNUBIAL.—"Husband, I don't know where that boy got his bad temper, I am sure not from me." "No, my dear, for I don't find that you have lost any."

—An old sailor, at the theatre, said that he supposed dancing girls wore their dresses at half-mast as a mark of respect to departed modesty.

—"Do you see anything ridiculous in this wig?" said a brother Judge to Curran. "Nothing but the head," he replied.

—The question, "can a man marry his mother?" was recently demonstrated in the affirmative in Boston. Rev. D. G. G. Eddy married his own mother—to Mr. Jacob Bacon.

—QUOTH TOM: "Though fair her features be, it is her figure pleases me:" "What may her figure be?" I cried. "One hundred thousand!" he replied.

—Philosophers say that shutting the eyes makes the hearing more acute.—A wag suggests that this accounts for so many closed eyes at church during sermon time.

"Dawkter," said an equisite, the other day, "I want you to tell me what I can put into my head to make it right." "It wants nothing but brains," said the physician.

—Facetious youth (thinking to have some fun with the lady)—"I say, woman, that's my dog." Lady—"Your dog, is it! Go along wid you. How can a dog belong to a puppy?"

—"I say, John, where did you get that rogue's hat?"

"Please your honor," said John, "it is an old one of yours that missus gave me yesterday."

—How many a man, by throwing himself to the ground in despair, crushes and destroys forever a thousand flowers of hope that were ready to spring up and gladden all his pathway.

—A girl sitting in a fellows lap, with her arms around his neck, and looking at the fireworks, on the evening of the 4th of July, asked him if she was not heavy. He replied: "My yoke is easy, my burden is light."

—"Sammy, you little whelp, didn't I tell you to let that cat's tail alone?" said an angry father to his son, who was endeavoring to elongate a cat's narrative.

"Well, old hoss, what if you did? It's old Brown's cat, and I will yank thunder out of it if I please."

—I am an unlucky man, gentlemen," exclaimed a poor fellow of our acquaintance; "if I should take your advice and seize Time by the forelock, I do believe that it would just come right out and leave him as bald as a barber's block."

—The Tattler relates an anecdote illustrative of having taught the catechism to a child wandering in darkness. A lady observing a little girl apparently lost in the street, accosted her with the question of "Whose child are you?"—"Child of wrath, ma'am," cried the little urchin, dropping a courtesy, as if addressing the parson. The lady resumed, and said, "Where were you born?" "Born in sin, ma'am," persevered the diminutive theologian.

☞ The Peers don't tell us the style of society in which the following incident occurred, but, while parties are spoken of as "ladies" and "gentlemen," we are bound to conclude that there is no better in Milwaukee. It makes rather a bad showing for the enterprising town. Read:

Some people in Milwaukee met at a private house, preparatory to starting on a picnic. Two of the gentlemen got to quarrelling about one of the ladies, and finally fought in good earnest. The ladies also pitched in, and sandwiches and doughnuts were hurled in profusion at antagonistic heads. Bonnets were smashed and white dresses ruined, and there was a general wrecking of wearing habiliments. When the excitement was over it was decided to adjourn the picnic, night and a pleasure party being considered rather too much for one day, and that day the Sabbath.

To Farmers and Planters

PER-MANIPULATED GUANO,

A COMBINATION OF

☞ Best Peruvian and the best Phosphatic Guano, made with the best Machinery and most expert Workmen.

☞ On most Lands and on most Crops SUPERIOR in its effects to either Peruvian or any other Guano.

By Dr. James Higgins,

FOR THE LAST TEN YEARS

State Agricultural Chemist

OF MARYLAND.

THIS combination of Peruvian and the Phosphatic Guano was first recommended by me more than six years ago, and very successfully used by many planters and farmers in this State, though several dealers in Baltimore city have pretended to be its inventors. If this statement be denied, I have abundant proof of its correctness.

A long experience as a practical planter and farmer, with a constant analytical examination for more than ten years, of every kind of manure sold in our market, (advantages possessed by none others in the trade,) will enable me always to furnish those, who may favor me with their orders, with the best, purest, and therefore the cheapest Manures.

Farmers, planters and others will be furnished with all the Guanos sold in our market. Also, with PLASTER OF PARIS, and PURE of MAGNESIAN LIME, according to the wants of the soil—and too much care cannot be taken in adapting the proper lime to soils; for the want of this, thousands of dollars have been annually lost to our State. Also, the following artificial Manures:

HIGGINS' SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME, prepared under his own direction; and

HIGGINS' NITRATED SALINE FERTILIZER, an admirable top-dressing for wheat, oats or grass, which has been very successfully used, and prevents, to a great extent, the wheat from being straw-fallen; where the wheat is pale, sickly or yellow, it at once changes it to a bright, healthy green, and rapidly increases its growth, and greatly promotes the yield.

All manures sold in our markets are liable to differ naturally, though coming from the same place and bearing the same mark. Still more are they liable to adulteration, &c. and for these things our Inspection System has never afforded an adequate protection.

All Manures sold by me will have my name stamped on each bag or barrel, be carefully analyzed, and for their purity the buyer is pledged a legal guarantee and my personal honor.

The Manures sold by me will be at the same rate as those sold by others in the trade.

Persons wishing to obtain any of the Manures, manufactured by me, or any others of my selection, should so specify in their orders to their agents in Baltimore.

TERMS CASH, or accepted Baltimore city paper.

☞ I will also attend to the Buying of Real Estate, and EVERYTHING connected with the Farming and Planting interest.

For sale now, several very fine FARMS on the Baltimore and Washington road, one of them with elegant improvements and every convenience, in the most beautiful and elegant location on it, and several large tracts in Virginia, with negroes, stock, &c. attached.

An Important Letter

From Rev. Jacob Seckler, well known and highly respected throughout the State of Pennsylvania:

HANOVER, Pa., February 16, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. FOWLE & Co., Boston.—Dear Sirs: Having realized in my family important benefits from the use of your valuable preparation—Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry—it affords me pleasure to recommend it to the public. Some eight years ago one of my daughters seemed to be in a decline, and little hopes of her recovery were entertained. I then procured a bottle of your excellent Balsam and before she had taken the whole of the contents of the bottle there was a great improvement in her health. I have in my individual case, made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have always been benefited by it. I would, however, caution the public against imposition, because there is a good deal of spurious Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry offered throughout the country.

JACOB SECKLER.

MILFORD, Del., October 25, 1858.

S. W. FOWLE & Co., Boston: Please send me a supply of Wistar's Balsam, as I am nearly out, and have had a great demand for it; it is doing wonders; it cures Coughs, Asthma, Whooping Cough and Consumption, without fail. There has never been any of the genuine here that you sent me a lot some time since, but plenty of the counterfeit.

Yours, truly, JACOB Y. FOULK.

☞ REMEMBER, purchasers all who see it, that the only genuine has the written signature of "I. BUTTS" as well as the printed name of the Proprietors, SETH W. FOWLE & CO., Boston, on the outside wrapper. Take no other; it were money wasted and health jeopardized.
