Tell Me Not of Joys Above.
BY THOMAS ROOME.

Tell me not of joys above,
If that world can give no site,
Tosti, happier than the love,
Which envies not our souls in life!

Tell me not of blinding eyes,
Far from me the dangerous blow,
If those look, they light the skin,
Would not such a burn below?

Who that feels what love is here,
All its pain, would for Ben Jonson's sphere, Risk the fatal drum,

Who, that values a
Would not rather die
than meet
Strangers again as faire as they?

The Old Days of their Youth.

Fact, Fun and Fancy.

A good kind of soul induced to make a soul-wile prayer. Had one persuaded a guest, much against his inclination, to stay to breakfast. "The old man prayed and prayed till the most desperate instant. The guest began to think seriously of adjoining away quietly; but, in attempting it, he waked up the old man, who was asleep in his chair."

"How soon will your father be through?" said the guest.

"Don't know," said the boy. "I had got to Jerusalem yet."

"No," said the other.

"Wal, then, he isn't half through yet." The guest bolted.

MISERABLE SINGERS.—A certain divine gave out a psalm to his choirboys, who attempted to set it to a new tune; but, having failed, abandoned it. They forgave him, when he came to that part of the litany,
"Lord have mercy on miserable sinners!" in his turn, and got him blinder, and read it as follows: "Lord have mercy on our miserable sinners."

Sambo, and you profit the natural sciences?

Of course I am certainly.

Then can you tell me the cause of the great blight in potatoes for the last ten years?

Old-dad's easy enough. It's allowing to the rot-totting motion of the earth.

A Fact.—An evangelical old lady, hearing her son slip out as she on Sunday, exclaimed, "My dear, what are you about? What do you think of the law and the prophets?"

"What did I think of them?" said he,
"why I think the law suits the profle most internally."

This Schoonmaker's Dunciadry.—A country domineer had a hundred boys and no assistant. "I wonder how you manage them," said a friend. "Without help."

"Ah, the answer." "I could manage the hundred boys well enough; it's the two hundred parents that trouble me—there's no managing them."

"Don't do it," said a colored crat-for the other day, when imploring his Republican friends not to apply the torch to the Union; "don't do it, massa Urgey, and massa Seward, and massa Phillips, and massa County. Don't you be going to set this country afire. Durs a nigger is do dat."

Pat no dependence on genius. If you have great talents, industry will improve them; if you have moderate abilities, industry will supply the deficiency. Nothing is denied to well-directed labor; nothing worth having is to be obtained without it.

Never be cast down by trifles. If a spider breaks his web twenty times in a party time will he meet it. Make up your mind to do a thing, and you will do it. You're fit to trouble me upon you; keep up your spirits though the day may be dark.

Forget not any man's deformities; but these God they are not yours. Men shall answer all God's acts for their vicious habits, but not for their natural imperfections.

New national slates inspire new thoughts. However, is this benefit of traveling, more than in mere sight-seeing.
We lose ourselves in the streets of our own land, go abroad to find ourselves.

A negro being caught stealing from a hen-roost, exulted by saying, "Dat is buly, come dar to see if the chicks slept wid de eyes open."

Mr. Jones, why do you wear that bad hat? "Because, my dear sir, Mr.
Jones, vows she will not go out of the house until I get a new cap."

Warm day, Jones, warm day, said Bartholomew. "It is cold, Jones; it is cold, Jones; it is cold, Jones."

Lips of all nations and tongues; a bound ring; a handkerchief; a liberty like blessing that must be earned, before we can be enjoyed.

Why are mosquitoes the most remains of all insects? Because they first feed on you and then prey on you.

So long as men are imprudent in their diet and their business, doctors and lawyers will ride in carriage.

Why is education the fastest man in the world? Because, I mean, he bears all men, but the sum of his load.

so odd a subject could be treated putting salt on the tail.

ALEXANDRIA ADVERTISEMENTS.

FOWLE & CO.'S
SOLUBLE PHOSPHATED
PERUVIAN GUANO.

MADE OF GUANOS OF
DIRECT IMPORTATION.

Under the personal supervision and direction of Dr. R. H. STABLER, Chemist of Alexandria, Va.

THIS FERTILIZER

We confidently recommend as the most permanent and cheapest offered to the public. Being composed of

NO. 1.
Peruvian and Sombrero
GUANOS,
OF OUR OWN DIRECT IMPORTATION
FROM THE CHINCHIA & SOMBIRIO ISLANDS.

WE WARRANT IT in every respect.

The Sombrero Guano,

Before being mixed, is rendered immediately soluble by the addition of Sulphuric acid.

This treatment is universally recommended by the most eminent agricultural experts. Without it, the action of the two Guanos when mixed is not satisfactory, and consequently ineffectual.

This is the only mixture of the Ammoniated and Phosphatic GUANOS we know of, yet, of the Agricultural community, in a fully soluble form.

PRICE $50 PER TON of 2000 LBS.

Suppliers from whom we applied the above FERTILIZERS will be met at all fair, and fancy so, indeed, as to convince us that our
