THE SENTINEL.

CROOKVILLE, MD.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 17, 1860.

NATIONAL Democratic Nominations.

FOR PRESIDENT,
JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE,
of KENTUCKY.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
Gen. JOSEPH LANE,
on motion.

Democratic Electoral Ticket.

For the Note at Large:

E. LOUIS LOWE of Frederick County;

J. LLOYD MARTIN of Talbot County.

For the Districts:

ELIAS GRISWOLD, of Winchester Co.;

J. BROOK ROYLE, of Carroll Co.;

JOSHUA VANSANT, of Baltimore City;

T. PARKER, of Baltimore City;

JOHN ESTEBAN J. FREDERICK CO.;

JAS. A. FRANKELIN, of Antrim Co.

ORGANIZE! ORGANIZE! — We have a few words to say to our democratic friends, this week, in relation to the organization of the democracy of this county for the coming contest. We have not failed to observe the apparent apathy which, at this time, seems to infuse itself entirely through its organization; and it becomes us to sound the alarm, and call democrats to arouse!

The path to duty is before you, and it leads to victory and to triumph, if you rally in your strength, and bring the elements of your power to harmonious action against the Black Republican party of the North; for, remember, if the democracy of the country is defeated, at the coming election, it is by the election of Mr. Lincoln; and we, therefore, call upon the democrats of Montgomery to organize, and invite all who desire the defeat of Mr. Lincoln to unite with them in the support of Mr. Breckinridge.

It is necessary and all important that clubs and associations be formed in every district of the county, and that every portion of the county be thoroughly ca-vassed; and all be aroused to the great importance of a complete organization.

We have just entered upon an important campaign, involving vast and important principles; indeed, the very existence of the confederacy is at stake, and we appeal to all to rally and make a united and determined effort to prevent the election of Mr. Lincoln. Organize your clubs; call public meetings; and let the people feel the importance of the contest which is now going on, and we have no fear for the result.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.—The Democratic State Convention, which met in Baltimore, on Thursday last, workshop, a synopsis of the proceedings of which we publish to-day, was one of the most harmonious and enthusiastic political asssemblies that ever convened. There was a unity of purpose and harmony of action among its members, which betokens success even under the present difficulties of the Democratic family—difficulties which it surely gives us no pleasure to refer to, but which it will become our duty to speak of hereafter, and endeavor to bring about a re-union of its divisions, by mutual concessions and mutual sacrifices of personal feelings, for the success of the Democratic party, and the preservation of the Republic.

Gov. STEVENS' SPEECH.—To the exclusion of our usual variety of reading matter upon our first page, we present to our readers the very interesting speech of the Hon. L. L. STEVENS, of Washington Territory, delivered before the Democratic Convention, held in this place, on Saturday, the 4th instant. It gives a truthful and succinct history of the proceedings of the National Convention at Charleston and Baltimore, and conveys a large amount of information upon the deeply interesting circumstances surrounding that truly unfortunate assembly. Without further comment, we recommend it to the attention of our readers.

COME TO AN UNDERSTANDING.—The two wings of the Democratic party in Pennsylvania have come to an understanding in regard to the conduct of the canvass in that State. The compromise which has been effected is a very fair one, and is likely to be productive, so far as Pennsylvania is concerned, of damaging results to Mr. LINCOLN. It has been determined that the electoral ticket shall "be headed with the name of Douglas or Buchanan," and that the electors shall support whichever of the two candidates may obtain a majority of the votes cast in the State. This arrangement is a sensible one, for it concentrates the anti-Buchanan strength.

It gives us much pleasure to announce that Gen. JOHN LANE, of Oregon, has signified his intention to attend our Agricultural Fair this year. He visited us four years ago, and made friends in all places; and we extend him a cordial welcome.

Gen. JOHN LANE, the veteran Secretary of State, returned to Washington on Friday evening, having just completed his tour of inspection of the new fortifications of the Potomac.

He is greatly improved in health, and on Saturday morning resumed his official duties.

Fair Grounds.—The Fair Grounds, at this date, present a lively and busy scene. A large and efficient force is daily engaged in preparing the grounds for the approaching Fair. The Exhibition Hall is progressing rapidly, by the constant labor of mechanics, and we have no doubt will be in readiness for the display of domestic manufactures, &c. The society has prepared an elegant Course of six hundred yards, and will make ample preparation for the comfort of spectators, and the public will be delighted with the proceedings of these three days at Poolesville; and we sincerely wish Mr. C. care and success in his enterprise.

Race.—At last we have been blessed with abundant rain. It commenced on Sunday night last, and continued, with only short intervals, for more than twenty-four hours. Springs have revived and streams are again flowing, and all nature smiles and looks glad. Thank God, a kind and benevolent Providence.

The new building, though it necessarily entails upon the society a heavy outlay of money, the amount will be cheerfully met by its members and contributors. The dimensions of the building, as we have heretofore informed our readers, will be thirty feet by seven, of two stories, the lower twelve feet high and the upper ten feet. The lower floor is intended for the exhibition of articles of domestic manufacture, embroidery, plain and fancy needlework, the products of the garden and the dairy, preserves, fruits, domestic wines, &c. The upper floor will be appropriated to the meeting of the society, and such other assemblies as the society may determine. It is to be built of good materials, and in a most substantial manner, and we are quite sure will be regarded as the greatest improvement to the Fair Grounds that has ever been made.

The Committee of Arrangements find it expedient upon this forthcoming gathering an arrangement:

Hon. W. R. COON for BRECKINRIDGE.—This distinguished member of Congress from this state has been claimed by the Douglastonites; it is therefore necessary to call upon the democrats to vote and battle for Breckinridge and Lane. It is not Gov. Winston, but we look for him after awhile.
