Montgomern

Countn

Sentinel

Two Dollars, if paid at the end of the year

By M. Fields.

STOTION TO PARTY NOT INCOMMENTARY WITH THE PRESDOM OF THE PRES

ROCKVILLE, MARYAND, FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 31, 1860.

COUNTY DIRECTORY.

Dr. C. A. HARDING. Practicing Physician

mar 30—tf

WASHINGTON TOTEL. ROCKVILLE Maryland

PERRY TRAIL, Pro-leter. FERST TRAIL, Projector.

TillE undersigned having used the above establishment, which is aw undergoing thorough repair, would respectfully solicit a continuance of the patronage rectors so liberally bestowed upon it. He saires his friends and the public generally, the grey effort, on his part, will be made to continuate to the ease and comfort of all who may you him with while netronage.

ell attended to.

flis charges will be ver moderate.

feo 10—tf PERY TRAIL,

GOOD EATING & CAPITA DRINKING

THE subscriber rears his sincere acknowledgments his numerous patrons for the ilbu patronage bestowed upon him but the opening to the catabilishmed and respectfully solicite a continuance, assuing them that no pains will be spared, on hiert, to merit it. He would also inform histerias and the public, that he has refitted his stablishment, which, für style and comfort will vie with public, that he has refitted his stablishment which, for style and chaful will will any house of the kind in the fits.

Lovers of GOOD ONSTEE will alway find at his establishment the left the market has a stablishment the left the market has careful to the stablishment the left the market has careful to the stablishment the left the market has careful to the stablishment the left the market has careful to the stablishment the left the market has careful to the stablishment to the stablishment that the stablishment which is not stable to the stablishment that the stablishment the stablishment the stablishment that the stablishment the stablishment that the stablishment that

SERVANTS WATED.

Till suberiber wishen purchase any number of BERVAND, of both seres, that are young, sood and healthy, for which he will at d imer, pay the very highest market peries; is both. Persons having servants for sale, willbil it greatly to their advantage to give messall before discipance of them. soing of them. COUNTSSO S paid for in

Letters addressed to me at Beckville, Mont county, Md., will resive prompt at BEXX, COOLEY, Agent. ation. Gb 10—ly

NEGROES WANTED.

THE subscriber wishes to purchase any number of likely YOUNG MEGRIES, of both sems for the Southern market, for which is will pay the highest purchased the stablishment in Alexandric Versenity owned by Mr. George and the American Section 1988 of the Second Section 1988 of the Section 1

Rockville, Md., Feb. 1, 15

Political.

ADDRESS DEMOCRACY AND PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES,

National Demogratic Ex. Committee NATIONAL DENOCRATIS EXECUTIVE CON. ROOMS 28 4 St., Washington City, July, 1860.]

SEVEN VOTES FEOM GEORGIA AND ARKANSAS COUNTED IN DEPIANCE OF THE UNIT RULE.

KILGOUR'S SILOON, ed in the Convention, but the majority rention!

ROOK VILID, M.C. who secreted protested against these eleventer that the being allowed to vote, and the Convention.

the Douglas Committee, and pressed into the service, for the purpose of manufac-turing a two-third vote for Mr. Douglas?

Under the decision of the Convention, the two delegates, Messrs. Flournoy and Stirman, who remained in the Convention at Charleston, were allowed to cast one vote; the three bogus delegates from the first Congressional district, one vote; and the withdrawing delegates who were reaccredited to faltimore, two votes.— The latter declined to take their seats, and Mr. Stirman withdrew.

Democracy of Georgia, however, appointed 40 delegites to cast the 10 votes, and instructed them to vote as a unit, the majority to determine the action of the from 154, and it leaves 128, as the actual the State. Eleven of the delegates remain—

I is a constituted to the majority to determine the action of the state.

who secoled producted against these elements of the contentions, whereby the rote of early presented by the state of the unit rule, entitled to rote, as the majority of the delegates, been followed, by a rote of 148 to 100. The contentions of the contentions of the contentions of the contentions of the contention of the contention. The contention of the content of the cont

Ilaving purchased the stablement in Alexandria, Va., recently owned by Mr. Glorge her could not longer remain after what had been done."

Thus a majority of the delegates actually admitted to the Convention had with to consult him before diposing of their negroes ally admitted to the Convention had with to consult him before diposing of their negroes ally admitted to the Convention had with the convention had with ally admitted to the Convention had with drawn or refused to take their seats, and, under the unit rule, the minority had no right to vote. It the committee have connected by the weight and influence of the parameters of the parameters.

Thus a majority of the delegates actually admitted to the Convention has presented as a candidate nominated by two-thirds of the votes of the electoral colleges.—Which, therefore, is entitled to the support of the Democracy, as the emboding to the vote of the Democracy, as the emboding to the vote of Mr. Stirmand, by the weight and influence of the parameters.

SEVER VOTES FIDE GEORGIA AND AR.

KARSAS COUNTED IN DEFIANCE OF THE UNIT RULE.

But the nine votes counted for the 18 from Arkansas, counting 16 votes, make delegates who refused to vote, with the a total of 27 votes to be aubtracted and Lane, added to the 181 given for Douglas at only 164!

These make a total of 11 votes, which clares that "the government of a Territory organized by an act of Congress is provisional and temporary," thereby remaining the conclusion that such a Territory organized by an act of Congress is putting the conclusion that such a Territory organized by an act of Congress is putting the conclusion that such a Territory organized by an act of Congress is putting the conclusion that such a Territory organized by an act of Congress is putting the conclusion that such a Territory organized by an act of Congress is putting the conclusion that such a Territory organized by an act of Congress is putting the conclusion that such a Territory organized by an act of Congress is putting the conclusion that such a Territory organized by an act of Congress is putting the conclusion that such a Territory organized by an act of Congress is putting the conclusion that such a Territory organized by an act of Congress is putting the conclusion that such a Territory organized by an act of Congress is putting the conclusion that such a Territory organized by an act of Congress is putting the conclusion that such a Territory organized by an act of Congress is putting the conclusion that such a Territory organized by an act of Congress is putting the conclusion that such a Territory organized by an act of Congress is putting the conclusion that such a Territory organized by an act of Congress is putting the conclusion that such a Territory organized by an act of Congress is putting the conclusion that such a Territory organized by an act of Congress is putting the conclusion that such a Territory organized by an act of Congress is putting the conclusion that such a Territory organized by an act of Congress is

> STITUTE.
>
> 105] votes were east for President, to cond resolution inconsistent with the first prospects for the Vice Presidency? He cond resolution inconsistent with the first prospects for the Vice Presidency? which must be added a vote from Minand third? It is in these words: that > mesota, 3 votes from Delaware, and 8
> it is the duty of the Feleral Governvotes from South Carolina, who took no part in the nomination of Mr. Douglas, and who before either Convention adjourned endorsed the action of the Maryland Institute Convention, making in all III votes.
>
> This number has been since largely increased by the endorsement of delegates of the adjournment of the Conventions, who took no part in the proceedings of either, or who, having taken part in the Douglas Convention, have since repudiated its action.
>
> The number has been since largely increased by the endorsement of delegates of the adjournment of the Conventions.
>
> The number has been since largely increased by the endorsement of delegates of the adjournment of the Conventions.
>
> The number has been since largely increased by the endorsement of delegates of the adjournment of the Conventions.
>
> The number has been since largely increased by the endorsement of the Conventions.
>
> The number has been since largely increased by the endorsement of the Conventions.
>
> The number has been since largely increased by the endorsement of the Conventions.
>
> The number has been since largely increased by the endorsement of the Conventions.
>
> The number has been since largely increased by the endorsement of the Conventions.
>
> The number has been since largely increased by the endorsement of the Conventions.
>
> The number has been since largely increased by the endorsement of the Conventions.
>
> The number has been since largely increased by the endorsement of the Conventions.
>
> The number has been since largely increased by the endorsement of the Conventions.
>
> The number has been since largely increased by the endorsement of the Conventions.
>
> The number has been since largely increased by the endorsement of the Conventions.
>
> The number has been since largely increased by the endorsement of the Conventions.
>
> The number has been since largely in the Territories, and wherever a slave property in the Territories.
>
> The number has been since largely in the Institute at all?
>
> The number has been since largely in the Institute at all?
>
> The number has been since largely in the Institu

FHR subscriber: which to pure seasy number of litely YUNG GRES, to the seast, the spitch is will pay distinguished the seast, the spitch is will pay distinguished the seast of the seast, the spitch is will pay distinguished the seast of th and the street of the street o heart of the matter. How will Mr. Johnson ring this charge to advance his

the recent burnings and pillages in North ern Texas. Bold, unserupalous, and vindictive leaders are at his head. They have adopted the once scorned dogma of
have adopted the once scorned dogma of strife soon to break out in intestine war even great luxuries of life-a un They are practically leading a crusule industrial interests, varied by soil and against the South. Thanks to the mer elimate—a paternal and kindly governcies of the Almighty, brotherly love, the ment, founded on the principle for which memories of a glorious history, the com-mon sacrifices of our fathers; the unpa-ralleled progress to empire and renown Shall the Union be broken up f. Shall of our people, have not lost their influe poverty, anxiety, distress, and internal ence. Honest and true men all through wars take the place of wealth, content, ence. Honest and true men all through wars take the place of wealth, content, the North have determined to crush out the manster of Northern disunion and fatrymen, do not close your even to the the monster of Northern disunion and fathe monster of Northern disunion and fatrymen, do not close your eyes to the naticirm. A paralysis has come over the danger of this! When the danger comes, energies of the inciters of servile war,

it will come from the selfish ambition of,
the common sense of the people revolts individuals, whose talents enable them at the consummation of their foul designs.

The platform of the renormal plant and severy platform of the statement of delegates, entitled to 2½ votes, remained in the Convention.

Aborth Gartesian had but one delegate, entitled to 2½ votes, remained in the Convention.

Let the Douglas speakers in the North entitled to cast one-half a rote in the Convention, yet he is recorded as having cast one vote.

Tenuesee, with only five delegates in the Convention, is put down at 35 votes, and of 2½.

New Fork is put down at 35 votes, and of interest of the Convention, is put down at 35 votes, and joined the other Convention, and joined the other Convention.

The seem whe a total of 11 votes, which added to the 18 bogus delegates from Alabama, the 12 bogus delegates from Alabama, and the 3 bogus delegates may be a seed total of 2½ votes, make a total of 2½ votes, make total of 2½ votes, make a total of 2½ votes, make total of 2½ votes, make a total of 2½ votes, make a total of 2½ votes, make a total of 2½ votes, make total of 2½ votes, make because some individuals now supporting and because some individuals now supporting and because some period of the lives them have at some period of them lives foot the decision of the Bupresse Court, during this whole Administration he has given utterance to extreme sentiments.

proclaims a higher law, and permits the kept up the slavery agitation with a per-given ulterance to extreme sentiments. See with what weight and point the darge goes home to the Front Street Theatre candidates. Douglas and Johnson. One of their staunchest and most iloquent advocates on the floor of the touvention, was Colonel Gaulden, of theoretical terms of the Constitution of the country than the country than the true Democratic party stands on the Gongrason alare trade. We quote from the official report:

"Col. Gaulden said he would do all he could to reconcile his friends in Georgia to this decrtine, and denounced congersional protection as an abstraction. In the course of his remarks he 'referred to Virginia as alare-trading and stave-breeding Virginia." "A delegate from Virginia objected to the lesignation applied to that States.

"Col. Gaulden said he would do said he country than the course of his remarks he 'referred to Virginia as alare-trading and stave-breeding Virginia." "A delegate from Virginia objected to the lesignation applied to that States.

hate the public man.

Words cannot express the magnitude of the blessings which a benignant Providence has showered upon us -a vest and extended area, spanning the entire coatinent, and reaching from the cold North down even to tropical heat—a population now large and most rapidly increasing the enjoyment of abundant comforts and Good men and true are rallying from the for many generations has supported this mountains and the plains, from city and glorious government, founded on politicountry, from the farm, the shop, and cal and social rights to every citizen—a the busy marts of trade, to preserve and government, distinguished align for its perpetuate the glorious heritage be benignity, its windom, and its strength—queathed to us by our fathers.

DOUGLAS AND REFUBLICANISM. But where is Mr. Douglas in this rights of man throughout the habitable