POLITICAL NEWS.

STILL THEY COME !—The Charlestown (Va.)
Independent says: "We have been reliably informed that another, old line Whig of this county, and one who formerly represented it is the Legislature, has declared his intention to support the national tickst of Breckinridge. to support the national ticket of lireckinings and Lane, because it is the only ticket that demands the equality of Southern rights un-der the Constitution. We have also heard of der the Constitution. We nare also included a namber of young voters of the county who have never supported the Democratic ticket before, who mean to cast their votes for Brecklardige and Lane, for the reason that they will not support a party that ignores in its platform all principles. They want to know when they vote, what they are voting for!"

Proposals for Building Bridge.

— We are gratified to learn from that sterling Democratic journal, the Wytherille Telegraph, that the prospects of Breckinridge and Lane in Southwest Virginia are cheering in the extreme. The Telegraph says: "Notwithstanding the fact that there has been no effort made in this section of the State, so far as we have learned, to induce the voters to aupport Breckinridge and Lane, and the additional fact that all kinds of button-holing and honey-fuggling have been resorted to by the Bellites to induce Democrats to eleare for Boughas, we are proud to say that the 'banner district' for Breckinridge in November next.
