BILL PAID.

Bill met Katy in the lane—
A wink,
Or blink,
I think
She winked again?

He put his arm around her waist—
A pout!
No doubt,
Put out,
At such good taste.

Her little hand caught his so quick—
A scratch!
He'll catch
His match,
And lose the trick.

Then, with her other hand, she gave—
A cuff!
That's rough
Enough
And showed her brave.

She said: "I won't!" then held so still—
A kiss!
Ah! this!
Sweet bliss
Paid every ill—paid Bill.

A Laughable Story.

The Mobile Register is responsible for the following mirth-provoking incident:

For twenty-three years, old Jake Williard has cultivated the soil of Baldwin county, and drawn therefrom a support for himself and wife. He is childless. Not long ago Jake left the house in search of a missing cow. His route led him through an old worn out patch of clay land, of about six acres in extent, in the centre of which was a well, twenty-five or thirty feet deep, that at some time, probably, had furnished the inmates of a dilapidated house near by with water. In passing by this spot, an ill wind lifted Jake's "tile" from his head, and maliciously wafted it to the edge of the well, and in it tumbled.

Now Jake had always practised the virtue of economy, and he immediately set about recovering the lost hat. He ran to the well and finding it was dry at the bottom, he uncoiled the rope which he had brought for the purpose of capturing the truant cow, and after several attempts to catch the hat with a noose, he concluded to save time by going down into the well himself. To accomplish this he made fast one end of the rope to a stump hard by, and was quickly on his way down the well.

It is a fact, of which Jake was no less oblivious than the reader hereof, that Ned Wells was in the old dilapidated building aforesaid, and that an old blind horse, with a bell on his neck, who had been turned out to die, was lazily grazing within a short distance of the well.

The devil himself or some other wicked spirit put it into Ned's cranium to have a little fun, so he quietly slipped up to the horse, and unbuckled the bell-strap, approached with slow measured "ting-a-ling" the edge of the well.

"G—d dang that old blind horse!" said Jake, he's a-comin' this way sure, and ain't got no more sense than to fall in here. Whoa, Ball."

But the continued approach of the "ting-a-ling" said just as plainly as words that "Ball" wouldn't whoa. Besides Jake was at the bottom, resting, before trying to "shin" it up to the rope.

"Great Jerusalem," said he, "the old cuss will be a-top of me before I can say Jack Robinson. Whoa! G—d dang you, whoa."

Just then, Ned drew up to the edge of the well, and with his foot kicked a little dirt into it.

"Oh, Lord!" exclaimed Jake, falling upon his knees at the bottom. "I'm gone now, whoa. Now I lay me down to sleep—whoa, [illegible]

"Now, I'll jist tell you. When de corn begins to smell de manure, it don't like de 'fumery; so hurries out ob de ground and gits up as high as possible, so as not to breathe the bad air."

A Dispute about precedence once arose between a bishop and a judge, and, after some altercation, the latter thought he should quite confound his opponent by quoting the following: "For on these two hang all the law and the prophets."

"Do you not see," said the lawyer, in triumph, "that even in this passage of scripture we are mentioned first?"

"I grant you," says the bishop, "you hang first."

A Married Lady found her two sons engaged in quarrelling, and in hopes of putting an end to their differences, said to them:

"You young rascals, if you don't behave yourselves, I'll tell both your fathers."

A Young Lady was discharged from one of the largest vinegar houses in Boston last week, because she was so sweet that she kept the vinegar from fermenting. A sour old maid is wanted to fill her place.

A Genuine Jonathan lately took a ride with his wife, and stopped at a restaurant and had a glass of soda. It was prepared, and swallowed at one draught. "Sal, that war darned good; why don't you buy some for your self?"

"I'll teach you how to play pitch and toss I'll flog you for an hour, I will," said a father to his son; "Father," instantly replied the incorrigible, as he balanced a penny on his thumb and finger, "I'll toss you to make it five hours or nothing."

The friends of a young lady who was at present at a distance, were much disturbed by receiving a telegraph dispatch which, by the absence of a letter, was made to read, "Jane is sick, she has a child." It should have been—"has a chill."

An Important Letter

From Rev. Jacob Seckler, well known and highly respected throughout the State of Pennsylvania:

Hanover, Pa., February 16, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co., Boston.—Dear Sirs: Having realized in my family important benefits from the use of your valuable preparation—Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry—it affords me pleasure to recommend it to the public. Some eight years ago one of my daughters seemed to be in a decline, and little hopes of her recovery were entertained. I then procured a bottle of your excellent Balsam, and before she had taken the whole of the contents of the bottle, there was a great improvement in her health. I have in my individual case, made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have always been benefited by it. I would, however, caution the public against imposition, because there is a good deal of spurious Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry afloat throughout the country. JACOB SECKLER.

Malone, Del., October 25, 1858.

S. W. Fowle & Co., Boston: Please send me a supply of Wistar's Balsam, as I am nearly out, and there is a great demand for it; it is doing wonders; it cures Coughs, Hoarseness, Whooping Cough and Consumption, without fail. There has been no case of the genuine sent until you sent me a lot some time since, but plenty of the counterfeit.

Yours, truly, JACOB F. FOUCK.

☞ REMEMBER, that in order all who seek health that the only genuine has the written signature of "I. BUTTS," as well as the printed name of the Proprietors, SETH W. FOWLE & CO., Boston, on the outside wrapper. Take no other. It will save money wasted and health jeopardied.

HAGERSTOWN ADVERTISEMENTS.

GEISER'S

PATENT SELF-REGULATING

GRAIN SEPARATOR,

CLEANER AND BAGGER,

AND THE LATEST IMPROVED

Iron Tripple-Geared

HORSE-POWER,

All furnished Complete, if desired, on Four Wheels.

THE subscribers desire to call the attention of the Farmers and Threshermen of Montgomery and adjoining counties to their Improved Machine for the present year. This machine has now been before the public for six years, during which time it has earned for itself the reputation of being the best Separator in use; and we have made some very important improvements and additions for the present year, which renders it still more perfect, and we take pleasure in recommending it to the public, knowing that it cannot fail to give general satisfaction. We are now manufacturing two different sizes, as follows:

No. 1, the largest size, is 8-horse power, 361 inch Iron Cylinder, Trunk 37½ inches wide, with Stacker, delivering the straw 50 feet high and the feeder and upon the stack 10 feet high, and can be easily managed either to carry the chaff with the straw, or deliver it in a separate place if required. It bags the grain, by reasonable management, sufficiently clean for market, and its capacity, under ordinary circumstances, is from 20 to 40 bushels per hour, or from 200 to 500 bushels per day, using eight horses and the same number of hands; but to force the work under the most favorable circumstances, it will do considerably more, or, with the same number of horses and less hands, it will thrash and clean as much or more grain per day than any other machine now in common use and with much more ease and agreeableness to the hands.

No. 2 is the same as No. 1, except something less in size and capacity: it is from 7 to 8-horse power, 30-inch Iron Cylinder, Trunk 31 inches wide.

Persons having good Thrashers, can have Separators, suitable to their capacity, attached, at a comparatively small cost. All our machines are sold under a warrantee.

We being practical mechanics, and being engaged in the manufacture of these machines for the last five years, and one of us having the advantage of twenty years practical experience in the thrashing machine business, and having in our employ the most skillful workmen, and using the best material, we flatter ourselves that we are prepared to manufacture these celebrated machines in the most substantial manner.

REPAIRING done in workmanlike manner. All our work warranted to give satisfaction, or no sale. Orders respectfully solicited.

As I do not compel any one to take what does not suit them, so persons in want of any thing in my line of business will do well to call and see me before purchasing, as I have never failed to please any reasonable man, and am determined to sell cheaper than the same articles can be bought for any where in the State. Don't forget the place, as you are sure to get a good article, at a low price.

I presume advertise that they have the best articles and sell the cheapest. But all we ask is a trial from one and all.

☞ I will pay 6 CENTS PER LB. FOR HIDES delivered at J. B. Neil's, Nerlaville, Montgomery county, Md., in Saddlery, at cash prices.
