Poetry.

Song of the Mountain Boy.

FROM THE GERMAN OF UHLAND.

I am the mountain shepherd boy!
A noble prospect I enjoy;
I catch the sun's first morning beams,
Here linger, too, his latest gleams.
I am the mountain boy!

Here in the torrent's native cell,
I drink it from its rocky well;
It gushes forth in wildest bound,
I seize it with my arms around.
I am the mountain boy!

The mountain—'tis my heritage;
Tempests around their battles wage
From North and South, their blasts they call,
Yet this my song sounds o'er them all:
I am the mountain boy!

Thunder and lightning under me,
The azure sky above, I see;
I greet the storm with friendly tone:
"Oh leave my father's house alone!"
I am the mountain boy!

And when the bell begins to toll,
And mountain-fires their flame-wreaths roll,
Down to the vale I wend my way
And swing my sword and sing my lay:
"I am the mountain boy!"

YORICK.

Selected Miscellany.

THE BATTLE OF CHURUBUSCO.—Conduct of the South Carolinians.—From Claiborne's Life of John A. Quitman, we extract the following regarding the conduct of the South Carolinians at the battle of Churubusco. It is well worth reading:

"Col. Butler, of the South Carolinians, had left his sick bed against the remonstrances of his friends to lead the Palmettos to the combat. Early in the engagement his horse was shot under him. Soon after he received a painful wound in the knee, and yielded the command to Lieutenant-Colonel Dickinson.—Taking the Palmetto flag from the hands of Sergeant Beggs, Dickinson placed himself in front, and Beggs was immediately shot down. Colonel Butler now came up to resume the command, and was killed by the side of Dickinson, while standing under the flag. Dickinson himself soon fell mortally wounded (he died some weeks afterward,) and Major Gladden received it from his hands and committed it to Lieutenant Baker, who being unable from debility and exhaustion to carry it, Major Gladden placed it in the hands of Patrick Leonard, and led his regiment to the charge. His men fell rapidly, but not one wavered, from first to last, under the concentrated fire of the enemy. In the whole history of war there has never been a more striking example of indifference to death, the result of stern resolve. Each man fought for the honor of Carolina. Several companies were almost annihilated. Some had not men enough to bury their dead, or bear their wounded to the ambulances. The uniforms of some of the officers were literally torn from their persons; the color-bearers were shot down, but the flag, bathed in their blood, was always seized as they fell and borne to the front. Proudly it floated through the tempest of death until the victory had been won, and then, all torn and blood-stained, it drooped over its own glorious dead. The regiment entered the castle with two hundred and seventy-three rank and file, and when it was over it mustered one hundred and sixty! It had no missing, its dead and wounded, made up the deficiency."

DIPTHERIA.—As the newspapers are full of remedies for this dangerous affection of the throat, some of them very good, and some of them very silly, we will give one which we know to be used by some eminent physicians, and which we have never known to fail, if applied immediately. Diptheria, in its early stages, may be recognized by any person of ordinary capacity, by two marked symptoms, the sensation of a bone or hard substance in the throat, rendering swallowing difficult and painful, and a marked fetor, or unpleasant smell of the breath, the result of its putrefactive tendency. On the appearance of these symptoms, if the patient is old enough to do so, give a piece of gum camphor, of the size of a marrowfat pea, and let it be retained in the mouth, swallowing slowly the saliva charged with it until it is all gone. In about an hour or so give another, and at the end of another hour a third; a fourth will not usually be required, but if the pain and unpleasant breath are not relieved, it may be used two or three times more, at little longer intervals, say two hours.

If the child is young, powder the camphor, which can easily be done by adding a drop or two of spirits or alcohol to it, and mix it with an equal quantity of powdered loaf sugar; or better, powdered rock candy, and blow it through a quill or tube into its throat, depressing the tongue with the haft of a spoon. Two or three applications will relieve. Some recommend powdered aloes or pellitory with the camphor, but observation and experience have satisfied us that the camphor is sufficient alone. It acts probably by its virtue as diffusible stimulant, and antiseptic qualities.—New York Examiner.

A MONSTER RIVER.—The Mississippi River extends 2,100 miles from the frozen regions of the North to the sunny South, and with the Missouri River, is 4,500 miles in length. It would reach from New York across the Atlantic Ocean, or from France to Turkey and the Caspian Sea. Its average depth is fifty feet, and its width over half a mile. The floods are more than a month travelling from its source to its delta. The trappers can exchange the furs of animals caught by them on the Upper Mississippi for the tropical fruits gathered on the banks below. The total value of steamers afloat on the river and its tributaries is more than $60,000,000, numbering 1,600 boats, with more than twice the steamboat tonnage of England. It drains an area of 1,200,000 square miles, and washes the shores of twelve powerful States. In one single reservoir at Lake Pepin, between Wisconsin and Minnesota, 2,500 miles from the sea, the navies of the world might ride at anchor.

THE CITIES OF THE UNION.—According to the recent census, the ten principal cities of the Union rank in population as follows: New York 1st, Philadelphia 2d, Brooklyn 3d, Baltimore 4th, Boston 5th, New Orleans 6th, St. Louis 7th, Cincinnati 8th, Chicago 9th, Buffalo 10th.

An Important Letter
From Rev. JACOB SECKLER, well known and highly respected throughout the State of Pennsylvania

HANOVER, Pa., February 16, 1859.
Messrs. S. W. FOWLE & Co., Boston.—Dear Sirs: Having received in my family important benefits from the use of your valuable preparation—Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry—it affords me pleasure to recommend it to the public. Some eight years ago one of my daughters seemed to be in a decline, and little hopes of her recovery were entertained. I then procured a bottle of your excellent Balsam, and before she had taken the whole of the contents of the bottle, there was a great improvement in her health. I have in my individual case made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have always been benefitted by it. I would however, caution the public against imposition, for as there is a great deal of spurious Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry sold throughout the country.
JACOB SECKLER.

MILFORD, Del., October 25, 1858.
S. W. FOWLE & Co., Boston: Please send me a supply of Wistar's Balsam, as I am nearly out, and there is a great demand for it. It is doing wonders. It cures Coughs, Asthma, Whooping Cough and Consumption, without fail. There has never been any of the genuine here until you sent me a lot some time since, but plenty of the counterfeit.
Yours, truly, JACOB Y. FOULK.

☞ REMEMBER, THROUGH, all who seek health, that the only genuine has the written signature of "I. BUTTS," as well as the printed name of the Proprietors, SETH W. FOWLE & CO., Boston, on the outside wrapper. Take no other; it were money wasted and health jeopardied.

HAGERSTOWN ADVERTISEMT.

GEISER'S
PATENT SELF-REGULATING
GRAIN SEPARATOR, CLEANER AND BAGGER,
AND THE LATEST IMPROVED
Iron Tripple-Geared HORSE-POWER,
All furnished Complete, if desired, on Four Wheels.
THE subscribers desire to call the attention of the Farmers and Threshermen of Montgomery and adjoining counties to their Improved Machine for the present year. This machine has now been before the public for six years, during which time it has earned for itself the reputation of being the best Separator in use; and we have made some very important improvements and additions for the present year, which renders it still more perfect, and we take pleasure in recommending it to the public, knowing that it cannot fail to give general satisfaction. We are now manufacturing two different sizes, as follows:
No. 1, the largest size, is 8-horse power, 36 inch Iron Cylinder, Trunk 31 inches wide, with Stacker, delivering the straw 30 feet beyond the feeder and upon the stack 18 feet high, and can be easily managed either to carry the chaff with the straw, or deliver it in a separate place if required. It bags the grain, by reasonable management, sufficiently clean for market, and its capacity, under ordinary circumstances, is from 20 to 40 bushels per hour, or from 200 to 360 bushels per day, using eight horses and the same number of hands; but to force the work, under the most favorable circumstances, it will do considerably more, or, with the same number of horses and less hands, it will thrash and clean as much or more grain per day than any other machine now in common use and with much more ease and agreeableness to the hands.
No. 2 is the same as No. 1, except something less in size and capacity; it is from 7 to 8-horse power, 36-inch Iron Cylinder, Trunk 31 inches wide.
Persons having good Thrashers, can have Separators, suitable to their capacity, attached, at a comparatively small cost. All our machines are still under a warrantee.
We being practical mechanics, and being engaged in the manufacture of these machines for the last five years, and one of us having the advantage of twenty years practical experience in the thrashing machine business, and having in our employ the most skillful workmen, and using the best material, we flatter ourselves that we are now prepared to manufacture these celebrated machines in the most substantial manner.
REPAIRING done in workmanlike manner. All our work warranted to give satisfaction, or no sale. Orders respectfully solicited.
