Will not some guardian genius raise A patriot and a saving hand, And merit everlasting praise,

A grateful world will call him blest, And futnre ages place his name Among the greatest, appliest, best, That eyer won bisteric fame.

Then haste, oh! guardian spirit rise, Ere yet Columbia's glory's field.
We will exalt thee to the skies— Enshrine thee with our honor'd dead.

Below we give the original words of which all have heard so much DIXEY'S LAND.

Away down South in the fields of cotton Clinamon seed and sandy bottom.

Look away, look away,

Look away, look away,

Den 'way down South in fields ob cotton,

Vinegar shoes and paper atockins,

Look away, look away,

Look away, look away,

Den I wish I was in Diney's Land,

(bh-ho, ob-ho)

(th-ho, oh-ho In Dixey's Land I II take my stand, And live and die in Dixey's Land,

Away down South in Dizer.

Pork and cabbage in depot,

I goes in cold and comis out hot;

Look away, bok away,

Look away, look away,

Vinegar put right on rel, beet,

It makes dem always fit oeat.

Look away, look away,

Look away, look away,

Den I wish I was in Dizey's Land.

Old massa's mad, and tam glad.

Ile's lost the one be thought be had.

Look away, look away,

Look away, look away,
Look away, look away,
Look away, look away,
Den I wish I was in Dixey's Land.
If he comes back, which I know he II do,
Massa make him dance ull he is blue,
Look away, look away,
Look away, look away,
Den I wish I was in Dixey's Land.

Den I wish I wish in Direy's Land
A nigger up in a great log tree,
Lookin right straight down at mey
Look away, look away,
Look away, look away,
I np with a stick and his lim in the eye,
And I made this little monkey cry,
Look away, look away,
Look away, look away,
Den I wish I was p Direy's Land.

Them 'ere Legs. A Son of the Granite State went flown to the city of Memphis to see his fortune. He found instead a diarrhous, which gradually sans life in a chronic form.

It was with this that poor Jim Bagely week picked up. And mouth after mouth it tug-ged, until at length he was but the outline of his former self, a purfect sheleton.

A worthy minister saw the poor follow, and seeing that the king of terrors had spotted him, determined to call on him and offer spirimal consolation. He broathed the important subject somewhat thus:

'My dear Mr. Bagely, in view of your re-lations with this life, how do you feel?' "D-n sick," was the prompt reply.
"Don't swear, my poor friend," said the parson, "and let me ask you if you eve think of your latter end ?'! Lord! said Bagely, "I baint thought on anything else for mor'n three months."

"Not I am afraid, in the right way, Mr Bagely. I beg you to pause and reflect. It is time you began to wrestle with the Lord. The sick man looked down at his miserable poker legs, extending before him. and, with ar expression of wild amagement in his countenance, exclaimed:

"Rastle with the Lord! what, with then fere legs?" pointing to his own. "Why parson, be'd flip me to-the very first pass. The parson gave him up as a hardened sin

MUST BE THAINED SOMEWHERS .- Professo Maybew says children must be trained som where. This is true; and people who have been blessed with pledges of affection, should ponder upon what he says in the following

Let it be borne in mind, that all the children in every community will be educated somewhere and somebow; and that it de-volves upon citizens and parents to determine whether the children of the present genera-tion shall receive the training in the school house or on the streets; and if in the forme whether in good or poor schools."

Prace is better than joy. Joy is an unes chest, and always on tiptee to depart. I tires and wears us out, and yet keeps us er fearing that the next moment it will be gone Peace is not so-it comes more quartly, it stays more contentedly, and it never exhausts our strength, nor gives us one anxious fore-casting thought. Therefore, let us pray for GROCERY AND LIQUOR E TABLISH-MENT, and always purchasing or each, per-peace. It is the gift of God—promised to all sons will find it to their advantage to give ne His children; and if we have it in our hearts, we shall not pine for joy, though its bright wings never touch us while we tarry in the world.

. WHAT A PARADOR FOR HACHELORS !- The La Crosse (Wisconsin) Democrat says ;-- There are in this city two hundred and eleven man riageable girls—sweet, benutiful and accomtahed. To capture these fairies, there are h all one hundred and twenty young beaus, forty-two of whom don't care for girls; this ty-seven the girls don't care for: fifteen who are too busy making money to marry, and the balance are engaged. What a harvest of honey, kisses, and to have waiting the angelic Moense gold ring and minister.
