COUNTY MASS MEETING.

Pursuant to a public call, the citizens of Montgomery county, irrespective of party, assembled in Mass Meeting, on Tuesday, the 23rd of January, 1860, at the Court House, in Rockville, to confer with each other upon the perilous condition of the country, and to adopt such measures as in their judgment the exigencies of the time required.

It was probably the largest meeting that ever assembled in the county, and was organized on motion of Wm. H. Howard, Esq., President, and John T. Voss, Secretary.

On motion of Wm. H. Howard, Esq., it was resolved, that two Vice-Presidents be selected from each election district of the county.

Whereupon, the following gentlemen were appointed, viz: Thomas Griffith, or H. H. Hall, of Crockett District; Robert S. Smith, of Rockville; Wm. H. Howard, of Rockville; and John H. Casaway, of Wm. H. Howard, of Rockville; and Benjamin Roberts, of Rockville.

On motion of Wm. H. Howard, Esq., it was resolved, that a committee of five be appointed to prepare a report to the meeting on the 30th of January, 1860, on the subject of the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

The committee, through their chairman, Hon. Richard J. Bowler, Esq., reported that they had the honor to receive from the Hon. John P. Ball, of the Senate, a copy of the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

On motion of Wm. H. Howard, Esq., it was resolved, that a committee of five be appointed to prepare a report to the meeting on the 30th of January, 1860, on the subject of the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

These stipulations, guarantees and prohibitions assure the equality, independence and domestic tranquillity of the States, and the personal freedom and property of the citizens of the United States.

Medley's District Meeting.

Pursuant to notice, a meeting of the citizens of Medley's District was held at the Court House, in Rockville, on Saturday, the 23rd of January, 1860.

The meeting was organized by the appointment of Dr. Wm. Howard, Chairman, and George W. Howard, Secretary.

On motion of Dr. Wm. Howard, Esq., it was resolved, that a committee of five be appointed to prepare a report to the meeting on the 30th of January, 1860, on the subject of the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

The committee, through their chairman, Dr. Wm. Howard, Esq., reported that they had the honor to receive from the Hon. John P. Ball, of the Senate, a copy of the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the United States.
