With eruel, unrefenting might, Oursister States is seviring fast. Will not some guardian genius raise A patriot and a saving hand, and merit everlasting praise,

From a deliver'd, barry land? A grateful world will call him blest, And futnes ages place his name Among the greatest, noblest, best, That ever won historic fame.

Then haste, oh! guardian spirit rise, Bre yet Columbia's glory's fied; We will exalt thee to the skirs-Enshrine thee with our honor'd dead.

Below we give the original words of Dixey," of which all have heard so much: DIXEY'S LAND.

Away down South in the fields of cotton Clanamon seed and saudy bottom,
Look away look away,
Look away look away,
Den 'way down South in fields ob cotton,
Vinegar shoes and paper stockins,
Look away look away,
Look away look away,
Den I wish I was in Dizey's Land,
Oh-ho, oh-ho.

Oh-ho, oh-ho.
In Direy's Land I'll take my stand,
And live and die in Direy's Land,
Away, away,
Away down South in Direy.

Pork and calbage in de pot, It goes in cold and comes out hot; Look away, look away, Look away, look away, Vinegar put right on red beet, Ti makes dem always at to eat, Look away, look away,
Look away, look away,
Den I wish I was in Dixey's Land.

Den I wish I was in Dixey's Land.
Old massa's mad, and I am glad.
He's lost the one he thought he had,
Look away, look away,
Look away, look away,
Pen I wish I was in Dixey's Land.
If he comes back, which I know he'll do,
Massa make him dance till he is blue,
Look away, look away,
Look away, look away,
Pen I wish I was in Dixey's Land.

Den I wish I was in Direy s Land.
A nigger up in a great big tree,
Lookin right straight down at me,
Look awar, look awar,
Look awar, look awar,
I up with a stick and hit him in the eye,
And I made this little monkey cry,
Look awar, look awar,
Dook awar, look awar,
Den I wish I was in Direy's Land.

Den I wish I was in Direy a Land.
A nigger in a bushel measure.
Was tickled to deth by swallowin a feather.
Look away, look away.
Look away, look away,
De doctor tried to fotch him to.
But he found out it warn't no go,
Look away, look away.
Look away, look away.
Den I wish I was in Direy a Land, Ac.

Selected Miscellany.

Them 'ere Lega A Son of the Grante State went down & the city of Memphis to seek his fortune. He found instead a diarrhoea, which gradually saps life in a chronic form.

It was with this that poor Jim Bagely was, picked up. And month after month it tugged, until at length he was but the outline of his former self, a perfect skeleton.

A worthy minister saw the poor fellow, and seeing that the king of terrors had spotted him, determined to call on him and offer spiripual consolation. He broached the important subject somewhat thus :

'My dear Mr. Bagely, in view of your relations with this life, how do you feel?

"D-n sick," was the prompt reply. "Don't swear, my poor friend," said the e ask you if you ever think of your latter end ?" "Lord!" said Bigely, "I haint thought on anything else for mor'n three months." Not I am afraid, in the right way, Mr. Bagely. I beg you to pause and reflect. It is time you began to wrestle with the Lord. The sick man looked down at his miscrabl poker legs, extending before him, and, with ar expression of wild amazement in his countenance, exclaimed : " Rastle with the Lord! what, with them 'ere legs?' pointing to his own. "Why', parson, be'd flip me to-the very first pass." The parson gave him up as a hardened sin

MUSE BE TRAINED SOMEWHERE.-Professo Hayhew says children must be trained some where. This is true; and people who have been blessed with predges of affection, should 184 Bridgo St., opp. the Markot, pender upon what he says in the following paragraph : Let it be borne in mind, that all the children in every community will be educated somewhere and somehow; and that it devolves upon citizens and parents to determine whether the children of the present genera tion shall receive the training in the school house or on the streets; and if in the form whether in good or poor schools."

Prace is better than joy. Joy is an uneas guest, and always on tiptos to depart. tires and wears us out, and yet keeps us ever fearing that the next moment it will be gone. Peace is not so-it comes more quietly, it stays more contentedly, and it never exhausts our strength, nor gives us one anxious force easting thought. Therefore, let us pray for peace. It is the gift of God—promised to all His children; and if we have it in our hearts, we shall not pine for joy, though its bright wings never touch us while we tarry in the

. What a Paraner son Bachelors !- The L. Crosse (Wisconsin) Democrat says :- There are in this city two bundred and eleven mai risgeable girls-sweet, beautiful and accomplished. To capture these fairles, there are in all one hundred and twenty young beans, forty-two of whom don't care for girls; thirty-leven the girls don't care for; fifteen who are too busy making money to marry, and the balance are engaged. What a harvest of honey, klasses, and to have waiting the angelic Bonne-gold ring and minister.
