

Selected Miscellany

TO MARRIERS.—If you are going to be married, you will find it well to read the following selections from the pages of our paper. They contain some of the most valuable and interesting facts that have ever been published. And, to make your teaching more effective, they are printed in a form that can be read at once by the bride and groom, and by the guests who are present. For, to shelter from the temptations of the world, the flesh, and the devil, is the duty of every Christian. MANAGEMENT OF A HOUSEHOLD.—No young woman ought to feel herself qualified to become a wife until she is able to understand how to do the management of a household. It is not a thing to be properly and safely entrusted to hiring hands. A servant is a broken reed for the head of a family to lean upon. There are a thousand little ways in which a household must be managed, in which the wife must be the best advantage. And there are a thousand other ways of saving money, which are only to those who have studied the art of economy. The Turkish proverb has it, that "a prudent woman is a mine of gold," and, like many other oriental sayings, it is beautiful for the truth it embodies. A wasteful housekeeper not only robs her husband of his money, but she also robs her children of their inheritance. It is her duty to be frugal, and to keep the household in a state of order, and to make the domestic life of a poor man a continual scene of exertion in shining it from one day to the next, and in keeping the stomach full, though the purse be empty.

Prudent Wives.—A prudent wife is like the "foundation" of the country, in which the sky and happiness wherever she goes. Her path is one of duty, and she performs it with a grace and beauty. She is a woman of rare and choice talents, and she writes in her words that around the throne of Paradise, or the time of Sabbath, without a single fault. Her husband's health and happiness are her chief concern. Her husband's health and happiness are her chief concern.

THE BROTHER ALBERT.—We would like to see the portrait of the late Z. H. in his family. Look at this: Albert, Prince, Queen of England, Albert, Prince, Emperor of Russia, Albert, Prince of Wales, a smart stippling, Alice, second daughter to the royal pair, Alfred, second son, Augusta, third daughter, Arthur, fourth daughter, Anne, fifth daughter, Beatrice, fifth daughter.

A DREAM.—I was asked by a friend to tell me the meaning of a dream he had had. It was as follows: "Last night, yesterday morning, about two o'clock in the afternoon, I dreamed that I was in a large hall, and that I was surrounded by a great number of people. I was in a large hall, and that I was surrounded by a great number of people. I was in a large hall, and that I was surrounded by a great number of people.
