

THE SENTINEL. ROCKVILLE, MD. FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1861.

To Correspondents.—"Montgomery," "Fifteen," "P. O.," and "June," have been received, but we regret to late for this week's paper. We will, with pleasure, publish such communications as our readers may desire to see in our next issue.

The New Confederacy.

It will be seen from the news from Montgomery, published in another column of today's paper, that the Southern Confederacy has been regularly organized, and elected a President and Vice-President, and all elected and clothed with power to represent all subordinate officers. It will be further seen that the new government has adopted slight amendments to the constitution under which the United States has hitherto been governed. It is further proclaimed that the new organization desires to substitute and maintain the most amicable relations with their late sister States, and to treat upon just and honorable terms a division of the property and debt of the Union.

There is no intimation of aggression upon the rights of any one; no manifestation of hostile feelings; but a calm and peaceful demeanor exhibited in all their deliberations. It would seem, that having determined to separate from their late co-partners, they have, like the gallant Colonel Davis, upon leaving the Senate, vowed not to return to live on friendly terms with their fellow-citizens of other States.

We trust this spirit may be met with a corresponding feeling, and if we can unite together, together in peace, let us part in peace, and not in the blood of each other's blood. As friends of peace and friends of the Union, we feel for our late Confederation, and for the Union which we have so long cherished.

It is worthy the sympathy of all patriotic hearts. Greatly we will see all cause of discord removed, and our great nation again united under a common flag. But this may not be, in the eyes of all, and it is to be hoped, that all who are patriotic, let us abstain from a cloudy civil war, and from all recriminations, which may serve to foster hostile feelings between the different sections of our common country. We hope something may be done by the Peace Convention to secure this, if nothing more.

The evidence that has been adduced before the Committee of Free, shows that no conspiracy exists or has existed to seize the capital. Governor Hicks was examined, on Wednesday last, by the Special Committee. His belief that a conspiracy existed in connection with the Federal capital, was said, superinduced by private and anonymous letters and newspaper articles; and that such a combination did not exist in Maryland, but in other Southern States. That at the time of his publication, about the beginning of January, he was satisfied there was no such organization, having in view the existing interference with public property, but for some time past, whatever may have been the design of any such confederations or associations, has been satisfied that such purposes have been abandoned.

We learn that the active Republicans in New York city, (says the Baltimore Exchange, of Saturday last), in their anxiety to prevent any movement on the part of Maryland prior to the fourth of March, have offered to furnish from thirty to fifty thousand dollars to secure their object. From the same source we have also the information that the army will be immediately increased by the new administration to 100,000 or 150,000 men, and also close the Southern ports. We state these facts as what we believe to be unquestionable authority.

Several distinguished Virginians have telegraphed to Gov. Pickens, of South Carolina, reporting him to be a federal assailing Fort Sumter. The President has approved the Loan Bill. Col. Judge, Commissioner from Alabama to Washington, for the purpose of negotiating for the transfer of the federal property in that State to her authorities, has arrived in Washington, but the President will hold no communication with him on the subject.

Gov. Brown, of Georgia, related to Gov. Morgan, of New York, for the seizure of arms and munitions intended for citizens of a State, by sending five vessels in the port of Savannah, the property of merchants in New York. The matter has been settled, however, by the restoration of the arms at New York, and the delivery of the vessels to the officers at Savannah.

MARYLAND STATE CONVENTION.—We have reports of the movements of the people of Anne Arundel county, relative to the State Convention. The election of delegates for that county took place on Saturday last. Ex-Governor Dratt, was chosen to represent this county in the convention.

In the House of Representatives, on Wednesday last, the counting of the votes cast for President and Vice-President of the United States took place, which ceremony passed off quietly, and in the usual manner. No demonstration of approbation or disapprobation were made.

MEETING IN KENT COUNTY.

A large meeting of the citizens of Kent county was held at Chestertown, on the 5th instant. Judge Chambers, on being called to the preside, remarked that he understood the object of the meeting to be to discuss a convention of delegates to meet similar delegates from the other counties in the State to confer with the people of the State to express their wishes and opinions whether or not a convention of the sovereign people should be held. It was no party man, and would not willfully participate in any meeting designed to accomplish party objects. Regarding this, however, as a question beyond and outside of party considerations, he could cheerfully participate in the action of the meeting.

The following gentlemen were then unanimously appointed vice-presidents:—Dorset P. Frazier, Wm. B. Conroy, David C. Blackiston, George D. S. Hardy, George H. Wilson, David C. Blackiston, and Josiah Ringgold, having been appointed for the purpose, reported a series of resolutions, which were unanimously adopted to the effect that the people of Maryland in the present crisis should sanction the call of a convention, declaring the Union a resolution to be prepared by all honorable means; adopting the Crittenden resolutions; and setting forth that when all efforts fail to secure the rights of both sections, Maryland should stand by the side of the States. The resolutions also utterly repudiated coercion, and the idea of interrupting by force the peaceful occupation of the District of Columbia. The following delegates were then appointed to the State convention:—Judge Chambers, John M. Conroy, George W. T. Perkins, Joseph W. Wickes, George W. T. Perkins, William T. Fry.

Judge Chambers then addressed the meeting, showing that the opponents of the convention had thoughtlessly, to say the least, charged its friends with being secessionists and disunionists. It was to avoid this very course that he desired to have a convention—a convention of conservative men—Unitarian in its character, and by the authority of the people of the State actively urge constitution. He believed if such a body of men had been in the field, warring the power of the common property, they could have exercised a most effective influence in arresting the course of secession which we are all deploring. No State in this Union has more at stake than Maryland, and yet it is very certain that her voice will be heard in the Convention.

A communication has been received from Judge Robertson, Commissioner to the seceding States, by G. W. Lether, of Virginia, in which he says that the Government of Virginia, which he says is the Government of Georgia, and that she will, during the period of contemplation for her separation, abstain from all acts calculated to bring on a collision with the Federal Government. The Governor of Alabama is also reported to give a favorable answer to Virginia's proposition, and that South Carolina will conform her course to the action of her sister States.

We have another report of the seizure of the Arsenal at Little Rock, Arkansas. It appears that a party went there for the purpose of seizing some ten days since, but were informed that an attempt was made to take possession of it by the inhabitants of the town would resist. On Saturday last, however, a strong force entered the place, and now the place is garrisoned by one hundred State soldiers.

Governor Pickens issued a proclamation on Saturday last, placing Moultrieville, and in fact, the whole island, under martial law. Among other enactments, no person living at Moultrieville, is allowed to be at large in the streets or thoroughfares thereof, between the hours of twelve and twelve, without the written permit of the commanding officer at that island.

McCOMICK'S PATENT.—The time for receiving testimony against the extension of McComick's patent has been extended three months. The Patent Office has received remonstrance from various parts of the country in such form as to show a systematic arrangement to oppose the extension of the patent.

DEPARTMENT OF THE PRESIDENT: ELECT FROM MARYLAND.—The President-elect, started on Monday, on his journey to the capital. He left Springfield at 8 o'clock, after making a few brief farewell remarks to the crowd assembled at the depot. He made no allusion to political matters.

PEACE CONGRESS.—We learn from Washington that the committee on propositions of the Peace Congress reported yesterday. The plan of adjustment reported by them, is the same as the Crittenden plan, with the (Gibbs) amendment.

NOMINATED.—The President has nominated to the Senate the Rev. Dabney Hall, (Methodist Episcopal), of Maryland, to be a chaplain in the army of the United States; and Messrs. Alex. W. Russell, of Washington, D. C., and Samuel A. Cooley, of Connecticut, to be paymasters in the navy.

THE VIRGINIA CONVENTION assembled at Richmond on Wednesday last, and organized by electing John Janney as President, who, on taking the chair, made a Union speech, but said that Virginia would insist on her rights as a condition of her remaining in the Union.

THE NEW LEAS.—The Boston Herald, of Saturday last, says that the bankers of Boston will refuse to take the loss of the new administration unless political affairs are not immediately settled. Some New York banks have also determined on the same course.

THE SOUTHERN CONFEDERACY.

A Government Organized.—The Constitution published.—Election of Hon. Jefferson Davis, of Mississippi, President, and Hon. A. H. Stephens, of Georgia, Vice President. Ala., Feb. 9.—The Constitution of the Provisional Government of the Southern Confederacy has been printed, and is now made public. The preamble says:—We, the Delegates of the Sovereign and Independent States of South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, Alabama, Louisiana, and Texas, invoking the favor of Almighty God, do hereby, in behalf of those States, ordain and establish this Constitution for the Provisional Government of the same, to continue in force from the inauguration of the President, or until a permanent Constitution of Confederation shall be adopted, and shall be put in operation, whichever shall first occur.

The seventh section of the first article provides for the importation of African negroes from any foreign country other than the slaveholding States of the United States, is hereby forbidden, and Congress is required to pass such laws as may be necessary to prevent the same.

The second section provides:—Congress shall also have power to prohibit the introduction of any article of trade or commerce from any foreign country, and to regulate the trade and commerce of the same. Article fourth third clause of second section provides:—There shall be no State exempting to another, or to whom shall slave may belong, by the executive authority of the State in which such slave is found, and in case of an abduction or forcible removal, full compensation, including the value of the slave and all costs and expenses, shall be made to the party by the State in which such abduction is proved shall take place.

The Government hereby instituted shall take immediate steps for the abolition of all matters relating to the States forming it, and their other late confederates of the United States of North America, in relation to public property, and shall be held liable for their withdrawal from them, these States hereby declaring to be their wish and earnest desire, to adjust everything pertaining to common property, common liability, and common obligations of that Union, upon principles of right, justice and equity, and good faith.

All the other portions of the instrument are almost identical with the Constitution of the United States. [Special Dispatch.] Montgomery, Feb. 9.—A casual interest has been manifested by outsiders today in the proceedings of the Convention, and the fact that the members have been received. Mr. Manning presented a beautiful model of a flag for the proposed Confederacy, made by a South Carolina artist, which is a blue cross on a red field, with seven stars on the cross. It was highly admired. Mr. Manning also presented another model, which is a blue cross on a white field, with seven stars on the cross.

A committee was appointed to report on a flag, and to report on the same to the Convention. The committee has been directed to appoint committees on Foreign Affairs, Finance, Military, Naval Affairs, Postal Affairs, Commerce and Maritime. [Third Dispatch.] Montgomery, Feb. 9.—The Convention has adjourned until the 11th inst. The Convention has adjourned until the 11th inst. The Convention has adjourned until the 11th inst.

[Fourth Dispatch.] Montgomery, Feb. 9.—A great demonstration is going on in honor of the inauguration of the new confederacy. A complimentary serenade was given to Hon. A. H. Stephens, which brought him out in an elegant coach.

NEW CONSTITUTION.—In glancing over this constitution, adopted by the Southern Confederacy, several important and noteworthy features may be observed in which it differs from the original. The old one commences with the words:—We, the people of the United States, do hereby ordain and establish this Constitution. The new one—We, the Delegates of the sovereign and independent States of South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Louisiana, and Texas, invoking the favor of Almighty God, do hereby, in behalf of those States, ordain and establish this Constitution.

Dr. FERGUSON'S OVERSEAS BITTERS.—We are not in the habit, as our readers are aware, of recommending or noticing the various nostrums that are urged upon the public attention; but there are occasions, as there is a departure from this rule seems proper, and the article above named presents a case of this kind. This medicine has acquired a permanent reputation for the relief of dyspepsia, liver complaint, heart-burn, and all difficulties original or proceeding from the digestive organs, and containing no alcohol, no minerals, or any other deleterious ingredients, it is a safe and reliable remedy. For a full account of the article, we refer to the advertisement of the article, in the present issue.
