THE SENTINEL.

ROCKVILLE, MD.

FRIDAY, :::::::: MAY 31, 1861.

THE LEGISLATURE.—On Tuesday next, 4th instant, the General Assembly of Maryland will re-assemble in special session at Frederick, pursuant to adjournment.

The Latest News.

Since the dispatch of the one thousand and one false rumors of fighting in Virginia, nothing of much importance, in a military point of view, has occurred. Large numbers of Federal troops have been sent over to the neighborhood of Alexandria. That city is now under military law, no person being allowed to leave except with a passport from the Provost-marshal. All the avowed secessionists, it is said, have left, under threats of arrest. The two papers, the "Gazette" and the "Sentinel," are suspended. The latter office was seized by the military, the proprietors having refused to print their proclamations.

We would caution our readers against receiving the numerous rumors that will now be daily put in circulation concerning military movements. It ought to be remembered that all mail communication is now cut off with Virginia. The [illegible] the South, and even [illegible] telegraph from Washington that goes North by [illegible] ton, and comes back [illegible] in the [illegible] papers, passes through the hands of [illegible] officers, and is [illegible] to be rec[illegible] with great caution.

[illegible] Election [illegible]. We have information from Virginia which indicates [illegible] Dominion [illegible] overwhelming [illegible] voting unanimously [illegible] ordinance of [illegible] heretofore [illegible] counties in the [illegible] against, [illegible] in favor [illegible] been elected to the [illegible] of Leesburg there [illegible] which 400 were for [illegible] Rockbridge, [illegible] burg, [illegible] Cumberland and Green [illegible] for secession. In the counties [illegible] four votes are reported [illegible]

U. S. T[illegible] PORT TOBACCO.—The Marl[illegible] by a gentleman from [illegible] a company of Lincoln's soldiers [illegible] Tobacco on Saturday or [illegible] ded encamping there. [illegible] county are [illegible] of having [illegible] Government [illegible] these troops to Port Tobacco [illegible] they were required for the protection [illegible] From our observation [illegible] rather [illegible] dang[illegible] [illegible] ration sentiment.

[illegible]—The Southern [illegible] sixth district, will [illegible] ton, &c. We can't say [illegible] county will be represented in said convention or not.

"SAVING THE UNION."—We have an amendment to propose to our "Unconditional" Lincoln supporters in Maryland, who have been "saving the Union" so long and so patiently. As the Union is admitted to be pretty well smashed up, they need another watchword, and we therefore suggest that they now rally like a man to the watchword of "Save the Pieces!"

We invite a careful perusal of the Report of the Committee on Federal Relations, in regard to the calling of a State Convention, made to the Legislature of Maryland, on the 9th instant, published on the first and fourth pages of to-day's Sentinel.

GENERAL alias PICAYUNE BUTLER.—The New Orleans Picayune, speaking of him, gravely asserts that he is the son of a New Orleans barber, and was born in Liberia. "Our readers may recollect" it observes, "old Ben, the barber, who kept a shop in Poydras street. He emigrated to Liberia with a small competence. General Butler is his son."

The Union Convention which met in [illegible] on Tuesday last, selected the following gentlemen as delegates to the Congressional Convention, which meets at Bladensburg, to-morrow, first of June: Dr. Wm. B. [illegible]gruder, Samuel D. Waters and —— Alnutt.

THE NEXT GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND.—That our readers may know where the citizen must have his residence to be eligible as a candidate for Governor at the ensuing election, we clip the following relative thereto, from the Baltimore Sun, of the 23th instant:

"The clause of the constitution ruling in the case is article 5, which divides the State into three districts: St. Mary's, Calvert, Charles, Prince George's, Anne Arundel, Montgomery and Howard counties and the city of Baltimore to be the first; the eight counties of the Eastern Shore to be the second; and Baltimore, Harford, Frederick, Washington, Allegany and Carroll counties to be third. The Governor elected from the third district in October, prior to the adoption of the constitution, was to continue in office during the term for which he was elected. The next was taken from the first district, the Hon. T. W. Ligon, of Howard county; his successor was the present executive, Governor Hicks, from Dorchester county, on the Eastern Shore; the next candidate must be from the third district, which includes all the counties north of the city of Baltimore, and west of the Chesapeake Bay and the Susquehanna river. He may be a resident of Baltimore county; but a resident of Baltimore city is ineligible."

TREASON IN VIRGINIA.—Judge Lyons, of Richmond, in his charge to the Grand Jury of that city, thus defines the crime of treason according to the Virginia Code:

"Any citizen or resident of Virginia who now adheres to the United States, giving the Government thereof or its officers aid and comfort, is guilty of treason. Furnishing information or intelligence, money, arms, ammunition, provisions, or any assistance, whether gratuitously or for reward, [illegible] and therefore committing treason [illegible] attempt to do any of these things [illegible] will make a man [illegible] treason."

[illegible] Henry Aylett [illegible] has been appointed [illegible] by the Confederate Congress [illegible] Attorney for the Eastern District of Virginia.

Under Which [illegible]ing?

The refusal of General Cadwalader to obey Judge Taney's writ of habeas corpus case of Mr. John Merryman, a prominent citizen of Baltimore county, who was recently arrested at midnight by [illegible] troops, on a charge of treason, and [illegible] in prison at Fort McHenry—is [illegible] instance of the irresponsible character which military usurpation will [illegible] assume when once begun. If the mili[illegible] will not obey the United States, whom [illegible] they serve? They profess to be [illegible] preserving that government—yet they fight [illegible] the [illegible] of its highest courts. [illegible] Lincoln denounces the Confederate Government, and also authorizes his captains to disregard the United States authorities, we would like to know to what government he is responsible, if to any? However, the inquiry is not of much moment; for if he can, with impunity, suspend the writ of habeas corpus, we don't see why he cannot proclaim himself dictator at once. He has done it in effect. He has usurped the powers of Congress, and he now spurns the courts—why should he hesitate to assume the purple? There are plenty of "Unconditionals" in Maryland who will help him "save the Union!"

Who is the Assassin?

The Black Republican journals and their sympathisers, are professedly groaning over the death of Col. Ellsworth by the hand of an assassin. What are the facts in the case and who is deserving of the character of an assassin? Col Ellsworth, at the head of an armed band, invades the soil of Virginia, at the dead hour of night. He breaks open the residence of one of her private citizens, forces his way through the house, seizes upon a portion of his property, and is bearing it off, when the proprietor, Mr. Jackson, aroused from his sleep, sees his house in possession of robbers, and finds his property in the hands of the leader, whom he fires upon and kills—some of the band accompanying this leader, instantly shoot down Mr. Jackson and stab him through with their bayonets. These are the plain facts—and yet this good citizen, whose house is invaded at the midnight hour, and whose property is being borne off by the marauders, is called an "assassin" because he shoots the perpetrator of this outrage, while the leader of this midnight raid is dubbed a hero—and the wretches who deliberately murdered Mr. Jackson, in his own house, are held up as worthy of admiration. This is Black Republican morality—and this is what the people of the South have to expect from Black Republican rule. The blood of the murdered Jackson will cry aloud for vengeance against the instigators of this unholy war.

PATRIOTISM AT A DISCOUNT—$100 A HEAD FOR VOLUNTEERS.—Volunteering in the Northern [illegible] does not go on so briskly out West. The editor of the Baltimore Republican has seen a circular of the Adjutant General of the military district of Ohio, offering one hundred dollars a head for volunteers for Lincoln's war, with good pay and rations to boot, fifty cents additional for every twenty miles of travel from his home to the place of rendezvous. There's a chance for patriots. All who want to leave their homes to bleach upon Southern soil—all who want to attach eternal infamy to their names as the oppressors and murderers of their countrymen, fall into line! One hundred dollars a head—one hundred dollars for all able bodied men willing to put themselves under the command of the despots at Washington.

[illegible] BANK CONGRESS.—The Legislature of Tennessee on the 8th instant passed resolutions providing for the holding of a Bank Congress of the Southern States. The [illegible] "that in the present unsettled and distracted posture of public affairs, it is important that the banks of the Southern States should at an early day be represented in a general convention or Congress to confer and adopt such a line of policy as will best promote the general welfare, and insure a currency of uniform value throughout the South;" and direct "that said Congress be held at Atlanta, Georgia, on the first Monday in June, 1861, or at such other time and place as may be designated by a majority of the States co-operating."

STOPPAGE OF THE SOUTHERN MAILS, &c.—A telegram from Washington says that Western Virginia is an exception to the order of the Postmaster General for the stoppage of mails in the seceded States.

It is said there is a great deal of coal on the way from Cumberland, to tide water, and the only difficulty in the way of which is the refusal of Confederate troops at Harper's Ferry to allow boats to pass that point. The troops there stationed, have, no doubt, a good reason for so acting.

HOWARD COUNTY.—The rate of taxation in Howard county, Md., has been fixed for the current year at 67 cents on the $100. Joshua Anderson and Wm. A. Webb have been re-appointed collectors of county and State taxes.

Ex-Governor Francis Thomas has been nominated by the Union Convention, which met in Frederick, on Saturday last, as a candidate for Congress in the fifth district of this State.

The Baltimore "Exchange," one of our most valuable exchanges, has failed to reach us for several days. What's the matter?

THE GREAT EASTERN TO BE SOLD.—The London Times has this piece of news about the Great Eastern:

"The Great Ship Company propose to raise £35,000 in debentures having twelve months to run, at 10 per cent., to pay off the existing claims. The security will be a first mortgage of the vessel. If the money is not raised within a few weeks the ship will be sold to meet the demands now standing over."

FORT PICKENS.—We learn that a letter has been received in Baltimore from Pensacola. The writer is of opinion that Fort Pickens cannot hold out against the Confederate forces for more than twenty-four hours, as General Bragg has erected batteries that will enable him to throw so many shells into the works every minute, that the garrison must be smoked out, even if the casemates are not destroyed.

Secretary Walker, of the Southern Confederacy, has accepted a regiment from Arkansas, tendered by Governor Rector, which will rendezvous at Lynchburg.

JUDGE DOUGLAS.—A dispatch from Chicago states that Judge Douglas is gradually improving, and that the hopes of his recovery [illegible]

The circ[illegible] now £20,970,[illegible] of the Bank of England is £12,938,848. [illegible] its whole bullion is [illegible]

Heroic Deeds of the Zouaves.

The telegraph from Washington reports the following heroic deeds of the Zouaves, whose leader fell in the first Black Republican raid in Virginia:

"A man was seized three miles from the city with a secession flag, and was made by his captors, several Zouaves, to carry it on a pole to the Marshal House, and there trample on it. The man was then placed in custody. Two Zouaves also seized a secessionist with about $250 on his person, together with pistols and papers. He was deprived of these effects and released on his parole. Other seizures continue to be made."

Oppression, murder and robbery are the every day employments of this band of Lincolnites. They are worthy of the cause in which they are engaged, and the cause is worthy of such supporters.

The Troops at Harper's Ferry.

CHAMBERSBURG, PA., May 27.—The Virginia troops opposite Williamsport have been reduced to 400. A strict guard is still maintained on both sides of the river.

The troops at Harper's Ferry have fallen back from the town proper, to Bolivar, a suburb.

About sixty negroes are engaged in making a road up the mountain, on the Maryland side, to accelerate the passage of troops and heavy field pieces.

From Mexico--Rich Gold Discoveries.

NEW ORLEANS, May 27.—The brig Angelo has arrived from Vera Cruz, on the 12th inst., with $6,000 in specie.

Letters from Minatitlan say that gold has been taken from the waters of Malatengo, and the diggings are very rich. Great excitement prevailed regarding the discovery.

Border State Convention.

FRANKFORT, KY., May 27.—The Border State Convention met to-day. Hon. John J. Crittenden was appointed chairman, and Orlando Brown was elected secretary. Delegates from Missouri and Kentucky were present.

The convention adjourned till to-morrow, to await the arrival of delegates on their way hither.

ANTI-COERCION MEETING.—In pursuance of a public call, a large number of citizens of Queen Ann's county met at Centreville, on Tuesday, the 21st instant, for the purpose of selecting delegates to represent the county in the convention to meet at Cambridge on the 28th instant, to nominate an anti-coercion candidate for Congress in the 1st district. The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we are uncompromisingly opposed to all attempts to coerce any State that may have withdrawn or shall withdraw from the Union, under whatever guise or color, whether they be to enforce the laws or retake forts or other public property.—Centreville States Rights.

AN AMAZON.—Mrs. W. Dunn [illegible] six feet two inches high, is 1st Lieutenant of the [illegible] company [illegible] regiment [illegible] even the [illegible] of the regiment [illegible] by a [illegible] who became shockingly frightened at her threats of vengeance upon him if he [illegible] her, and he decamped.

CORN WEATHER [illegible]—Accounts from Europe report that the weather since March has been [illegible] with drought and sharp frosts, which have checked [illegible] crops in [illegible] vegetation. From the south of France it is stated that irreparable damage has been inflicted on the vines by the frost.

The New Orleans Typographical Union have established a fund for the benefit of printers who enlist in the army of the Confederacy.

John Janney, Esq., of Loudoun county, Virginia, declines the nomination for Congress tendered him by the Union men of [illegible] county.

The vote of the troops at Harper's Ferry, is reported at 4,2[illegible] for secession and 1[illegible] against it.

Deaths.

Died on the 24th instant, in the 18th year of his age, WILLIAM HENRY BRIGGS, third son of Samuel and Ellen Briggs, of this county.

The subject of this brief notice was by nature, a youth of uncommon loveliness of character, and made still more so by divine grace. When but a boy, he united himself with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and has lead a consistent christian life ever since; he died after a long and tedious illness, the peaceful death of the christian. While his affectionate parents, and loving brothers mourn deeply the loss of this loved son and brother, they mourn not as those who have no hope, for with them

"Hope looks beyond the bounds of time,
When what they now deplore,
Will rise, to full immortal prime,
And bloom to fade no more."

DIED, on Saturday morning, the 18th of May, at the residence of Mr. Wm. W. Benton, Miss LEAH W. JONES, daughter of the late Maj. Elisha Jones, of Clarksburg, in the 27th year of her age.

TO THE FARMERS AND PLANTERS of the South.

FOWLE & CO.'S
Soluble Phosphated Peruvian
GUANO,
The Best, Cheapest and most Permanent
FERTILIZER
Ever Offered to the Agriculturist.
Approved by Prof. Campbell Morfit.

ONE of the most eminent Chemists of America, as the most reliable and efficient combination of Phosphatic and Ammoniated Guano ever offered in a readily soluble form. It is composed of No. 1 PERUVIAN AND SOMBRERO GUANOS, of direct importation from the Chincha and Sombrero Islands, and is warranted free from all impurities.

This Fertilizer has been severely tested, in comparison with Peruvian Guano, by many of the most successful and intelligent farmers of Virginia and Maryland, from whom we have received [illegible] letters and certificates of approval. We submit the following extract from Prof. [illegible] report upon the Soluble Phosphated Peruvian Guano, viz:

"[illegible]"

CAMPBELL MORFIT.

[illegible] the above-named documents, together with Prof. Morfit's Analysis, and other [illegible] matter, will be found in our pamphlet circulars, showing that our Fertilizer is far better adapted to general use than [illegible] Guano alone, besides being

FIFTEEN PER CENT. CHEAPER.

The Sombrero Guano, before its combination with the Peruvian, is rendered immediately soluble by a process recently discovered and peculiarly our own. The value of Peruvian Guano, presented in this modified and improved form, can hardly be over-estimated.

We continue to keep on hand our usual supplies of PERUVIAN AND SOMBRERO GUANO, of our own direct importation, which we offer at lowest market rates.
