NOW READY.

The Second Edition.

By Authority of the State of Maryland.

THE MARYLAND CODE.

EDITED BY ORTH. SCOTT, & HIRAM McCULLOUGH.

Public General and Public Local Laws,

Now in force, in the State of Maryland,

With an Index to each Article and Section,

By Henry C. Mackall, of the Maryland Bar.

Just Published, 1 in Two Vols. 8vo. Law Sheep. Index and Supplement to 800 Pages. $10. Supplement bound in Full Calf, extra, $12, or sent.

THE FIRST EDITION of 2000 copies of the Code having been exhausted in the redemption of the pledge, the Commissioners and the Publishers have the pleasure of announcing that the SECOND EDITION is now ready, for which orders are respectfully solicited.

It is deemed superfluous to dwell on the importance or advantages of this great work. A Digest of which Law of a State upwards of 800 pages. The distinguished Codifiers, whose labors have been ratified by an Act of the recent Legislature, have comprised in Full Detail, in One Volume ALL THE PUBLIC AND LOCAL LAWS, now in force in this State, and of course, bringing to every department of business, and City and County society. Into this comprehensive space, the Code, into which is incorporated the Acts of the last Legislature, and the most important Laws of Maryland from the Revisal of 1839 to the close of the December Session of 1858, with an elaborate and well digested Index to each Article and Section, will be found to condense in its classifications of subjects, the reader, no matter how unacquainted with the principles of law, may easily examine the enactments on any question referring to his Rights, his Duties, or his Liberties as a Citizen.

As a matter of enabling every citizen to be at once a Lawyer, the Publishers have taken especial care that the usual charge for Law Books, per page with conditions on the part of the citizens of Maryland for a liberal encouragement. By this means the most complete body of Domestic Jurisprudence ever Published, may be had as a Law Preceptor and Reference Companion and Safe Guide, in behalf of every citizen, Every Law Office, Merchant, Mechanic, Farmer and Planter, Steward and Business Man, ought to be supplied with a copy of the Code.

The Code has been carefully examined by several of the most eminent lawyers in the State. Although improvement may in the most slight degree be detected, jurisprudence for Public General and Public Local use, every-where, is allowed and even by the Most Exacting, as it is unquestionably the most complete and cheapest Law Book ever published in this country. The unexpected demand, and the very favorable opinions expressed by competent judges, are gratifying evidences that the mode of issuing the Work—in separate parts, and at about one-half the usual price of Law Books—has met with public approbation.

In order to render the work in every respect useful to Purchasers, we have made arrangements to issue in Pamphlet Form, uniform with the present volumes of the Code, the ACTS of the LAST SESSION of the LEGISLATURE. By this means the purchasers of the Code will be enabled to possess all the Legislation of the State, in regular order, at a very moderate price.

Preparing for Early Publication, A DIGEST OF THE DECISIONS, Construing the Statutes of Maryland, of which the Code of Public General Laws is composed, with specifications of the Acts of Assembly, by CHARLES P. MAYER and LEWIS MAYER, of the Baltimore Bar.

Early orders respectfully solicited

JOHN MURPHY & CO.

An Important Letter

From Rev. Jacob Sickler, well known and highly respected throughout the state of Pennsylvania.

HARRISBURG, Pa., February 16, 1859.

Messrs. S. W. FOWLE & Co., Boston.—Dear Sirs: Having realized in my family important benefit from the use of your valuable preparation—Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry—it affords me pleasure to recommend it to the public. Some eight years ago one of my daughters contracted a severe and little hoped of her recovery were entertained. Three bottles of your Balsam and before she had taken the whole of the contents of the bottle a decided improvement in her health. I have every incidental case, made frequent use of your valuable medicine and have always given entire satisfaction. I would, however, state, in regard to your Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, that I prefer the small size bottle, as I find that by the time the large size is opened it loses its strength.

Yours truly, JACOB SICKLER.

☞ BEWARE of counterfeits, as many are in circulation. Each bottle has the signature of "SETH W. FOWLE & Co." blown in the glass. Take no other. Sold by druggists everywhere.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE

AND THE

BRITISH REVIEWS.

Great Inducements to Subscribers!

Premiums and Reductions.

LEONARD SCOTT & CO., NEW YORK, continue to publish the following leading British Periodicals—viz:

1.
The London Quarterly (Conservative.)
2.
The Edinburg Review (Whig.)
3.
The North British Review (F. Church.)
4.
Blackwood's Edinburg Magazine (Tory.)

THE present critical state of European affairs will render these publications unusually interesting during the forthcoming year. They will occupy a middle ground between the hastily written news-items, crude speculations, and flying rumors of the daily journal, and the ponderous tome of the future historian, written after the living interest and excitement of the great political events of the time shall have passed away. It is to these periodicals that readers must look for the only really indigestible and reliable history of current events, and as such, in addition to their well-established literary, scientific and theological character, we urge them upon the consideration of the reading public.

The receipt of Advance Sheets from the British publishers gives additional value to these reprints, inasmuch as they can now be placed in the hands of subscribers about as soon as the original editions.
