☞ Where hard work kills ten, idleness kills a hundred.

☞ To have tarts for tea—let your wife see you kissing the waiting maid.

☞ The firmest friends ask the fewest favors.

☞ Why was Bonaparte's horse like his master? Because he had a martial neigh.

☞ Patrick gave his testimony in the riot case: "Be jabers, the first man I saw coming at me was two brick-bats."

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN ARMY CANONS AND CHURCH CANONS.—Merely a difference of bore.

A GOOD RESULT OF THE TIMES.—A politician is occasionally "knocked into a cocked hat."

☞ Why is Brigadier Gen. Schenck like Mr. Burlingame? Because he was rejected at Vienna.

☞ If you think you are too tall, marry an extravagant woman, and you will find yourself short enough.

☞ Her face was so sunburnt she need only have buttered it to become "toast."

☞ A woman may speak as many tongues as she will, but don't let her do it with too long a one of her own.

☞ George D. Prentice's youngest son is a captain of a Confederate company under General Price.

☞ You want nothing, do you?" said Hatty Bond, an' if it's nothing you want, you'll find it in the jug where the whiskey was."

☞ If you and your sweetheart vote upon the marriage question, you for it, and she against it, don't flatter yourself as to it's being a tie.

☞ We are sure to be losers when we quarrel with ourselves; it is a civil war, and in all such contentions triumphs are defeats.

☞ Tom Moore compared love to a potato "because it sheds from the eyes." "Or rather," exclaimed Byron, "because it becomes Poe by parting."

☞ A rural contemporary announcing a strawberry festival, says—"delicious fruit and pretty women." What an attractive combination.

☞ There is many a gentle woman, whose heart, like the evening primrose, opens only at sunset, but pleases with sweetness through the dark night.

☞ "I wish that boy belonged to me," said an old Farmer.

"What would you do with him?"

☞ Life has been called a warfare. Be sure it is in the periodical armistice of the Sabbath. It is only in the pauses of the fight that we can see how the battle is going.

☞ Some Yankee poet has been trying to write a song for the South, and has succeeded better than the average run of Yankees who undertake to do the same thing:

"Oh! for a nigger, And oh! for a whip;
Oh! for a cowhide, And oh! for a rope,
Oh! for a mess of Greeley and Beecher;
Oh! for a cart, or a Yankee's head teacher;
Oh! for a Sumter, and oh! for a ship;
Oh! for a swing of niggers each trip."

Useful Recipes.

A SURE REMEDY FOR DIARRHŒA.—Numerous requests having been made to republish the recipe for diarrhea and cholera symptoms, which we gave in our paper some weeks ago, and which was used by the troops during the Mexican war with great success, we give it below, with a very important correction of an error made in the first formula, as to the size of the dose to be given:

Laudanum,	2 ounces
Spirits of Camphor,	2 ounces.
Essence of Peppermint,	2 ounces.
Hoffman's Anodyne,	2 ounces.
Tincture of Cayenne Pepper,	2 drams.
Tincture of Ginger,	1 ounce.

Mix all together. Dose—a teaspoonful in a little water, or a half teaspoonful repeated in an hour afterwards, in a teaspoonful of brandy. This preparation will check diarrhea in ten minutes, and abate other premonitory symptoms of cholera immediately. In cases of cholera it has been used with great success, to restore reaction, by outward application.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

SNAKE BITES.—As it may probably save the life of some persons I will give a sure antidote for the bite of snakes.—Thoroughly saturate the place bitten with tincture of iodine, and give five or six drops on sugar, and it will prevent any bad effects from the bite. My son had been engaged in collecting snakes and reptiles for the Smithsonian Institution, and has been bitten several times by rattlesnakes, and in every instance has been relieved by the use of iodine. I have also successfully used it in other cases.—W. F. M. Arny, Hyatt, Anderson county, Kansas.

An Important Letter
From Rev. Jacob Seceler, well known and highly respected throughout the State of Pennsylvania:
HANOVER, Pa., February 16, 1859.
Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co., Boston.—Dear Sirs: Having realized in my family important benefits from the use of your valuable preparation—Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry—it affords me pleasure to recommend it to the public. Some eight years ago one of my daughters seemed to be in a decline, and little hopes of her recovery were entertained. I then procured a bottle of your excellent Balsam, and before she had taken the whole of the contents of the bottle, there was a great improvement in her health. I have in my professional capacity made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have always been benefitted by it. I could, however, caution the public against imposition, for there is a great deal of spurious Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry sold throughout the country. JACOB SECELER.
MILTON, Del., October 25, 1858.
S. W. FOWLE & Co., Boston.—Please send me a supply of Wistar's Balsam, as I am nearly out, and there is a great demand for it. It is doing wonders; it cures Coughs, Asthma, Whooping Cough and Consumption, when it fail. There has never come to the knowledge here until you sent me a bottle some time since, but plenty of the counterfeit.
Yours, truly, JACOB F. FOUCE.
☞ REMEMBER, purchaser of all who sell health, that the only genuine has the written signature of I. BUTTS, as well as the printed name of the Proprietor SETH W. FOWLE & CO., Boston, on the outside wrapper. Take no other, it were money wasted and health jeopardied.

NEW YORK ADVERTISEMENTS.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE
AND THE BRITISH REVIEWS.
Great Inducements to Subscribers!
Premiums and Reductions.
L. SCOTT & CO., NEW YORK, continue to publish the following leading British Periodicals—viz:
1.
The London Quarterly (Conservative.)
2.
The Edinburg Review (Whig.)
3.
The North British Review (F. Church.)
4.
Blackwood's Edinburg Magazine (Tory.)

THE present critical state of European affairs will render these publications unusually interesting during the forthcoming year. They will occupy a middle ground between the hastily written news-items, crude speculations, and flying rumors of the daily journal, and the ponderous tome of the future historian, written after the living interest and excitement of the great political events of the time shall have passed away. It is to these periodicals that readers must look for the only really intelligible and reliable history of current events, and as such, in addition to their well-established literary, scientific and theological character, we urge them upon the consideration of the reading public.
The receipt of Advance Sheets from the British publishers gives additional value to these reprints, inasmuch as they can now be placed in the hands of subscribers about as soon as the original editions.

Premium to New Subscribers,
the Nos. of the same Periodicals for 1859 will be furnished complete, without additional charge.
Unlike the more ephemeral Magazines of the day these periodicals come little to age. Hence, a full year of the Nos. for 1859, may be regarded nearly as valuable as for 1861.
Subscribers wishing also the Nos. for 1860, will be supplied at the following extremely low rates.
