

THE SENTINEL
 Published every Friday morning at One Dollar and Fifty Cents per annum, if paid in advance; otherwise at Two Dollars; if not paid until the expiration of the year. No paper discontinued until all arrearages are paid, unless at the option of the editor.

Advertisements are accepted for insertion at the rate of one dollar per square for the first three insertions, and twenty-five cents for every subsequent insertion. Two lines to constitute a square. If the number of insertions be not marked upon them, they will be continued until forbid, and charged accordingly. A liberal deduction will be made to those who advertise by the year.

Communications, the effect of which is to promote private interests, are matters of charge, and are to be paid for at the rate of fifty cents per square. All communications must be accompanied with the author's name, otherwise they will not be inserted.

Advertisements for Comptrolor or Associates of any kind, denunciations, characterizations or otherwise, are not to be paid for at the regular rates, and notices or notices of agents in addition to the advertisement, will be charged at the rate of fifty cents per square.

Orders next door to the house on the southwest corner of the Square.
