ROCKVILLE, MARYLAND, FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 25, 186L

Vol. VII .--- No. 11.

THE SENTINEL

than any other soap known. Every family should possess it, and needs only to be known to be sought after by every household and laundress in the land.

The chemicals for its manufacture can be obtained at any Drug Store, at a very triffing expense.

he obtained at any Drug one, in general, can be obtained of the subscriber. Any one purchasing a family right, and are dissatisfied after giving the soap a fair trial, can return it. He will, if required by the person purchasing a right, make some of the soap.

PERRY TRAIL, dec 7—1f Rock ille, Md.

ROCKVILLE, Dec. 4th, 1860.

AUCTIONEERING

The National Crisis.

CLC National CUSIS.

| Expandibled every Fieldy monting al One parament of production of the war, this war does, not be producted as the production of the war, this war does, not be producted as the production of the war, this war does, not be producted as the production of the war, this war does, not be producted as the production of the war, this war does, not be producted as the production of the war, this war does, not be producted as the production of the war, this war does, not be producted as the production of the production of the war, this war does, not be producted as the production of the war, the war does, not be producted as the production of the war, the war does, not be producted as the production of the production of the production of the war, the war does, not be producted as the production of the production of

has ever been directered. It can has ever been directed. It can have the fire a quantity of water, and turn the same into the best Toilet or Washing Soap. It is made without any offensive smell. There is no lyeor grease used, being made entirely from the best chemists, and found to contain nothing that will injure the most delicate flures or the skin.

This soap has been used by thousands of tarming the state of the contains and the state is not the state. The same has been used by thousands of tarming the state is seen in the fact that, at this time, there are large armies in the serve us! But if, under Providence, we would protect ourselves, we can in no Lincoln Souther that the state is seen in the fact that, at this time, there are large armies in the serve us! But if, under Providence, we would protect ourselves, we can in no Lincoln Souther that the serve us that the serve us the constitution of the state of the fact that, at this time, there are large armies in the serve us! But if, under Providence, we would protect ourselves, we can in no Lincoln Souther that the serve us the constitution of the fairs in Kentucky presents to what has occurred, and to what the Union party is tude, and going actively into the fray; (perhaps unconsciously) staving to bring they are for furnishing one of the belto pass, in Maryland, will breibly strike ligerents with men and money, and are drop of bleed. If we can anocaed in charged at the rate of fifty cents per square. the whole strife—proclaiming hers life a protests, and stands to day, so far as her outh-west corner of the Souare tain that position—that Kentucky should as regards the existing hostilities.

COUNTY DIRECTORY.

Law Partnership:

RICHARD J. BOWIE & JOHN T. VINSUN, of Rockelle, Bontgomery county. Mil. have entered into coparty extended into the last and the manner in which such a greafful position.

Even after the war began, sile called a practical purposes, is the same to-day made every effort to avert what no same and the configuration of the configur occupied this position, her neutrality was following a specifical towns of the country of the co SOAP, now offers for sale

Family Rights.

Also, SOAPs of every description manuCategories having occupied Kentucky, in vio.

Also, SOAPs of every description manuCategories having occupied Kentucky, in vio.

The subscriter has tested this soap thorough.

The subscriter has tested the soap thorough.

The subscriter has tested this soap thorough.

T The subscriber has tested this soap more in the state of the state of the Petersi Overcument it. It, and can, with conficience, recommend it to operations against the South, the (line) would repeal the protesting resolutions of the citizens of Montgomery county. It is decidedly the of common sense and of "military ne- to fight against the South; would levy to fight against the South; would levy federates were forced, by the principles the recent session; would can use the procession; would can the procession; would can use the procession of the Suttle son, and carnestly appealed for conciliation. Let the people have time to speak the attempts through Judge Christophell, to call the the Administration has used to order off the Confederate troops, done towards the State; would assist it tonally chosen to that high office, is sufficient cause for any State to separate from the Union.  Let us not have the wished it borne in mind that he belonged not to the class of mankind that we desire peace at any secret.

We protest solemnly in the fixed of mankind that we desire peace at any ticipate a threatened evil. If he violates men who would dismomber the confederate requested her States Rights and would, in a word, carry affeits just to > field, composed chiefly of Kentuckians, would protect ourselves, we can in no Lincoln a just cause for secession. If the preparing for a deadly strife for the mass otherwise do it, than by defeating those continuous Southern States can obtain guarantees tery of the State, and ready to deluge whose policy leads to such results; and which will secure their rights in the with the blood of brethren the sacred this brings us to the point of the argusoil on which they night have continued ment. THE SO-CALLED UNION PARTY OF to prosper if the position of peaceful Martland MUST BE DEFEATED, if neutrality had been observed. It is a we would escape the horrors which the fearful and a sickening sight shocking policy they advocate has brought upon a the reader; and yet there tre some dif- sgainst neutrality between the two; and ferences to be observed, though they do their declarations evidence their intennot touch the point to which was are tend-ing. Thus, it may be doubted whether then, and that too in the face of the ter-there was in this State so possible and rible division of opinion that here exists. extensive a Union spirit sa existed in To say that all this can be done—that extensive a Union spirit sa existed in To say that all this can be done—that Kentucky—it being, as we bilieve, true, that a majority here was, from the start, ed to repress another—without plunging on the side of the South. In the second place, if Maryland did not early call as of fraternal discord and destruction, is to men of Tempesses, our people require an honest silert to be made to save the Union by demanding additional guaranties, when when the evidence of our own series, in the States of Kentucky bloodshed, to recession."

A. O. P. Nicholson, of Tempesses, in the second the refusal of the government of the United States to hold any inter-course with the commissioners appointed in the decision of this question reason of the refusal of the government of the United States to hold any inter-course with the commissioners appointed in the decision of this question reason of the refusal of the government of the United States to hold any inter-course with the commissioners appointed in the decision of this question reason of the United States to hold any inter-course with the commissioners appointed in the decision of this government for the purpose afore a heart of the purpose afore and description of fraternal discord and destruction, is to ment of Tempesses, our people require the Free States. He had no doubt if said, or taking leave; the Free States in the States to hold any inter-course with the commissioners appointed in the decision of this question reason of the United States to hold any inter-course with the commissioners appointed in the decision of this question reason of the United States to hold any inter-course with the commissioners appointed to the decision of this question reason of the United States to hold any inter-course with the commissioners appointed to the decision of this question reason of the United States to hold any inter-course with the commissioners appointed the the decision of this question reason of the United States to hold any inter-course with the Commissioners appointed to Kentucky—it being, as we billeve, true, one portion of Marylanders can be arm-that a majority here was, from the start, ed to repress another—without plunging on the side of the South. In the second the State, sooner or later, in to the abyss eifying his professions, became an open which is already opening mournfully be-Lincolnite, Maryland did not furnish fore our eyes, Unless we would willingtiovernment, and against whom the denumerities of the North is most bitter friendly States. Now hostility has been ferson Dakis was chosen President. That for humanity's sake, and to avert the numerican could but consider the great-cest calamity that could be fall this nation.

* Our people are prepared to do is declared in his inaugural message of the sate of the war and bring about a peaceful sections would, if per united, adopt any honorable measures to end the war and bring about a peaceful sections numerous occasions.

in consequence of the election of Mr. Lincoln? My countrymen, I tell you

Senator Hunter's letter, in December,

"I do not consider the election of Mr. Lincoln a just cause for secession. If the Southern States can obtain guarantees which will secure their rights in the by which this Government can be pre-Union, I advise them to stand by it." Secretary Floyd's letter :

"For one, I am not for secession long as any honorable effort can be made to preserve the Union on a constitutional basis. * * I believe that the fearint and a sickening signification of our sensibilities as men, and significantly ominous of our detaines as free dates and their policy are for War, and against Peace. The parallel which this course of after the details and against the Confederates; and the preservation of the sections and the preservation of the union. The most especially the shedding of the first drop of blood. If we can succeed in averting these calamities, the great practical business of the country, perchance tion of the Union, and a restoration of harmony between the sections."

Gov. Brown, of Tennessee, said in on account of disappointment and cha-not regard a constitutions generally grin at the reverse of an election, give a failure. Regarding the actilement of At the date of Mr. Lincola's inaugu-up all as lost, but let us see what can be difficulties, the President himself says he ration he found Commissioners from the is upon you. If you decide right, the angel of prace will spread her wings."

the constitution, then will come our time racy. He would as soon take a glass to act." better one, as to attempt to make a bet-ter government by crushing the present

Mr. Gilmer, of North Carolina, did served, and peace and harmony restor to the greatest nation and people on the

The public cannot bave yet forgotten the struggles in Congress for the preservation of the Union, the fate of various vation of the Union, the fate of various plans of compromise—many of which would have been accepted by the second Confederate Congress, recognizing the soft metal surface, and lays bare the States—and the action of Thirteen and existence of war between the United charge of composition powder below it.

The Republicans defeated States and the Confederate States, reads:

carth.

Mr. Cobb, of Alabama, said :

accession to office, to propose negotiations for a peaceful solution of the questions with old-fashio that the South is approachable with reatures were indignantly rejected. Fur, one solid mass; the shell is then put into son, and carnestly appealed for conciliation ther attempts through Judge Chapbell, a kind of lathe, and a cylindrical hole failed in like manner. Jeffe son Davis, of the exact size of the orifice of the shell in his message of April 29th said: is bored through the bullets and salphur.

dence; we ask no conquest, no aggrandisement, no concession of any hind from the States with which we were lately con-federated; all we ask is to be let alone; that those who never held power over us, by arms. This we will, this we must resist to the direct extremity. The moment that this pretension is abandoned, the sword will drop from our grasp, and the life with many the life the lower disc, while the outer disc is entered to the lower disc, while the outer disc is entered to the lower disc, while the outer disc is entered to the lower disc, while the outer disc is entered to the lower disc, while the outer disc is entered to the lower disc, while the outer disc is entered to the lower disc, while the outer disc is entered to the lower disc, while the outer disc is entered to the lower disc, while the outer disc is entered to the lower disc, while the outer disc is entered to the lower disc, while the outer disc is entered to the lower disc, while the outer disc is entered to the lower disc, while the outer disc is entered to the lower disc, while the outer disc is entered to the lower disc, while the outer disc is entered to the lower disc, while the lower disc, while the outer disc is entered the lower disc. we shall be ready to enter into treatles of amity and comperce that cannot but cle, 1,2,3,4. In this state the shell is of amity and commerce that cannot but be mutually beneficial."

Mr. Cobb, of Alabama, said: that he designed offensive war, and

COUNTY DIRECTORY.

Low Partnership.

Low Partnership.

River Partnership.

River proper is a mister well.

River proper is a m

The manufacture of bomb-shells is very interesting. The shell is first filled in controversy. The Commissioners were melted sulphur is then poured in to fill not officially received, and their over-up the interstices and bind the bullets in The cavity is filled with powder even with the interior edge of the orifice, six inch shell of the kind here described holding about half a pound. The fuse fitted into the orifice is a recent Belgian bles the screw-cap used for the patent fruit cans. An examination of this pew-ter cap shows, however, that it is made of two hollow dises of metal screwed the water-proof. When taken for use the all attempts for a peaceful settlement.

Even when Southern Senators and Representatives withdrem, upon the passage of the ordinance of secession by their respective States, many of them expressed an earnest desire that something might yet be done to restore the originals of risks government of the seconds, on the figure one; if in two passage of the ordinance of secession by their respective States, many of them and to settle all questions of disagree-tion shall first strike the object simed at the originals of risks trust and plade, sending the hullets forward as the went between the two governments upon and do execution as a bell, and then extended in the principles of right, justice, equity and plode, sending the bullets forward as if Union, and that relations of peace might be continued. Senator Slidell, of Loureason of the refusal of the government where the flight of the shell is arrested.

Is a said, on taking leave:

Of the United States to hold any interLarge shells of eight or ten inches age.