dered they were abandoned, and that the crows succeeded in making their escape. If so, we are at a loss to conjecture why they were not fired before being aban-

The disaster to our little firet is attributed to the fact that having exhausted their supply of coal and ammunition, they proceeded to Elizabeth City for the purpose of obtaining a supply. Eve effort was made to obtain soal, but wit out success, and on this account the fliet was unable to return to the Island or lend any assistance whatever to our forces. All the details as published with reference to the capture of Roaniko Insland are confirmed by the courier. He represents our loss at 300 killed and 1,000 wounded, and that of the en-

Rock Point battery was manned by the Richmond Blues, and most nobly did they defend it. During the conflict they were attacked by a whole regiment of Zouaves, and, though completely overed, they stood their ground bravely, nor did they, yield a foot till all, save averan, fall bleeding to the ground.

There is good reason to believe that had Colonel Heoningers.

There is good reason to believe that had Golphel Houningsen, with his artitlery, been on the Island, it would not have been forced to surrender. The lack of field pieces was sadly felt, and
