

U. S. Mail Stages.

THE subscriber is running a Line of Stages between Wash- ington, D. C., and Rockville, Md., and... BENJ. COOLEY, Proprietor.

Southern Invention.

WOODWORTH'S TOILET & WASHING SOAP. Discovered March 13th, 1860. Subscribed having purchased of Mr. Woodward the rights to this... BENJ. COOLEY, Proprietor.

Family Rights.

NOTICES of every description man- ufactured by the proprietor. The proprietor has the honor to announce that he has discovered a new and improved method of making soap...

Best Soap.

THE proprietor has the honor to announce that he has discovered a new and improved method of making soap. This soap is made of the finest materials and is of a superior quality...

Family Rights.

NOTICES of every description man- ufactured by the proprietor. The proprietor has the honor to announce that he has discovered a new and improved method of making soap...

Best Soap.

THE proprietor has the honor to announce that he has discovered a new and improved method of making soap. This soap is made of the finest materials and is of a superior quality...

Family Rights.

NOTICES of every description man- ufactured by the proprietor. The proprietor has the honor to announce that he has discovered a new and improved method of making soap...

Best Soap.

THE proprietor has the honor to announce that he has discovered a new and improved method of making soap. This soap is made of the finest materials and is of a superior quality...

THE SENTINEL.

ROCKVILLE, MD. FRIDAY, MARCH 21, 1862.

THE TARIFF LAW.—On the first page of today's issue will be found an official copy of the law passed by the Legislature of Maryland, "defining treason, and providing for the punishment of treason and other kindred offences."

"THE WAR AT EXETER."—By the terms of the Africa (says the Baltimore News Sheet) we have many interesting particulars of the state of opinion in Europe in regard to American affairs.

"THE WAR AT EXETER."—By the terms of the Africa (says the Baltimore News Sheet) we have many interesting particulars of the state of opinion in Europe in regard to American affairs.

"THE WAR AT EXETER."—By the terms of the Africa (says the Baltimore News Sheet) we have many interesting particulars of the state of opinion in Europe in regard to American affairs.

"THE WAR AT EXETER."—By the terms of the Africa (says the Baltimore News Sheet) we have many interesting particulars of the state of opinion in Europe in regard to American affairs.

"THE WAR AT EXETER."—By the terms of the Africa (says the Baltimore News Sheet) we have many interesting particulars of the state of opinion in Europe in regard to American affairs.

"THE WAR AT EXETER."—By the terms of the Africa (says the Baltimore News Sheet) we have many interesting particulars of the state of opinion in Europe in regard to American affairs.

"THE WAR AT EXETER."—By the terms of the Africa (says the Baltimore News Sheet) we have many interesting particulars of the state of opinion in Europe in regard to American affairs.

"THE WAR AT EXETER."—By the terms of the Africa (says the Baltimore News Sheet) we have many interesting particulars of the state of opinion in Europe in regard to American affairs.

NEWS FROM THE SOUTH.

The Louisville papers contain the subjoined extracts from Southern papers:

ADDRESS OF GEN. BEAUREGARD. Headquarters Army of the Mississippi, Jackson, Miss., March 8, 1862.

From Newmarket News. From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

NEWS FROM THE SOUTH.

The Louisville papers contain the subjoined extracts from Southern papers:

ADDRESS OF GEN. BEAUREGARD. Headquarters Army of the Mississippi, Jackson, Miss., March 8, 1862.

From Newmarket News. From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

NEWS FROM THE SOUTH.

The Louisville papers contain the subjoined extracts from Southern papers:

ADDRESS OF GEN. BEAUREGARD. Headquarters Army of the Mississippi, Jackson, Miss., March 8, 1862.

From Newmarket News. From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

NEWS FROM THE SOUTH.

The Louisville papers contain the subjoined extracts from Southern papers:

ADDRESS OF GEN. BEAUREGARD. Headquarters Army of the Mississippi, Jackson, Miss., March 8, 1862.

From Newmarket News. From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

From N. Y. World's Special Correspondent. JAMES R. BLOOMER. There can be no doubt that the Confederate forces concentrated at Yorktown, Little and Great Neck, and other places near by, number in all about 15,000 men.

GROCERIES! GROCERIES!

5 HOPS PRIME R. SUGAR, 41100 per lb. 10 Bbls Crushed Sugar, at 180 per pound. 5 Bbls B. Coffee Sugar, at 120 per pound. 5 Bbls C. Yellow Sugar, at 120 per lb. 20 Bags Prime Green Rio Coffee, at 120 per lb. Jamaica Coffee, prime, at 300 per lb. Santos Coffee, do, do, at 200 per lb. 10 Bbls Pure Old Rye Whiskey, a prime article, warranted pure. With a varied assortment of GROCERIES too numerous to mention. Hotel keepers, and others who buy to sell again, will find it greatly to their advantage to examine our stock before purchasing. Adjoining the Montgomery Hotel, on 11th Street, between Second and Third Streets, Rockville, Md. D. C.

FOR SALE!

VERY FINE HORSES, suitable for farm work, or for driving horses. They are sold for the reason that the proprietor has no further use for them. Apply to S. A. MALLACK, General Advertising Agent, Rockville, Md.

At Our Expense.

ALL kinds of PERSONAL PROPERTY and REAL ESTATE advertised at our own expense and risk are made, a very liberal price charged, by S. A. MALLACK, General Advertising Agent, Rockville, Md.

The Time to Sell!

ANY person having a TRACT OF LAND, or any other real estate, for sale, or for leasing, or for any other purpose, will find a purchaser, or a lessee, or a tenant, at a very liberal price charged, by S. A. MALLACK, General Advertising Agent, Rockville, Md.

Small Farms.

IF YOU WANT A SMALL FARM in Montgomery county, at a reasonable price, all that is necessary is to address S. A. MALLACK, General Advertising Agent, Rockville, Md.

Auctioneering.

ATTENDED to in all parts of the county, at very reasonable rates, by the undersigned. S. A. MALLACK, General Advertising Agent, Rockville, Md.

MONEY!

COLLECTING attended to in any part of the county, at a low rate of charge, by S. A. MALLACK, General Advertising Agent, Rockville, Md.

Trustee's Sale.

ORDERED, the 7th day of March, 1862, by the Court and the authority thereof, that THOMAS H. GASSAWAY, Administrator of the Estate of John H. Gassaway, deceased, do and make distribution of the assets in his hands among the creditors of said deceased, and that they be and they are, to file their claims on or before said day. Provided a copy of this notice be published in some newspaper printed in Rockville, Md., for four successive weeks prior to said day. Test—JOHN W. SPATES, Register of Wills.

Trustee's Sale.

By virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court for Montgomery county, as a Court of Equity, in the case of George Peter and others vs. Eliza Gassaway and others, the undersigned, as trustee, will offer at public sale, on SATURDAY, the 5th day of April next, at 11 o'clock A. M., at the residence of John H. Gassaway, the following Valuable Tract of Land, to-wit: A certain tract of land, containing 1600 ACRES OF LAND, more or less, known as the "Walker Place," and adjoining the lands on which John H. Gassaway, deceased, resided, about 2 1/2 miles north of Darkeston, and lying on the public road leading from New Market to the public road from Darkeston to Rockville. The land is well wooded and WATERED. One-third of the purchase money to be paid in the day of sale, and the balance to be paid in three equal annual installments, the whole to bear interest from the day of sale, and the deferred payments to be paid annually, and the deferred payments to be secured by the single bills of the purchaser, with a surety or sureties to be approved by the Trustee. GEORGE PETER, Trustee.

Trustee's Sale.

By virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court for Montgomery county, as a Court of Equity, in the case of George Peter and others vs. William A. Gassaway and Laura Gassaway, the undersigned, as Trustee, will offer at public sale, on SATURDAY, the 5th day of April next, at 11 o'clock A. M., at the residence of John H. Gassaway, a good and desirable SMALL FARM, containing about 1100 ACRES OF LAND, more or less. This farm is situated in Maryland, about three miles north of Darkeston, and about four miles from P. C. Clopper's Mill. The improvements consist of a good FRAME BUILDING, newly erected, and a new and necessary out-building. This farm is well WATERED. Any one desiring to view the premises before the day of sale, can do so by calling on John H. Gassaway, who will show them. TERMS OF SALE.—One-third of the purchase money to be paid on the day of sale, and the balance to be paid in three equal annual installments, the whole to bear interest from the day of sale, and the deferred payments to be paid annually, and the deferred payments to be secured by the single bills of the purchaser, with a surety or sureties to be approved by the Trustee. JOHN H. GASSAWAY, Trustee.

THE MARKETS.

BALTIMORE, March 19, 1862. GRAIN.—The offerings of Wheat at Baltimore and Maryland Corn and Flour Exchange this morning added up some 4,000 bushels, and the demand was very limited on our quotations of yesterday, viz: inferior to medium white $1.15-1.30, good to prime do. $1.25-1.45, and prime to choice do., $1.50-1.75 per bushel for fair to prime. Of Corn some 25,000 bushels offered, and the demand was good, white selling at 54-58 cents, and yellow 52-57 cents per bushel, though really prime yellow would bring 58 cents per bushel—a large proportion of the receipts of both colors is damp and unsuitable for shipment. Only some 3,000 bushels Oats offered, which again were dull at 34-36 cents for Maryland, and 32-34 cents per bushel for Pennsylvania. RYE.—The offerings of RYE were very limited, and the demand was not very active. It was sold at 48-50 cents per bushel, with or without test, and easily executed at the latter rate.

THE MARKETS.

BALTIMORE, March 19, 1862. GRAIN.—The offerings of Wheat at Baltimore and Maryland Corn and Flour Exchange this morning added up some 4,000 bushels, and the demand was very limited on our quotations of yesterday, viz: inferior to medium white $1.15-1.30, good to prime do. $1.25-1.45, and prime to choice do., $1.50-1.75 per bushel for fair to prime. Of Corn some 25,000 bushels offered, and the demand was good, white selling at 54-58 cents, and yellow 52-57 cents per bushel, though really prime yellow would bring 58 cents per bushel—a large proportion of the receipts of both colors is damp and unsuitable for shipment. Only some 3,000 bushels Oats offered, which again were dull at 34-36 cents for Maryland, and 32-34 cents per bushel for Pennsylvania. RYE.—The offerings of RYE were very limited, and the demand was not very active. It was sold at 48-50 cents per bushel, with or without test, and easily executed at the latter rate.

THE MARKETS.

BALTIMORE, March 19, 1862. GRAIN.—The offerings of Wheat at Baltimore and Maryland Corn and Flour Exchange this morning added up some 4,000 bushels, and the demand was very limited on our quotations of yesterday, viz: inferior to medium white $1.15-1.30, good to prime do. $1.25-1.45, and prime to choice do., $1.50-1.75 per bushel for fair to prime. Of Corn some 25,000 bushels offered, and the demand was good, white selling at 54-58 cents, and yellow 52-57 cents per bushel, though really prime yellow would bring 58 cents per bushel—a large proportion of the receipts of both colors is damp and unsuitable for shipment. Only some 3,000 bushels Oats offered, which again were dull at 34-36 cents for Maryland, and 32-34 cents per bushel for Pennsylvania. RYE.—The offerings of RYE were very limited, and the demand was not very active. It was sold at 48-50 cents per bushel, with or without test, and easily executed at the latter rate.

THE MARKETS.

BALTIMORE, March 19, 1862. GRAIN.—The offerings of Wheat at Baltimore and Maryland Corn and Flour Exchange this morning added up some 4,000 bushels, and the demand was very limited on our quotations of yesterday, viz: inferior to medium white $1.15-1.30, good to prime do. $1.25-1.45, and prime to choice do., $1.50-1.75 per bushel for fair to prime. Of Corn some 25,000 bushels offered, and the demand was good, white selling at 54-58 cents, and yellow 52-57 cents per bushel, though really prime yellow would bring 58 cents per bushel—a large proportion of the receipts of both colors is damp and unsuitable for shipment. Only some 3,000 bushels Oats offered, which again were dull at 34-36 cents for Maryland, and 32-34 cents per bushel for Pennsylvania. RYE.—The offerings of RYE were very limited, and the demand was not very active. It was sold at 48-50 cents per bushel, with or without test, and easily executed at the latter rate.

THE MARKETS.

BALTIMORE, March 19, 1862. GRAIN.—The offerings of Wheat at Baltimore and Maryland Corn and Flour Exchange this morning added up some 4,000 bushels, and the demand was very limited on our quotations of yesterday, viz: inferior to medium white $1.15-1.30, good to prime do. $1.25-1.45, and prime to choice do., $1.50-1.75 per bushel for fair to prime. Of Corn some 25,000 bushels offered, and the demand was good, white selling at 54-58 cents, and yellow 52-57 cents per bushel, though really prime yellow would bring 58 cents per bushel—a large proportion of the receipts of both colors is damp and unsuitable for shipment. Only some 3,000 bushels Oats offered, which again were dull at 34-36 cents for Maryland, and 32-34 cents per bushel for Pennsylvania. RYE.—The offerings of RYE were very limited, and the demand was not very active. It was sold at 48-50 cents per bushel, with or without test, and easily executed at the latter rate.

THE MARKETS.

BALTIMORE, March 19, 1862. GRAIN.—The offerings of Wheat at Baltimore and Maryland Corn and Flour Exchange this morning added up some 4,000 bushels, and the demand was very limited on our quotations of yesterday, viz: inferior to medium white $1.15-1.30, good to prime do. $1.25-1.45, and prime to choice do., $1.50-1.75 per bushel for fair to prime. Of Corn some 25,000 bushels offered, and the demand was good, white selling at 54-58 cents, and yellow 52-57 cents per bushel, though really prime yellow would bring 58 cents per bushel—a large proportion of the receipts of both colors is damp and unsuitable for shipment. Only some 3,000 bushels Oats offered, which again were dull at 34-36 cents for Maryland, and 32-34 cents per bushel for Pennsylvania. RYE.—The offerings of RYE were very limited, and the demand was not very active. It was sold at 48-50 cents per bushel, with or without test, and easily executed at the latter rate.

THE MARKETS.

BALTIMORE, March 19, 1862. GRAIN.—The offerings of Wheat at Baltimore and Maryland Corn and Flour Exchange this morning added up some 4,000 bushels, and the demand was very limited on our quotations of yesterday, viz: inferior to medium white $1.15-1.30, good to prime do. $1.25-1.45, and prime to choice do., $1.50-1.75 per bushel for fair to prime. Of Corn some 25,000 bushels offered, and the demand was good, white selling at 54-58 cents, and yellow 52-57 cents per bushel, though really prime yellow would bring 58 cents per bushel—a large proportion of the receipts of both colors is damp and unsuitable for shipment. Only some 3,000 bushels Oats offered, which again were dull at 34-36 cents for Maryland, and 32-34 cents per bushel for Pennsylvania. RYE.—The offerings of RYE were very limited, and the demand was not very active. It was sold at 48-50 cents per bushel, with or without test, and easily executed at the latter rate.