THE SENTINEL

ROCKVILLE, MD. FRIDAY, MAY 2, 1862

War News

Since Monday last, the papers have been filled with accounts, from various sources, of the fall of St. Orleans. But, by way of Fort Monroe, neither the latest telegrams from Mobile, nor the extracts which purport to be taken from Southern papers, call for the attention of the public...

Abolition in the District of Columbia

A civil war, bloodier and fiercer than that of the British, is now raging in our country—the fruit of that noxious, exotic, Abolitionism, transplanted in the garden of philanthropy, through the hands of a false and fanatical phylax...

LOCAL AFFAIRS

CORPORATION ELECTION.—The voters of the corporation will remember that, on Monday next, our annual corporation election takes place. The polls will be held at Justice Bond's office.
