THE SENTINEL.

PROCLAMATION
By the President of the U. States.

The Slaves of all States in Rebellion on the First of January, 1863, to be Free thenceforward and forever Free.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22—The following highly important proclamation has just been issued from the Executive department:

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States of America, and Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy thereof, do hereby proclaim and declare that hereafter, as heretofore, the war will be prosecuted for the object of practically restoring the constitutional relation between the United States and each of the States and people thereof, in which States that relation is or may be suspended or disturbed. That it is my purpose, upon the next meeting of Congress, to again recommend the adoption of a practical measure tendering pecuniary aid to the free acceptance or rejection of all slave States, so called, the people whereof, may not then be in rebellion against the United States, and which States may then have voluntarily adopted, or thereafter may voluntarily adopt, immediate or gradual abolishment of slavery within their respective limits; and [illegible] elsewhere, with the previously [illegible] sent of the governments existing there, will be continued. That on the first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, all persons held as slaves within any State, or designated part of a State, the people whereof shall then be in rebellion against the United States, shall be then, thenceforward and forever free; and the Executive government of the United States, including the military and naval authority thereof, will recognize and maintain the freedom of such persons, and will do no act or acts to repress such persons, or any of them, in any efforts they may make for their actual freedom.

That the Executive will, on the 1st day of January aforesaid, by proclamation, designate the States and parts of States, if any, in which the people thereof respectively shall then be in rebellion against the United States. And the fact that any State or the people thereof shall on that day be in good faith represented in the Congress of the United States by members chosen thereto at elections wherein a majority of the qualified voters of such State shall have participated, shall, in the absence of strong countervailing testimony, be declared conclusive evidence that such State and the people thereof are not then in rebellion against the United States.

That attention is hereby called to an act of Congress, entitled "An act to make an additional article of war," approved March 13, 1862, and which act is in the words and figures following:

"Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, that hereafter the following shall be promulgated as an additional article of war for the government of the army of the United States, and shall be obeyed and observed as such.

"Article—. All officers or persons in the military or naval service of the United States are prohibited from employing any of the forces under their respective commands for the purpose of returning fugitives from service or labor who may have escaped from persons to whom such service or labor is claimed to be due, and any officer who shall be found guilty, by a court martial, of violating this article, shall be dismissed from the service."

"Section 2d. And be it further enacted, that this act shall take effect from and after its passage."

Also, to the ninth and tenth sections of an act entitled "An act to suppress insurrection, to punish treason and rebellion, to seize and confiscate property of rebels, and for other purposes," approved July 17, 1862, and which sections are in the words and figures following:

"Section 9. And be it further enacted, That all slaves of persons who shall hereafter be engaged in rebellion against the government of the United States, or who shall in any way give aid or comfort thereto, escaping from such persons and taking refuge within the lines of the army; and all slaves captured from such persons, or deserted by them, and coming under the control of the government of the United States, and all slaves of such persons found on or being within any place occupied by rebel forces, and afterwards occupied by the forces of the United States, shall be deemed captures of war, and shall be forever free of their servitude and not again held as slaves.

"Section 10. And be it further enacted, That no slave escaping into any State, Territory or the District of Columbia from any other State, shall be delivered up, or in any way impeded or hindered of his liberty, except for crime or some offense against the laws, unless the person claiming said fugitive shall first make oath that the person to whom the labor or service of such fugitive is alleged to be due is his lawful owner, and has not borne arms against the United States in the present rebellion nor in any way given aid and comfort thereto. And no person engaged in the military or naval service of the United States shall, under any pretense whatever, assume to decide on the validity of the claim of any person to the service or labor of any other person, or surrender up any such person to the claimant, on pain of being dismissed from the service.

And I do hereby enjoin upon and order all persons engaged in the military and naval service of the United States to observe, obey and enforce, within their respective spheres of service, the acts and sections above recited.

And the Executive will, in due time, recommend that all citizens of the United States who shall have remained loyal thereto throughout the rebellion, shall (upon the restoration of the constitutional relations between the United States and their respective States and people, if that relation shall have been suspended or disturbed) be compensated for all losses by acts of the United States, including the loss of slaves.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this 22d day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and of the Independence of the United States the eighty-seventh. ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

By the President:
WM. H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

AFFAIRS AT FREDERICK.—We copy the following from the Frederick (Md.) Union:

Destruction of Frederick County Jail by Fire.—Fire was communicated to this building on Saturday night last, between the hours of 11 and 12 o'clock, by some of the prisoners, and before it was discovered it had made such progress as to render all efforts to save it unavailing. The prisoners were all secured. The destruction of this property just at this particular time will bear heavily upon our county.

Military Hospitals.—We learn that all the churches, school houses, academies and colleges in this city have been taken for the accommodation of the wounded in the late engagements in this vicinity.

A SUPPLEMENT TO THE MARYLAND CODE.

CONTAINING THE ACTS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, passed at the Extra Sessions of 1861, and the Regular Session of 1862, divided into Public General and Public Local Laws, and arranged in articles and sections to correspond with the Code. Also, an APPENDIX, containing the Private Acts and the Resolutions of the Extra Sessions of 1861, and the Regular Session of 1862, in Alphabetical and Numerical Order. By H. C. MACKALL, of the Maryland Bar. To which is added, the CONSTITUTION OF MARYLAND, with References to the Decisions of the Court of Appeals, and the CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, with Notes and References to the Decisions of the Supreme Court. The whole carefully and accurately Indexed. By EDWARD OTIS HINKLEY, of the Baltimore Bar.

We believe we thus offer to the public a work invaluable to every Lawyer, Magistrate, Politician, Business Man, and every Citizen of Maryland; and one invaluable to every possessor of the Code.

The importance of the legislation of the last sessions of the Legislature, affecting, as it does, the interests of every man in the State, renders it a matter of the greatest moment to each individual, to have in a convenient and accessible form, the Acts of Assembly, and it is scarcely less so to have embodied, in the same volume, the Important Resolutions which enunciate the policy of the State in the present crisis, while it will prove a matter of no slight moment to individuals and corporations, thus to have preserved in a permanent form, the Acts on which their rights and interests may depend.

By continuing the publication of the work, as we propose, it is believed that the Bar of Maryland will have the Statute Law of the State in a form as convenient and accessible as that of any State in the Union.

☞ Such as may desire to secure the Supplement, will do well to order at once, as the work has not been stereotyped, and the extent of the edition, beyond the number subscribed for, is small.

On the receipt of $3, in current money, the Supplement will be sent prepaid by mail.

On the receipt of $12, in current money, five copies of the Supplement will be sent by any conveyance in conformity to any directions.

The Maryland Code,
Containing all the Public General and Public Local Laws, now in force in the State of Maryland, compiled by OTHO SCOTT and HIRAM MCCULLOCH, Commissioners; adopted by the Legislature of Maryland, January Session, 1860; the Acts of that Session being therewith incorporated: with an Index to each article and section. By HENRY C. MACKALL, of the Maryland Bar. Second Edition. Two volumes, sheep, 900 pages, only $6, interleaved $10.

It is deemed superfluous to dwell on the merits or advantages of this great work, the preparation of which has cost the State upwards of $50,000. It has been carefully examined by several of the most eminent lawyers in the State. All unite in pronouncing it the most complete body of Domestic Jurisprudence for Professional, as well as Popular use, ever published, and one of the best arranged, as it is unquestionably one of the neatest and cheapest law books ever produced in this country. The unexpected demand, and the very favorable opinions expressed by competent judges, are gratifying evidences, that the mode of issuing the work—in a superior style, and at about one-half the usual price of law books—has met with public approbation.

With an elaborate and well digested Index to each article and section—careful and minute in its classification of subjects, the reader, no matter how unfamiliar with the science of law, may easily examine the enactments on any question referring to his Property, his Rights, his Duties, or his Liberties as a citizen.

☞ Every Law Officer, every Merchant, Manufacturer and Farmer, every Mechanic and Artizan, every Professional and Business Man, ought to secure a copy of THE CODE.

On the receipt of $6, in current money, the Code and Supplement will be sent prepaid by mail.

On all orders for the Code and Supplement, amounting to $15 and upwards, at a time, a discount of 20 per cent. will be made.

Special terms will be made with Agents for counties or districts.

Orders, to receive attention, must be accompanied with the cash.

WOODWORTH'S
COMPOUND TOILET & WASHING SOAP
Patented March 13th, 1860.

THE subscriber having purchased of Mr. Woodworth the Patent Right for Montgomery county, Md., for his IMPROVED SOAP, now offers for sale

Family Rights.

Also, SOAPS of every description manufactured by his process.

The subscriber has tested this soap thoroughly, and can, with confidence, recommend it to the citizens of Montgomery county. It is decidedly the that has ever been made, and at the same time the mode of manufacturing the simplest that has ever been discovered. It can be made in TEN MINUTES. Any one can beat over the fire a quantity of water, and turn the same into the best Toilet or Washing Soap. It is made without any offensive smell. There is no lye or grease used, being made entirely from chemicals. It has been analyzed by some of the best chemists, and found to contain nothing that will injure the most delicate fibres, or the skin.

This soap has been used by thousands of families for the last six months, and it is universally preferred to any other, wherever it is known, both for its superior quality as a washing and toilet soap, and for the great economy there is in using it, being cheaper by than any other soap known. Every family should possess it, and needs only to be known to be sought after by every household and laundress in the land.

☞ The chemicals for its manufacture can be obtained at any Drug Store, at a very trifling expense.

FAMILY RIGHTS, or any of the Soaps, can be obtained of the subscriber. Any one purchasing a family right, and are dissatisfied after giving the soap a fair trial, can return it. He will, if required by the person purchasing a right, make some of the soap.
